Dear Major

I was just on the point of writing to you what had become of you when your welcome letter of the 17th hit me & its appearance, and I now write to thank you for it.
Mr Bristow has spent most of the Summer with Annie & her children at their home in Mass. while I have devoted myself to the service of clients who either were, or fancied they were in need of professional advice and assistance; so that we did not get to the Va. Spring.
About the middle of August I went to
