Dear Major

I have tried to see Dr Hagon, but so far have not succeeded. I addressed a note to him at his home asking him to designate a time & place where I could see him but have no reply.
If I knew where to locate the woman I would try to find out something about her but in the absence of any information as to her identity or whereabouts it is impossible to get the information. Cannot Dr Pullock get some friend here to locate her & let me know.

Upon further examination of authorities I am persuaded that nothing is to be gained by failing
