

BENJ. H. BRISTOW.
WILLIAM PEET.
WM S. OPDYKE.
DAVID WILLCOX.
WM B. BRISTOW.

Bristow, Peet & Opdyke,
20 Nassau St. New York.

Sept 4. 1894

Dear Major

I have yours of the 30th ult.

Dr Hagon still avoids me without acknowledging his promise. For some reason he seems determined to keep out of the matter. Unless Dr Bullock can enlighten him I fear we shall not have the benefit of his amity or his testimony, although he told me enough within his own knowledge to dispel the common cloud of marriage.

Last Saturday I put the matter in the hands of Pinkerton - furnishing him the facts stated by Dr B. Of course the time is rather cold as it is so long since Dr B knew her whereabouts, but P. now need do the best that