

I feel some anxiety about your eye. It continues impaired so long, that I suppose you must be uneasy. Had you not better go to Phila. and see Dr. Gross. You should not neglect the matter

My dear Mr. Pratt well except Helen. She has been suffering from a slight attack of intermittent fever. She has not been in the city for a week.

Dear Mr. Garrison
 I am very glad to hear from you and hope you are well. I am well and hope to see you soon.
