Dear Uncle Henry:

You must not think me a nuisance; for, while I do not wish you to put yourself out in any way for me, still I want to let you know the sooner you see Mr. Bishop in my behalf the more good you can do me. I have an idea that it will be but a short time before another clerk is added to the present force, and, while I think I will get some increase in salary when the change is made, still if you see Mr. Bishop and get him to speak to Mr. Barrett it will be more certain and ~~be~~ very likely larger than it otherwise would. I have been trying to see you for some time, and probably could explain things better if I did get to see you, but at any rate I am sure you can give him a talk that will help me and trust
