Dear Sir:-

Yours of the 10th, inst.

with Buchanan's letter enclosed came duly to hand, and in reply will say, you did quite right in turning the matter over to me, as it is not at all necessary for you to see Mr. Buchanan about it, and I will attend to it as I have always done heretofore; Buchanan presumes too much upon your friendship and I consider his letter to you very impertinent. I am sorry the Greens ever rented him desk room there; I could have made a better bargain with them last year if it had not been for him. I have an engagement with the Green Bros. to-morrow afternoon to see what they purpose to do for next year, and I do not intend to have Buchanan's nose in it if I can help it. I always give present lessees preference if they will give as much as any body else.

Yours Truly,

W. A. Kliessendorff.
