

Evansville, Indiana, January 1st, 1895.

Henry C. McDowell, Esq.,
Lexington, Kentucky,

Dear Sir:-

Enclosed please find affidavit which I wish you would subscribe and swear to before a Notary Public, it is for the purpose of clearing up the title to the tract of land in this County known as Ballard's Addition. I understand that Messrs Rasch & McCutchan of this city got an affidavit from you as to part of the facts stated in the enclosed affidavit, but it was never placed on record and I am compelled to ask you for this. You will also please find enclosed a Quit-Claim Deed which I wish you would send to Mrs Zanone, if she is living, and have her and husband sign and acknowledge. You will also please find enclosed the fees for the Notaries Public.

Respectfully,

[William R. Aufderhede]
