

[April, 1834,

Dear Sir

In answer to your note, Mrs. Clay desires me to express her wish that Miss Prather would do her the favor to come to our residence and remain with us during her abode in this City. Although Mrs. Clay's health is still extremely feeble, she always intended and still earnestly desires that Miss Prather should remain with us, as long as she pleases, prior to her return to Kentucky. This invitation would be most cheerfully extended to Miss Pope and Miss Oldham also, but that we have not room, in our limited dwelling, to render them comfortable.

Yrs faithfully and with great respect

H. Clay
