Dear Sirs:— Your prompt & valued reply to my my letter of inquiry duly rec<sup>d</sup> & rec<sup>d</sup>. We here like the breeding of several of your colts very much, <sup>and</sup> are frank enough to say, at the outset, that we are very much prejudiced in favor of anything with Dictator's blood in him. We can't see by the catalogue, nor by your letter, why you <sup>price</sup> number 22, 12, at $1500.<sup>00</sup> & then ask $250<sup>00</sup> for Barre. Please explain.

Please inform me if you would sell any one of the colts
