

A. and M. College of Kentucky
November 4, 1898.

The faculty met in regular monthly session in the President's room at 8³⁰ am. All present except Prof. Neville, W. K. Patterson, Rook, Pryor, Anderson and Mathews.

The President called attention to a communication received from Mr. Felix Kerrick relative to the degree of Master of Arts. On motion the communication was referred to the Classical faculty with the request that that faculty convene as early practicable and report the result of its action.

Prof. White, Chairman of the Committee to revise the Schedules ^{in course of study}, was not ready to report.
