Flying machines in formation have just passed overhead. Lizzie has been out on the front "shop" to view them. She says she "never seen but one extra time"

Had a nice note from Kaleb of Indiana, who takes his seat March 4th. Also have heard from Bill of Washington State. These in reply to kinds of congratulation & continued expression of Constitutional sympathy of purpose. Some day I shall go up to the Capitol for call on Alice Kautsky & Wm. Huck. I would very much enjoy conversing with them. Both leave March 4th never to return again. No doubt Christmas is drawing near, we shall get some cards about the fifteenth when the school holidays begin & make a wholesale time of it. I hope you can be here at that time.

Dear Albert, In yesterday's letter I neglected to acknowledge the receipt of Hunter's Patria card & the Blue Crested received in suspect condition. Again I want to ask you to bring with you or take to Kogart that neg. in order to avoid Christmas rush. My silver desire to take the Memorial Lamp map copies & place inside the safe & protect it in carrying to town. If you bring it guard against articles. Kogart can easily look or express unpaid or charge to the situation. Truly yours, Albert I need it as I do a few other things but do not want to bring anything here this winter. It is not likely that I shall return to Kentucky this summer.

Stamps etc. etc. etc.

If we can possibly compose the trip to England I can only think not possible or probable features or excursions, so that what ever our direction may be we shall be ready to jump
- like hell if jump - So that is the last word now - I do not feel inclined to dispose of the few loose articles about which I get to see what since I am doing little in any way social or otherwise we can manage - Quaker gave her luncheon informally, if it was very nice, but party of any importance could be accomplished, besides your Grandmother's illness etc. excluded my features - Coffee & doughnuts Tea & cake in the afternoon represents our efforts versus the situation - This is a great place for a cup of tea - Ellen Ceroy suggested going to the National Museum, & the Quakers wandered over it while I remained in the first division, also went through the City Market - Ellen I think suggested her visit of the return when ever she can - She is attractive & has strong personality - very gentle & well heard Gossamer Municipal plants which are being successfully choked out by the grass that control her destiny - Under covered delighted to have her & they have quickly & happily formed a friendship - Rachel part of this party for Friday & to be gone on Tuesday with the Kerrills - Mother continued "the fair" - Boxes are in bloom in some garden - Thurs. 8th - a copy of the Va. Gazette is after the Negro vote. He has been a lover of the race so watch the expressions & so in the allusion to it in a Wedge - Allusions - or perhaps that note for the upholding of the Constitution as given it is a note. At a declaration of the Republic - which he has as Edw.

the past they had a right to be it - but this intelligence - moral & political - make it necessary that private pockets in this case - pay for it and that if there is here are the best means children & men - cracked the husbands & some

Butcher Gardner is a good shop for books & the like - Our patronage is somewhat like a well balanced meal - This morning's mail brings a paper to you from Addison I shall forward it - One came for me also - these I have been forwarding to your father at the magazine - I send him some for anything seen some with the Picayune? Not afraid to ascertain as a means of observation they can much in his house with them - The morning paper from Gardner's message is a triple letter in respect to the Congress which arrived Monday - I suspect he had to see General Grant & others before that he was called - I wish you to be kept much about the Country these days - no doubt may be edition of certain deeds - perhaps way can they be made to walk in the fear of God

White & restaurants - There are no doubt serious organisations & interloper fully the originals in bad estate - Gov. Parker of Louisiana made many kinds of an old set of himself is still in Washington - I think he is afraid to return to Baton Rouge just now. It is stated Hardin will resemble the States Governors in Council - The Women have or which some are temporary with, but as surely a compromise must be anticipated & met - The North has now a large appropriation they were the Negroes show now the hypocrisy of the party out on the town & quarter me with Kelly, to the home. Uncle Hart & Lemmie Cutting a line we all assembled in the evening.

When Congressman Bullwinkle (great name) of the Charlotte N.C. District came in to Cass & Willard Parker. Kelly & I dined with us so he & Ducker possessed themselves of the great parlor, the door closed for the rest of us. I sat until half after ten & then to bed, knowing the men would have a few spicy stories after the restraint of my presence was removed. Today, I go to Mrs. Bartholomew the business, as the commencement costumes are necessary.

Miss Alexander has suffered a serious attack down in health, so the 9th of Dec. cannot be presented. Ducker had been given the title of Receiver & committed to memory, a great part of it. Of course this means a different program. Mr. I have a little time to talk with you on business. John has accepted & qualified as Administrator of Kud's estate. Complying with Court & actions will see anybody at any time if I wish or I like. Not in his ing of water on both shoulders is finally served - Sister plays everybody as far as she can or they will, come under the

If you are given the opportunity, better advise always to submit the paper or give everyone a chance, it precludes disturbance Ask your Aunt, if she received a leather carry all for her automobile? I read it from Woodward & Lathrop for her birthday, but the sorrow of the time, made confusion

Mr. Harrison G. Foster

Father who is from Sunday's age is 67 his duty well executed - A cable from Adolphe states he is to leave at 4.5 - Sunday to see Russell before leaving. Whether this meant a surprise that he was to go over in a ship to our island or occupy the Yankee boat I don't know. Also he says "don't meet me at Capriane I'll be right - pl. - well love" so you see he is packing up - like a young Col. I'll hold my breath. Capt. Popper of the ship went to a Swiss - but you know when you have I must take care of - guide - or C. H. of course and some of the money is placed in the bank to lunch just a line to you - I have been to the Dutch Embassy to take visa id. I have nearly gone to my map on the island part of the at much trouble as I have "a mind to". I have been balancing accounts or trying to average matters. The weather is intensely hot & the Shivers have deserted the place, good summers, but so common & ordinary. My Shiver is a Man, but every Man is not a Shiver thank products. However they are all Americans. In least Mind & soul & there is some advantage just now in emphasizing the fact. Thousands upon thousands are here, you Fisher has found many acquaintances already, & old college pals. He seems well contented & serene, confident & satisfied with the net work for you & Addison, has not begun yet - to make a doctor is poor.

It is thirty four years today since you left or stepped off to take the oath of Allegiance. I am still holding you - & I think you last trunk in your room, in which she says, the remainder will be found May. or she will let me know if back - What may was it - just see that if it is under stood as I have never had a word put her on the subject - the matter before the Massachusetts State Court M. C. Ferran It did not mention to any one else & de termined to keep it when Peter wrote she could not make take it - You father would have sold her if true - I'd been a kid he was ill or not himself - I shall obtain the book case - When do you think you will be Called last week. He was over for his first-visit to N. Y. A nice young chap who seems to be greatly attached to Addison. I invited him to dinner & he took a sharp shot of me for Addison's remarking. My father's hair is so beautiful - He has had only ten days to see all of this country, of course in the East & covering business territory. Addison he says is at the top. has made a marked impression in the office in New York & is present in all Conferences - I'm glad his lamp was painted or rep. with he had finished the course - it has a stabilizing effect on the mind & general temperament if one has any ability at all - I think it will remain in Europe for sometime to visit for he is going in all directions - There will be another trip over after another winter at home - then you will be back as we shall remain some time I hope -

How is Uncle Bud getting on?

Christiana Arkell is enjoying herself & now her old friend Mrs. Weston the Richards wife has entertained for her I see - or may others - I hope B.A. & Co. was a success & am sorry not to have been there -

By the way say to Christiana Arkell that the book case will be returned to me - Sally Chant is scheming to get it as a present - Christiana sent me a cheque for $150.00 the amount being the price, her letter to me is in the small

But be too modest. take a bold part What is coming to you - your business - Cabin published in the paper has splendid. & you always say something This is a great experience & opportunity do your work to let it be satisfied you are doing it - to that each man takes his place. There are so many tricksters these days. Every thing is complicated. We are selling on you - the hardest is over - Spencer Cape Thompson in good stands of Richard. The cloth sure? I must have had a note and will - before we leave - I think we shall get away from Washington June 21st 1864.

During the day to see Mary in New York pick up Edw. Lewis, & David & 3. I must have from you some details, perhaps a few statements on paper to Wm. Chapman as far as possible. Under the name of Continental that will receive initial checks & deposit. & You take some checks to send you. Give us advice & date

Several in July, to leave here.

Expected the July will make it easier to balance - I am trying to manage to see Uncle Hart who is in Claymont Delaware - Aunt Sally has made such a mess of things in trying to save her neck, that our family is on strained lines for no reason in this world but her treachery & mischief making - The ignoble thought of always being to be first in the affections of every body is a sad ambition &

When discovered, disposed of - nearly always admit or jiggling to stir up strife Such persons succeed, discredit innocent persons - How ever you are wise or will be prudent or not susceptible to malicious suggestions, - One must be Honest or bluff - The Reserve work seems to have been well taken hold of or you have done the greater part - as Secretary you will be in touch with it is an important office - Scott B. is a fine chap & you two should work well together

Get in a little time in their direction I'd never seen it. The weather is fine today & the G.A.R.'s are holding back in the Stadium - Wednesday is Spokane - I am sure they will share Celebrate suitably here at 312 Cliff The G.A.R.'s regard us with a very critical eye they do not know how much of a fool I am & I do not know how they think the old soldiers - Mr. Conner did not give to Europe - I am doing with them right at the club with my ordinary mail the defendants must put - Virginia Carver has been asked to

Dearest Matt

In your father's last letter he reiterates the fact that he cannot be with me on the 6th of June & it occurs to me that you are not in a position to unnecessarily use your hard earned dollars that perhaps it may mean more to you to come later in the month or when ever your father returns - Do what you think best & I am sure it will be right - just send me a line to let me know your plans - Cecelia Talman is leaving St. Paul June 1st with Mr. Thompson - you might keep the machine during the stay or motor down bringing them to Seattle where I could join the party or all come here for a day or two to rest - Mrs. Thompson would like a day or two here with Cecelia - I hope to find enough to entertain Cecelia for a week anyway - Addison & Mr. Peckey would like to come down with you - Addison comes over in the morning could it get off early enough I believe this afternoon or going - I do wish he would learn to discriminate between May King's Commercial Quarterly - so highly discussed & urged upon ~~you~~ by Magistrate R. W. Spurr, appointed to fill the vacancy in the fiscal court created by the death of the late W. F. McKinney, qualified as a member of the court yesterday and began his duties as justice of the peace from the Seventh district. The commission from Gov. W. J. Fields was received by the county clerk and filed.

Hart Gibson Foster was appointed administrator of the estate of Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan Gibson Foster, deceased, by an order entered in county court yesterday. Viley McFerren and Mrs. Charles C. Garr and C. H. Anderson were appointed appraisers of the same estate.

"The Right of Way"

Adown life's rugged roadway Over the broad expanse, Leafing boughs are beck'ning, And, the clouds in their shaping mass
Are leading us on our journey To the curve in the road perchance, Where earth-worn, time-spent pilgrims
Have counted the milestones passed.

Eternal! Unending pathway, Bright flowers bloom sweet at thy side

The thorn and the thistle may touch us

Yet—ever in love we abide.
With life as a great commission The spirit rides free to the call.
For the curve in the road gives shelter

And death to us comes—not at all.

—E. D. G. Foster.

The above poem was written by Mrs. Harrison Gardner Foster, whose death last week caused such sadness in the community, and sent with a note to a friend.
