which I think she will prize very highly - give my kind regards to Miss H. & James - tell Miss H. that would write to her to day only I am going in to Boston on Monday evening to see some of her friends - and suppose she had rather have a letter written after the visit -

The best love of

Your affectionate brother

My Dear Lily

I was very glad to receive your last letter, you must write to me as often as you have time, and tell me every thing that is going on at home.

Your letter is the only one that I have received this term, which gives me all the home news.

You must use your influence with Sister Ell and persuade her to write to me every now and then.

Winter is commencing here and already we have had one snow storm - the leaves have mostly fallen and every thing looks quite bare - as this is the time for the Indian summer I suppose you are having very nice weather

I should very much like to be at home now to enjoy some of the charming horse-back rides and fishing parties which you mention - but it is only a few weeks before I shall be in Ky again only 12 -

You must give my love to Father & Mother & Sister and kiss them too tell Ell that I have a present for her

Dear Lily -

I thank you very many times for your nice little letter and the rose but - It very pleasant to receive any-thing from home - I shall enjoy the flowers very much when I return to pass my summer vacation
- by the by - I attended our exhibition of the Mass.

Horti. Soc. on Saturday - and I assure you that I never saw a finer collection of cut flowers
- there was one flower the name of which escapes me - of which there were 50 varieties -

I wish you would say to Father that I omitted to write to him, that Mrs Gardner made me a call the other day but I was unfortunately out.

- I like the patterns of your dresses very much I think you will look very well in them -

I hope you buried Dasso at the 'Lovers retreat' he was a good dog & ought to go when the good days go -

Write soon - give a kiss to Father, Mother & Sisters from your Affct Brother
