Dear Victor:

Perfectly all right about the copyright. I think it is safe to let it go, and of course that will help the printing I am sure. I am sorry I forgot about your ten extra copies. By all means, as many as you like.

I hope the weather will be nice April 4th. Sometime before then I'll have some more books listed. I had more or less given that up for Lent, otherwise I would have a list right now. I have also put aside the Russian for the time being, so maybe the Russian professor could come some other time. Looking forward to more proof

Affectionately in Christ

I salute you from my spiritual cave in the desert.
