

Founders Day Starts Sunday; Patty To Speak

A convocation Monday morning highlights the fourth annual Founders Day program scheduled for Sunday and Monday. Other activities include a broadcast over Radio Station WHAS Saturday morning, and a Sunday Afternoon Musical followed by a reception and tea.

Dr. Raymond R. Pate, chancellor of the University System of Georgia, will be the convocation speaker. His subject will be "Higher Education Takes Root." President H. L. Donovan will preside at the convocation.

Dr. Leo M. Chamberlain, vice president of the University, will be in charge of the program said Pate. It is usually celebrated as Founders Day but that date falls on Sunday, making the two-day program advisable.

Dr. Chamberlain said classes would not be dismissed because of the convocation, but professors may find it difficult to attend the event.

UK Created 1863
On Feb. 22, 1863, the Kentucky General Assembly incorporated the provisions of the Morrill Act, thus creating the A. & M. College which is now the University of Kentucky.

Other features of the convocation include musical services by the Alma Kivimies, University faculty member, and a trio composed of Jean Bolton, Ann English, and Jo Ann Range, students.

Breakfast Scheduled
As first event scheduled for Sunday will be a message to alumni friends of the University which will be broadcast through the facilities of Radio Station WHAS at 10:30 a. m.

The University Women's Glee Club, directed by Miss Mildred Lewis, will present a musical at 4 p. m. Sunday in Memorial Hall. Following the musical, which will be broadcast by WKLT, a reception and tea will be held at 5 p. m. in the Mass Union of the Student Union Building. Students, faculty members, alumni, parents and former trustees, city and state officials, and representatives of all campus organizations are expected to attend.

Film To Be Shown in SUB Uallroom

"Stanley and Livingstone," starring Spencer Tracy, Nancy Kelly, and Richard Gere, will be the third feature attraction of the series of movies sponsored this quarter by the activities committee of the Student Union Board.

The picture will be shown at 8 p. m. Monday in the SUB ballroom, according to Frances White, chairman. Admission is free.

Phi Eta Sigma Initiates 10

Ten men were initiated last week into Phi Eta Sigma, freshman men's scholarship honorary. Ryburn W. Jones, president, has announced they were Jack Bell, Gina Carli, Allison Caswell, Walter Cooper, Edna P. Fower, William Hays, Arthur Maddox, Joseph Schoepf, Sherman Warner, and John W. White.

Chemistry Students To Visit Louisville

Some 20 chemistry students will get a first hand view of industrial chemistry processes when they visit three Louisville industries next Friday.

The trip, which is sponsored by the Student Affiliate Chapter of the American Chemical Society, will include a tour of Seargent and Sons, the National Carbide Corporation, and Du Pont De Nemours and Company.

Dr. James A. Watson Jr., professor of chemistry, who is in charge of the tour, said that similar trips will be arranged in the future to give students a practical knowledge of chemical processes and equipment.

'Plushy Life' Here For Men When Bowman Hall Opens

Men students will get their share of the "new look" and the "plushy life" when Bowman Hall opens its doors at the beginning of the Spring quarter.

The new residence hall for men will have a lounge in the basement, a lounge-recreation room upstairs. There will also be a sandwich shop off the recreation room.

Seven Professors Named For Award

Seven University professors have been awarded the title of Distinguished Professor. The awards were approved by the Board of Trustees Saturday upon the recommendation of President H. L. Donovan.

Dr. Donovan pointed out that a number of well known universities have created the position to reward a small group of persons who have distinguished themselves as scholars and teachers.

The trustees approved the awarding of the title to the following persons:

Dr. Thomas D. Clark, head of the Department of History; Dr. Phillip R. Edwards, bacteriologist, Department of Animal Pathology, Experiment Station; Prof. Grant C. Knight, professor of English; Prof. James W. Martin, professor of economics and director of the Bureau of Business Research; Dr. Louis A. Pardin, professor of physics; Dr. W. D. Valleau, professor of Plant Pathology, Department of Agronomy, and a pathologist, Experiment Station; and Dr. Arny Vandebosch, head of the Department of Political Science.

Dr. Donovan said the total number of Distinguished Professors in an institution the size of this University should never exceed twelve or fifteen at the most. He recommended that the number awarded at present be ten.

In recognition of the title he established, he said.

"To obtain this rank one must demonstrate beyond any shadow of a doubt by his teaching, writing, and research that he is an individual possessing creative ability and scholarship. Those promoted to this rank are awarded not only the distinction that comes with the title but also salaries somewhat higher than the schedule paid full professors by the institution."

Knight
Prof. Knight, who came here in 1921, is author of a number of books including "James Lane Allen and the General Tradition," which was favorably reviewed by publications throughout the world. A native of Pennsylvania, he taught English at Gettysburg College before coming here. He served as an infantry corporal for 18 months during the first World War.

Martin
Prof. Martin, who came here in 1923 to head the Bureau of Business Research and serve as a professor of economics is known as an authority on taxation problems. He served as Commissioner of Revenue for Kentucky from 1936 to 1939 and is a former president of the Tax Association.

Edwards
Dr. Edwards has been engaged in research here since 1925 and is recognized internationally as a leader.

Vandebosch
Dr. Vandebosch, on leave to teach at Northwestern University, served as a member of the American Expeditionary Forces in the first World War and with the Office of Strategic Services during the last war. He came here in 1926 and was named head of the Department of Political Science in 1934. He has written a number of books on the politics and politics of the Far East.

Clark
Author of many books on southern history, Dr. Clark came here in 1931 and was named head of the Department of History in 1943. He is a native of Louisville, Miss., and received his Ph.D. degree from Duke University.

Pardin
Dr. Pardin, a native Kentuckian, was appointed an instructor here in 1924, received his bachelor and master degrees from the University and his doctorate from Yale. During the war he was employed by the government on the Manhattan Project, which developed the atomic bomb.

Valleau
Dr. Valleau, professor of Plant Pathology, Experiment Station, received his bachelor and master degrees from the University and his doctorate from Yale. During the war he was employed by the government on the Manhattan Project, which developed the atomic bomb.

Edwards
Dr. Edwards has been engaged in research here since 1925 and is recognized internationally as a leader.

Student Fined For Smoking In Frazee Hall

Found guilty of smoking in Frazee Hall, John Clarkson, Arts and Sciences freshman from Charleston, W. Va., was fined the minimum of five dollars at a Student Government Association Judiciary Committee trial Tuesday.

Charges against Clarkson were brought by Dr. Thomas D. Clark as head of the history department, after the student was found smoking by J. F. Hopkins, history instructor.

Mr. Hopkins said that he asked Clarkson to put out his cigarette, but the student refused, and walked down to the first floor of Frazee Hall, smoking the cigarette.

Pleads Ignorance
Clarkson said that as a first-quarter student he was unfamiliar with SGA regulations, and that although he saw the "no smoking" signs he was unaware of any SGA penalties for an offense. He pointed out that smoking regulations were not enforced rigidly by the faculty.

Stating that "the last thing that faculty wants to do is discriminate against students," Dr. Clark emphasized the danger of fire in non-resistant buildings such as Frazee.

Carpenter Named Commerce Dean

Dr. Cecil C. Carpenter, professor of economics, has been appointed dean of the College of Commerce effective March 1, when Dean Edward West will be given a change of assignment.

At the end of this academic year, Dean Edward West, having reached the age of 70, will be given a change of work and a new assignment.

President H. L. Donovan said Dean West is one of the most important in the College. He has built this college from a small one to one of the most important in the University. He has built this college from a small one to one of the most important in the University.

Conference Exhibits To Be Held At SUB

Exhibits for the fourth annual "Job Conference" set for Mar. 3 and 4, will be placed in the men's reading lounge of the Student Union Building Thursday, March 2, according to Evans, faculty advisor for the conference, has announced. Appointments for interviews with firm representatives may be made Mar. 1 and 2.

Six more companies and organizations have been added to the list of firms being represented. Mrs. Evans said they are Kaufman-Straus, a Louisville department store; American Tobacco Company; YWCA; Girl Scouts; Equitable Life Assurance Society; and American, and Ohio Railroads, a source for hostess jobs. The list now totals 24.

Campus bulletin boards and letters which professors will read to their classes will announce conference features of specific interest.

Job opportunities will be offered at the conference for all types of majors, according to John Rogers, co-chairman of the event. All colleges can participate, he said, stressing the practical benefits afforded juniors and seniors.

The conference is sponsored by Omicron Delta Kappa, honorary and leadership society for junior and senior women's honorary.

WSSF Drive Gets Started

The first organization report on contributions to the Student Welfare Service Fund came this week from Phi Alpha, with the student body president, Dr. J. H. Hayes, saying that their society has already pledged $4,000, with more to come.

Speakers for Operation University, the WSSF drive, are appearing at meetings of all major campus organizations to urge their full support of the student-to-student relief. To the fraternal group or housing organization, the highest possible per capita contribution will be a bronze plaque inscribed "UK World Service Fund Drive To Name of Organization For Highest Contribution 1948."

Student Week March 1-6
Four of these plaques will be awarded during Student World Week, March 1-6, when final results of the entire campaign are announced at the basketball game to be played as a WSSF benefit by the WAA "Glamor-Cats." Date of the game has not been set. One plaque will go to a fraternity, others to outstanding society, women's societies, and business administration groups giving within the organization.

Tri-Delta Last Year
Last year Tri-Delta led all the groups with a contribution of $84. Jewell Hall led women's residences with a gift of $88.10. Student Body Hall came first in men's residences with a total contribution of $45.10. Charter Boys, public relations chairman, announced that appeals will be made to faculty and alumna through campus and classroom solicitation.

At the weekly meeting of the All-Campus Committee last night, the discussion of the Special Project in Delhi, India, was started by statements of Jacob John, Indian student who is acquainted with the university situation there. He is a member of the Operation University speakers committee, expressed his surprise at learning that the WSSF secretary in India is Miss Elizabeth Pothar, a friend and former teacher of his. He described the situation in Delhi, India, and explained that they are worse now than at any time since he left India.

Dr. Cecil C. Carpenter, professor of economics, has been appointed dean of the College of Commerce effective March 1, when Dean Edward West will be given a change of assignment.

13 Men Pass Bar Exams

Thirteen men from the University College of Law were admitted to the bar last week by the Kentucky Court of Appeals after passing their examinations given by the State Board of Bar Examiners in December.

John J. Yeager, Lexington, made the highest general average, those taking the tests.

Other University students who were admitted to practice were John G. Aichison, Sidney Barnard, Robert E. Humphries, Doyle B. Ingram, J. Pelham Johnston, Russell C. Jones, John M. Kinsaid, Armet Mann, David P. Martin, Robert W. Meslier, William L. Sullivan, and Clyde Williams Jr.

Baker Joins Staff Of ME Department

Merl Baker has joined the staff of the Engineering College as assistant professor of mechanical engineering. Baker received his B.S. degree in 1945 and his M.S. in mechanical engineering from Purdue University this year.

While a student here, Baker was president of the YMCA, ASME, and SGA; editor of the Kentucky Engineer, managing editor of the Kentuckian, and a member of Phi-Kappa and SSI.

Kentuckian Sales To Begin Monday

Subscriptions for 200 Kentuckians will be available beginning Monday at the Kentuckian office in the sub-basement of McVey Hall. This drive will end Friday, unless the supply is sold before that time, according to Amy Price, business manager.

Persons who have made two dollar deposits are urged to pay the remainder of the deposit at this time.

Seven Cadets Are Honored

Seven University ROTC seniors have been designated by a board of officers as Distinguished Military Students for the school year.

They are Ben I. Burgerstaff Jr., Dalton B. Caldwell, Leonard L. Preston, James S. Tucker, William N. Corbett, William A. Toombs, and John E. Walden II.

Martin
Prof. Martin, who came here in 1923 to head the Bureau of Business Research and serve as a professor of economics is known as an authority on taxation problems. He served as Commissioner of Revenue for Kentucky from 1936 to 1939 and is a former president of the Tax Association.

Girls To Give UK Tribute

Two members in tribute to the University are the members of the Omicron Delta Kappa, honorary and leadership society for junior and senior women's honorary.

A member of the staff since 1936, Dr. Carpenter is a native of Harrodsburg, and he holds degrees from the University and the University of Illinois. Dr. Carpenter joined the staff as an assistant professor, advancing to associate professor in 1937 and to professor in 1941. A former professor of economics at Marshall College, he served as District Price Executive of the OPA in Lexington from 1942 to 1945.

He is a member of the American Economic Association, the Kentucky Academy of Social Science, and the Southern Economic Association, and has written numerous articles for publications in the field of economics.

Dean West said he plans to write an economic history of Kentucky and a history of the teaching of economics and business administration after his retirement from active duty.

Dean of the College of Commerce since its organization in 1925, Dean West came here in 1918 as professor.

Greek Student Writes

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE STUDENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY: I want to express my gratitude to you.

Being a European, I have always thought that American students think only about themselves, their rich country, and their good social life. But when I came here and saw the interest that was displayed by the American students in world affairs, I realized that you understand the important role you are to play in this unceasing task of rebuilding civilization.

I want to thank you today on the part of all European students for the World Student Service Fund drive, which starts this week on the campus of the University of Kentucky.

I happen to have seen personally the results of WSSF in Greece and the enthusiasm with which American students undertook this task of helping their fellow students all over the globe. I think, therefore, that it is one of the most encouraging and consoling things that I have ever known to see the sympathy and interest shown by the American students in the distressed minds of European students.

Now that the new drive is starting, I, coming from those devastated countries, urge you to participate in it actively and contribute as much as possible. It is not the financial aid — the money you intend to give — that will save those students from intellectual starvation. It is the sympathy, the good feelings that accompany it, which will be the basis on which a sincere friendship and a mutual understanding will be founded.

We all know that you have given much already. We believe that you will continue to help us, because you escaped from fate's cruel revenge in this war.

You are actually investing these contributions to the huge, badly needed enterprise of peacemaking.

You, students of the University of Kentucky, who fought and suffered in the battlefields and in the factories for a great cause — to win this war and make it the last one in the history of civilization — would you like to see the cause ruined by mere negligence? The creation of friendship by means of substantial help to those who will become the leaders of their countries is of utmost importance.

The purpose for which you fought will be perfectly completed if you continue your strife on another — a peaceful and friendly — plane.

Which of you would refuse to give in order to attain what has been not only the goal of your sacrifice, expense, and pain, but the goal of humanity itself? A fool might refuse to contribute, but not you, American students, because you have realized that you have shouldered a historical responsibility to conserve, control, and steer what today constitutes the culmination of the accumulation of precious human experience — namely, Western civilization — by means of reason.

Sincerely yours,
DEMETRIUS CORNAS
Volos, Greece

Record Number Plan For June Graduation

Filing applications for degrees by 1125 students assures the University of another record graduating class in June. The Registrar's Office announced Thursday. The eighty-first annual commencement exercises are scheduled to be held on Friday night, June 4. University officials anticipate a graduating class of between 800 and 1000. Inability of a certain percentage of candidates to earn sufficient credits and quality points will keep the class near these limits, officials said. The existing record for a graduating class is 857 which was established last year.

The Spice Of Life

By Helen Dorr and Pat Quinn
With Valentine's Day following Friday the thirteenth and all the mid-quarters, everybody has been having a busy time.

On Friday the thirteenth, the Sig Eps dared fate by having their annual Masquerade ball. They said Jack Wayman was quite convincing as a tramp and Jane Clemmons as a Spanish girl. Anyway, they won the prizes.

The ADPs also held their Valentine dance that night and Bill Gutermuth and Suzanne Hamblin were crowned king and queen.

All the parties went off without a "mess-up" except that the Delta held their formal at the house with their seating into the basement. Their on Saturday the Delta Zetas had open house and Jewell Hall held their annual tea dance. Omega chuckled over the girl who had two dates at the dance and was desperately trying to keep them apart. But the high point of the party came when Bob Mulholland and Lucille Crawford announced their engagement. Lucille was the social chairman in charge of the dance.

If you want to hear an interesting story, ask Frank Denton about the first date he had with Betty Sellers.

They also say that Owen Lewis is quite the man-about-town. Is it his personality or that bright, new convertible that makes him so popular with the campus favorites? Even though one of the authors of this column has been changed, we still enjoy poems from various sources. Here's the latest:

A few short years ago, When shady jokes were told, A co-ed blushed a fiery red, And thought the man "most bold." And now upon the campus, There are so few who frown,

Good Sportsmanship

University of Kentucky athletic teams are known far and wide, not only for their competitive ability but also for their qualities of good sportsmanship.

Good sportsmanship on the part of the players should certainly be reinforced by the same sort of conduct from the supporting members of the student body.

Unfortunately, this doesn't seem to be the case. The conduct on the part of some of the students at the Alabama basketball game Monday night was in very bad taste.

Occasional booing and hissing of the referee's decisions seems to have become accepted throughout the nation as the favorite spectator sport. Any kind of catcalling is undesirable, but excessive booing is completely out of place at any athletic event. Yelling and whistling while members of the opposing team are attempting to shoot free throws is inexcusable. Not only is it a technical foul for an audience to distract a player while he is shooting a foul but it is conduct unworthy of college men and women.

The epitome of poor sportsmanship is the yelling of "shoot, shoot," when a member of the Kentucky squad gets the ball. If you're a better ball-handler or marksman than the man at whom you're yelling, why aren't you on the squad — swishing them through the net?

and Lewis Bianchi, from the University of Cincinnati. Tony Rotundo is seeing a lot of Wanda Spears again. It seems that Roy Keger's horse, Trigger, has been on the quiz programs quite a lot lately! Evidently Jim Line is finding time between his studies and his basketball for Martha Harman. They made up on Valentine's Day. Lois Brannon and the Post Hall formal seem to have made quite an impression on Jack Barrowman. Constant Twooms: Sara Mae Greene and Lewis Hammeck; Eleanor Gray and Jack White; Mary Greene and Gus Clarke. Excuse of the week: But somebody had to represent the fraternity. Overheard conversation: Boy: I have an embarrassing question to ask you. Girl: What is it, if it isn't too embarrassing? Boy: When aren't you doing anything? Girl: I'd like to have a date with you. AMERICAN TELEPHONE AND ASSOCIATED COMPANIES BELL SYSTEM

Western Electric is a member of the Bell System family circle for exactly the same reason that your local Bell Telephone company is a member—to assure the close teamwork that is essential for efficient, economical, nation-wide telephone service for you. As the supply member of the family, Western Electric makes telephone equipment, buys all kinds of supplies, keeps these things in stock at 29 distributing houses for delivery to the telephone companies, and installs central office equipment. This unified service of supply results in many economies to the Bell Telephone companies and, in turn, to you who use the telephone. Since 1882, Western Electric has been a member of the Bell Telephone family—helping to make your service the world's best at the lowest possible cost.

ALUMNI NEWS

THEN and NOW PERSONALITIES

Al Cross, '46, visited on campus last week-end. He received his M.S. in agriculture economics last August at the University of Illinois and is now working on a degree in agricultural law there.

Six members of the class of 1908 at the University of Kentucky, which will celebrate its fortieth reunion in June, met in the alumni office Feb. 10 to plan a special celebration for their class during the commencement week program.

Dr. Thomas Bryant, of Lexington, permanent class secretary, presided, and the following were present: Miss Maide Walker, Dr. A. M. Elam, Dr. H. M. Downing, Dr. G. Davis Boucher and W. P. B. Hamilton.

It was agreed that the class would hold a picnic supper, Wednesday afternoon, June 2, the day preceding alumni reunion day. Miss Sunshine Sweeney and Mr. Hamilton were named a committee in charge of arrangements.

June 2, the class will participate in the regular reunion day festivities which will include registration of all returning alumni in the alumni office, Room 124 Student Union Building, from 10 to 12 a.m., President and Mrs. H. L. Donovan's alumni tea from 4 to 6 p.m. and the alumni banquet and annual meeting of the association at 7 p.m. Thursday in the Bluegrass room of the Union.

Henry J. Beam, '22, president of the Detroit University of Kentucky Alumni Club, has announced that the next meeting of the club will be held at 6:30 p.m., Friday, Feb. 27, at Huyler's restaurant in that city.

An informal get-together will precede the dinner which will be held at 7 p.m. All alumni in the Detroit area are urged to attend, and may affiliate and make reservations by calling Mr. Beam at the Anchor Hotel and Conveyer Co., 2563 Bellevue Ave.

Hollis Conley, '22, of Garrett, Ky., received his law degree from Duke University, Durham, N. C., this month. He was former student at Coney Junior College, before entering the University of Kentucky. He joined the Navy in 1942, following his graduation from UK. He was discharged from service in 1946 with the rank of lieutenant (jg.). While here he was active in dramatics. At the Duke University Law School he was a member of the Charles Evans Hughes Inn of Phi Delta Phi international legal fraternity.

Merging of the Lexington law firms of Stoll, Townsend, Park, Moliney and Davis with the firm of Keenan and Odear, as announced in Sunday's Lexington papers, brings together a number of outstanding attorneys who are graduates of the University of Kentucky. Judge Richard C. Stoll, senior member of the new firm, which will be known as Stoll, Keenan and Odear, was graduated from the University in 1912 and has been a member of the University's Board of Trustees for 35 years; James Park, former member of the Board of Trustees was graduated in 1915 and received his L.L.B. in 1920; William H. Townsend, well-known Lincoln County authority and Kentucky historian received his L.L.B. from the University in 1912 and an honorary L.L.D. in 1938; Robert M. Odear was graduated in 1928; Caryl A. Moliney, 1928, A.B., 1931, L.L.B.; and John L. Davis, A.B. 1935, and L.L.B. 1937.

Major C. D. Morat, '38, formerly of Louisville, now a member of the regular Air Force, was a visitor in the office Monday.

Major Morat entered the Army under the Thomasian Act in Sept. 1938, following his graduation from the University. He resigned in 1939 and reentered the service in 1940 as an infantry officer with which organization he stayed until 1941 when he transferred to the Air Force.

In 1944 he was sent to New Guinea for three months, and has since remained in the Army, serving the post year on Okinawa. He was sent

Ray Anthony Plays Tonight

Ray Anthony, "the miniature Cary Grant," and his orchestra will play for a dance at 9 o'clock tonight in the Bluegrass Room of the Student Union. This is the first "name band" dance of the year for the SUB.

The dance will be after the Vanderbilt game from 9 until 11. The Dean of Women's office has granted 1:30 a.m. permission to women living in the dorms. Bob Bleidt, chairman of the dance committee, announced.

This will be the orchestra's first stop after a two-weeks stand in Memphis. Last summer he played at Springhurst.

Tickets are a dollar a person and will be on sale at the door. home last December, and is now on a 60-day leave but is scheduled to report to the 52nd Fighter Group Mitchell Field, L.I., New York, on Feb. 28.

Faculty Personals

Dr. Elmer Ekblaw, professor of geography at Clark University graduate school of geography, Worcester, Mass., will address a faculty seminar of the departments of geography and sociology on "Eskimo Relation to Core Societies Around the World" next week.

Dr. Ekblaw was a member of the 1914-18 Macmillan expedition to the Arctic. He lived for four years among the Eskimos at Etah, Greenland.

Dr. Joseph R. Schwendeman and Dr. Irwin T. Sanders, heads of the Departments of Geography and Sociology, are making arrangements for the seminar.

Prof. L. J. Horlacher, assistant dean of the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, will spend next week in Pine Bluff, Ark., evaluating the instruction in agriculture at the Arkansas Agricultural, Mechanical, and Normal College.

The evaluation is part of a study being made of Negro land grant colleges throughout the United States under the direction of the General Education Board.

Dr. M. E. Thompson, city-county health officer, spoke to members of the Bacteriological Society Monday night on "Public Health Control Measures Against Communicable Diseases."

Major Lyle K. Henry has recently been assigned to Headquarters 8th Army, Yokohama, Japan. He is assigned with the Dependents Schools in Yokohama and his duties began in January. Prior to his enlistment in the service, Maj. Henry was associate pro-essor of psychology at the University. The staff of the History Department entertained with their regular monthly dinner at the SUB Wednesday night. Dr. Shelby McCloy gave a reading at the dinner.

Dr. Gladys Kammerer, professor of Political Science, is attending a convention of the Campus League of Women Voters in Chicago. She is adviser of the league on the campus and will serve in that capacity in Chicago.

Dr. Amry Vandenberg, head of the Political Science Department, will be on campus this weekend. He is on leave from the University to teach at Northwestern University. John E. Reeves is acting head of the department during his absence.

Miss Fay Evans, Health Services nurse, has returned from a visit at her home in Ashland.

Miss Myrtle Weidon and Miss Zelma Monroe entertained University personnel Sunday afternoon, in honor of Misses Leone Gillett, Virginia Latke, Lyda Sutherland, Margaret Gulley, and Mrs. Frances Souper, who recently became members of the Home Economics Extension and 4-H Club staff.

Gordoy C. Godbey, assistant in the Extension Department, addressed an education class at Transylvania College Tuesday afternoon. He discussed "The Use of Audio-Visual Aids in the Modern School."

Spring Grid Practice Called For '48 Season

By O. C. Halyard

Couch Paul "Bear" Bryant and his staff began the long search this week for 15 replacement parts necessary to have the Kentucky grid machine in running order by this fall. In addition to those urgently needed replacement parts, a number of spare parts are also needed to keep any grid machine running smoothly these days.

Bryant lost 15 lettersmen by graduation or through scholastic difficulties. Of these, 14 were members of the first two teams to this fall. This leaves the head mentor with only eight parts, two of which won't be ready for the spring drills. Wah Jones is still pounding the hardwood for the cages, and Harry Ulinski is thus both men and a knee operation, recovering from a knee operation.

The coaching staff hopes to wind up the Spring season by April 2 in order to give the boys a chance to participate in the spring sports. The drills will be concluded with the annual Blue-White game sponsored by the "K" Club. There will be no summer practice, and Bryant said he wanted the boys to get away from school completely so that when September 1 rolled around and fall practice began, they would all be anxious to go.

He said he knew the staff would find plenty of youth on the practice field, but what they were going to look for was enthusiasm. "We will spend all our time working with those who want to play," the youth-

University I-M Champ To Be Chosen Saturday

By Allen Terhune

It's bound to rain one of these days and when those drops touch good old Mother Earth they won't be any closer than the finals of the intramural basketball tournament, which is scheduled to be held as a preliminary tilt to the Kentucky-Georgia Tech cage battle tomorrow night at alumni gym.

Came time for the scrap, which will decide the University intramural set champion, has been set at 6:15, according to Intramural Director Bill McCubbin.

Regular elimination tournaments for the independent and fraternity squads ended Thursday evening with a champion decided from each of the two groups.

This afternoon starting at 4 o'clock the "final" final tournament is slated to pick the two teams who will battle for the UK championship tomorrow night.

Plans call for the winner of the fraternity meet to play the runner-up independent opponent at 4 o'clock, and the winner of the independent affair to compete with the runner-up fraternity team at 5 o'clock.

These two winners will then wait for Saturday night at which time they will fight things out for the trophy.

Vols, Tide Fall To Cats Before Student Crowds

By Kent Hollingsworth

All American Ralph Beard ordered 2300 shrieking fans with four seconds left in the first half of the Tennessee game, took the throw in from Kenny Robinson, two champs on his chewing gum and heaved the ball 52 1/2 feet to break the bottom out of the net and a ten-year-old longshot distance record set by Bud Hansen.

Wah Jones played brilliant ball as the Wildcats parried to an easy 69-42 victory over the Vols. Jones was taken out after racking up 12 of Kentucky's first 19 points, and replaced by Dale Burnstable. Beard, Holland, and Burnstable all tied for second place high scoring honors with nine each.

High for Tennessee were the two guards, Hugh Jones with six fouls and two field goals, and Carl Montgomery, who each racked up ten points.

Dale Powell, Beard's teammate at Louisville's Male High, played an outstanding game for Tennessee on defensive rebounds, and scored three points.

Tide Stunned

Cliff Barker, who can do more with a basketball than most people could with a million dollars, set it against Alabama. Flinging the ball by his right ear, behind his back, and with elastic pivoting, he showed through 14 points to be the outstanding player as the Wildcats easily won over the Crimson Tide, 62-35.

The Capstone five, who stress ball handling and control, for low scoring wins, had their strategy thwarted by ball-hawking Ralph Beard and Cliff Barker, who time and again broke up passes and scored quick field goals.

Big Al Gross and Wah Jones scored ten and nine points respectively and Joe Holland played his usual excellent rebounding game. Even ticket books are good for tonight's game with Georgia Tech will be, "odd".

Jewell Hall erased the Crumbs in the first round thereby pitting themselves against Kinkead Hall in the upper bracket.

In the lower bracket of the Independent tournament, the Atomics stripped Bradley Hall in the first round, only to bow before the power of Patt Hall in the second round.

The "K" Club crashed through the Hoodlums in the second round to pair themselves with Patt Hall in the semi-finals.

On the fraternity side of the journey it is found that the Phi Deltas ousted the KA's in the first round while Delta Chi nosed out the ATO's. Then in the second round the Phi Deltas were awarded a decision over the Delta Chi segregation although the DC's won by a 23-22 score. Bill McCubbin explains that this action took place after one of the Delta Chi players was declared ineligible.

Sigma Chi defeated the Phi Tau's in the second round putting them in the semi-finals against the Phi Delta. Lambda Chi Alpha outscored the PKA's in the first round only to lose to the Kappa Sigs in the second round, who had defeated the PKK outfit in the first round.

Featuring Today — Students Protest Lack Of Seats For Cage Games

Saturday night's contest with Tennessee certainly managed to stir up a lot of controversy about that old bug-a-boo, the seating situation. The annual home court Cat-Vol scrap was to be played this year before the holders of even number ticket books.

However, upon arrival at the gym, many of the No. 11 ticket holders found the doors closed. Almost immediately the room spread around that odd-number coupons had been accepted for admission thus making it necessary to return a number of allegedly valid tickets.

Since then we have been approached by several protesting students; there also have been a half dozen or so objections telephoned to the Kernel office, and one last year student, Bertram Whisler, even wrote the editor a letter.

As for Bert and any others who might have wondered about the deal, and in order to satisfy our own curiosity, we tried to contact Athletic Director A. Shively about the matter. But he is out of town at the present on business. However, we did talk with Mr. Dickerson, ticket manager, and he said as far as he knows no orders were given to admit odd-books. A hurried check of the coupons collected Saturday night, Mr. Dickerson said, showed only a couple of the odd-number tickets—apparently taken by mistake in the rack.

Now the Athletic Department devised this system of dividing the home games between students and bringing the intercollegiate in an effort to furnish opportunities for UK students to see their team—the nation's greatest—live. A minimum of home games was scheduled this season, because when the schedule was made it was hoped that the new gymnasium would be finished for the 1948-49 season, and we wanted a large home schedule then.

However, it is apparent now that nothing short of a Biblical miracle will deliver the new floor by next fall.

WAA NEWS

By Ean Ashbury
The long-awaited winter play-day held this year at Kentucky ended disastrously for the Glamour Cats. Led by forwards Tom Orr and Orr, the girls in blue began their massacre by scalping Transylvania 44-4.

The usually tough Eastern set were felled by the clanking Cats 48-20. This same "B" team counted its winning ways by trouncing a building "B" team from Kentucky 38-18. The "B" team had previously held Murray's "B" team to a 17-17 deadlock. Margaret Wainwright paced the "Kitty cats".
Last Wednesday Cincinnati made the journey here only to be nipped in the closing minutes of a fast and furious game 28-24, by a red-hot band of Glamour Cats. Reynolds and Orr were again very active scorers with ten points each. Tandy scored eight, Creamer, Stokes, Aveni and Wilde were outstanding at the guard posts.

TIPS ON TOGS

AFRAID—To mention the magic word "SPINNING" cause I'm afraid it will start snowing again! But the wise head will start looking around now to see what is being offered for the Easter Egg and Philip Time season. Spinners will be a big item—mostly soft pastel colors. Here are a few of the colors we received today—soft blue and grey in a plaid, light tan with yellow flecking, pale grey herring bone effect matinee. Some are two button and some three button with the popular vent. Be glad to show them to you—

F-ZONE—This is not a cigarette ad, nor am I speaking of the nasal passage. I'm tipping you off about the good looking "F-Zone". I have in beige, pearl grey, and maroon made and styled by "Clisco" and sell for $2.00—well worth the shekels!

FOUR OF A KIND—But of a different hue! Which means, when translated, keen looking shirts with wide stot collars and French cuffs. Again pastel shades of blue, tan, and the ever popular white are in lead.

OMITTED—"My Opinion" on the well garbed guy is being omitted this week due to the fact that next week, in conjunction with that feature, another feature is being announced. Don't miss this announcement—it should be of interest!

Temple Plays Cats In Louisville Armory

On Tuesday, the Wildcats travel to Louisville for a return game with the Temple Owls, who have been called the East's outstanding "giant killer" when it comes to knocking off the better basketball teams.

It was Temple that upset Kentucky, 69-59, in Philadelphia on Dec. 29 to give the Ruppmen their first defeat of the season. Since that date they have beaten several more prominent cage teams, including North Carolina, LaSalle (their initial loss of the season), St. John's, Syracuse and Duke.

Early in the campaign, the Owls lost to undefeated NYU, 64-41, but two weeks ago, Temple, in a return game, scored the daylight out of the New York City quintet, losing 55-54 in a hard-fought contest. It was in this game that Temple's Nelson Bobb stole the ball in the final seconds of play and scored only to have the basket nullified because of a foul committed by Ray Lump of NYU on him as he took the ball. Bobb was given a free throw but missed it and a chance to tie up the game.

Kentucky will be slightly favored to whip the Owls in Louisville because of its fine record for this season (23-2) and the fact that the Cats will be playing on a familiar court—the Louisville armory. A capacity crowd of 7000 persons is expected to witness the contest.

Pacing the Temple team is 5'10" Eddie Lerner, who scored five goals with 12 free throws for a total of 23 points against the Big Blue last December. Nelson Bobb is another star performer along with Ken Boravage, the Owl center.

Alex Groza was high-point man for UK in that stunning 69-59 upset by Temple, scoring 16 points; Jim Lane had 12; Ken Rollins 11, and Ralph Beard, who was recovering from his leg injury of the UK game shot in seven markers in the 16 minutes that he played.

The Cats have been looking forward to meeting Temple again and are hoping to give the Owls the UK version of "Treatment S" on Tuesday.

Vandy, Georgia Tech Wind-Up 1947-48 Wildcat Home Schedule

by Tom Diskin

Kentucky's wiry Wildcats, who seemingly are invincible on their home court, will be seeking their 24th and 25th wins of the season tonight, when they meet Vanderbilt. Georgia Tech furnishing the opposition for the final contest of the season to be played in Alumni gym.

By taking both of these home games, Kentucky's Zip Kates can boost their string of consecutive conquests in their own lair to 66 games—the best record of any basketball team in the nation in this respect. Their last defeat in Alumni gym was over five years ago when Ohio State upset the UK Cats, 45-46, in January, 1943.

After the games with Vandy and Georgia Tech, Kentucky will have only two encounters left in the regular season schedule—Temple, on Tuesday, Feb. 24, in Louisville and Xavier on Saturday night, Feb. 28, in Cincinnati. Then comes the SEC tournament in Louisville the following week.

All Greats Tops UK Scorers
The Cats' 79-inch center, Al Greza, is the leading scorer for the team as the campaign nears its end. The Man Mountain from Martins Ferry, Ohio, has thrown in 208 points in the 25 games this year, for an average of 12.3 tallies per contest.

Ralph Beard is second with 286 markers in 24 skirmishes—one less than Greza—for a game average of 11.9. Next in order are Jim Lane, with 178 in 24 contests; Walt Jones, 172-27; Captain Ken Rollins, 169-25; Cliff Barker, 147-24; Dale Barnstable, 135-24; and Joe Holland, 101-24.

Billy Joe Adcock is Vandy's Best Vanderbilt's Commodores, with an all-time record against Kentucky of nine wins and 37 losses in the "round-ball" game, is expected to be given a good going over tonight at 8 p.m. when they face the Kentucky quintet, who hold little respect for the Commodore's high rank.

In their last meeting, on Feb. 9th in Nashville, the Pavette count fellows, hitting over 35 per cent of their shots, sank the Tennessee sals, 82-81, as Beard scored 19 and Groza 17 to pace the fast-moving Kentuckians.

Vandy's top star, Billy Joe Adcock, slipped through the UK defense for 16 markers in the 19 while Forward Blade Parks tallied 10 points. Center Pete Robinson, 6'4" Nashvillean, garnered eight did Mike Craig, speedy guard. Adcock, who is one of the conference's leading scorers, is a 19-year-old sophomore who recently broke Vandy's all-time individual scoring record for one season. He has been held to less than 10 points only once this season at Tusculum, when the Tide stopped him with eight) and has exceeded the twenty-point mark five times already this campaign. Adcock has been averaging nearly 18 tallies per contest—the best in the SEC. He plays at the forward position.

The other starting forward will probably be Blade Parks, a 6'2", 150-pound sophomore from Nashville's Bliskooko High.

In the pivot position, lanky Pete Robinson will start, with Dick Williams, a 6'7" freshman from Marietta, Ohio, as the No. 2 center on the squad.

The two top guards are Mike Craig, a 6'1" sophomore from Nashville's West High and Bobby McGuire, a 6' freshman from Hazard, Ky.

McGuire, who scored four points against the Wildcats, is said to be improving rapidly and plays a hard, fast game, counding out the squad is Ed Tate, a 6'2" forward from Waverly, Tenn., Irving Munday, a 5'11" guard from Hopkinsville, Ky., and Jack Todd, forward-center from McMurrytown, Tenn.

Like Vanderbilt, the Georgia Tech basketbatters, who play here Saturday night, is composed mostly of freshmen and sophomores. In most of their games this season, three very promising freshmen have been starting for the Engineers from Atlanta.

The remaining two on the quintet are sophomores. The three freshmen are Forwards Melvin Todd, a sharpshooter from Floro, Illinois, Joe Keener, and Mickey Sternersheim, a speedy guard from Jasper, Indiana—a little town noted for its basketball enthusiasm.

The other starting guard has been Colin Anderson, one of the most promising players in the conference. He is a sophomore and starred with the Jackets' football team. At center is big Jim Nolan, who measures 6'5" in height and was the second-string end on the 1947 Georgia Tech grid eleven, "Spider Jim", as he is called by his teammates, lacks experience and polish at the present time but he has given indication of developing into a pretty fair ball player before he graduates. Last month, these five played the entire game against Kentucky and did right well until tiring late in the contest. The final score was UK 71, Tech 56, but at halftime the Cats had only a seven-point lead, 38-31. Guard Colin Anderson, took high scoring honors for both teams with 19 markers; Dold had 14; Nolan pushed in 12; Keener 7; and Sternersheim had four. Kentucky's all-time record against the Yellow Jackets of Atlanta is 24 wins as against four setbacks—the last victory for Tech being in February, 1940, when they defeated the Cats, 44-29. Incidentally, the last UK loss to Vanderbilt also occurred early in 1940, the Commodores winning, 40-52.
