My Dear Parents:

I will now continue my letter of Aug. 1st. I started for Shaw's Garden in the afternoon of my day in St. Louis, but, finding the expense of getting there more than I could spare, I stopped at Lafayette Park - truly a beautiful spot, with lakes, fountains, grottoes and bridges; statues, majestic trees and many foliage plants and flowers. I spent some time in the park listening to a concert by a fine band from New Orleans. No such crowd was in attendance as is usual in Cin. on such occasions.

At 7 o'clock P.M. I went to see Aunt Julia and daughter and spent half an hour quite pleasantly; going thence to the Union Depot.

As they make it a rule to force passengers into sleeping-cars, by giving them otherwise no
