

Dear Phebe as I promised to write to you before I came home I thought I would write a few lines. We went over to cousin Kate Stewarts and spent the ^{day} on Wednesday. Martin Davis has been here 4 times lately to see Aunt Lizzie.
Aunt Eliza took sister and myself to Market with her the other Morning and one of the woman took such a fancy to Sisters curls that she gave her a lemon and she gave me half of it. Uncle Edward wrote to Grandma for her not to come down till Monday.
Excuse me from writing any more now.
We ^{all} send our loves to you.

Your affectionate cousin.

Annie Maria Collins.

Jimmy Stewart gave me a ^{very small} ~~small~~ piece of his hair and says when his Mother cuts his hair of he will give me all of his curls.

my brothers and sisters have always felt incumbent upon them. This is a thing I never undertook to do myself, unless to vindicate myself, and when I knew I was in the right

Off your sister, Lizzie
