

trip was proposed, and I do ^{not} know when I shall have another opportunity for visiting the place and seeing the splendid scenery which is near there.

I think Mrs Breckinridge & her daughter, Miss Fanny, might have asked for me when they came to call on one of the girls, some months ago (I believe), and not have waited until last Saturday, supposing aunt Lizzie was still with me.

I shall not send my regrets until I am pretty sure of going to Shakerstown.

Mrs Downs wishes to know how much the pound of seagrass cost, also what was the expressage upon the bundle. Would the expressage have been the same, had the linen not come in it?

Please send me a white silk fan with feathers & some spangles, to cost about $3.00.

Will my black lace shawl come when my white marseilles comes? If so, I should like you to send it that I may
