

Dear Mrs Collins

At cousin
Kelly's request, I write to ask you to attend to a few commissions for her, as you kindly offered to do so. Will you please get a set of straw table mats, neat, but not very expensive. And a work basket, the kind she was looking for. A half a dozen pairs, of unbleached sock, good quality for Mr Holt. She will be much obliged, if you will send the things to Dr Holt to Town, as he is going to send some things.
Send the bill, and your address. Cousin Kelly says that
