and give full satisfaction as they would have the handkerchief from just been received

We had such a delightful meeting of the Sew Soc^y at Mrs Blaine on Tuesday night. It was reappointed there, as the week before it was too unpleasant for a good turn out, so it is the first one I have attended. There were at least 30 there altogether. I don't know when I have enjoyed myself more. Mr. George Coors and his family board there and they are fixed very nicely. They live in the old Crutenden house. The gentlemen present were the two ministers and Messrs Platterman, Brodick, Pearce & Blaine.
They have been in the habit since Mr McElroy's settlement among us, to close with worship. I am sorry to say the night meetings are discontinued till next winter.
I was the only one which ^{negatived} ~~voted~~ ^{the change} ~~for~~ their continuation which raised quite a laugh. Mollie Richardson told them all she would have voted with me, but she was too disinterested to vote ^{against} ~~for~~ what the majority deemed was best. Kate would too, but she did not think she was privileged not being a regular member, and others because the beaux are scarce. — Cousin Fin dined with us last Sunday. He has been
