

never think to look in the cellar and I suggest that you look there when you are looking. I am very sorry to give you the trouble to look but I do not like to lose it.

Mother's cold is about the same her cough is very troublesome, Father's cold is better, Kate is about as usual.

We are well excepting colds Lottie and Fanny were both confined to the house last week from sore throats cold. Mr. Blatterman is not well from cold and headache I was at your Sisters on yesterday All as well, usual, Phoebe's cold is better. Jess Frank is to be married this morning to Mr. Byrne nephew of Mrs. Culbertson.

Give my love to all. Please excuse my scrawl and believe me affectionately your sister

E. C. Blatterman.
