

◆ Coleman served as acting director of the Martin Luther King, Jr. Cultural Center while completing his second degree in philosophy. Coleman was also a founding member of the Black Student Union at the University. (photo by Helena Hau)