'Your Dollar Will Do It'

Give-For Our Future is the theme of the national World Student Service Fund, whose campus drive is Monday through Saturday.

And it stands to reason that your gift can help make your future safer. Countries which still bear the scars of war are having a difficult time trying to maintain schools. Whether or not these students receive the advantages of an education can make a marked difference in the outlook for world peace.

Our donations will not only help the students materially, but will also do a lot for the United States in terms of good will.

Here are some examples of what your WSSF dollar can do: Three dollars will buy a textbook for a student in a country where libraries were lost in the war; $6.65 will provide hot breakfasts through the three winter months for one Austrian student suffering from malnutrition; $25 will pay for a monthly treatment for a student at the WSSF tuberculosis preventorium in Greece; $100 will equip a self-help project in a German university.

When a WSSF representative approaches you, remember to give for your future.

Kagawa -- Bridge Between

An event not to be overlooked is the visit to our campus Tuesday night of Dr. Toyohiko Kagawa, world famous Japanese Christian leader. Dr. Kagawa will speak in Memorial Coliseum at 8 p.m.

The story of his life is one of great courage and almost unbelievable sacrifice to bring Christianity and hope to the vermin-infested, sin-laden slums of his native Japan. Even tuberculosis and trachoma, a serious eye disease which almost blinded him, did not stop him in his untiring work.

Dr. Daniel A. Poling, editor of the Christian Herald and speaker at the dedication of UK's Memorial Coliseum, named Kagawa as one of the two men who will decide the fate of Japan. The other is Emperor Hirohito.

The importance of Dr. Kagawa's current visit to America has also been stressed by Dr. E. Stanley Jones, who says, "... he can be a bridge of understanding between Japan and America."

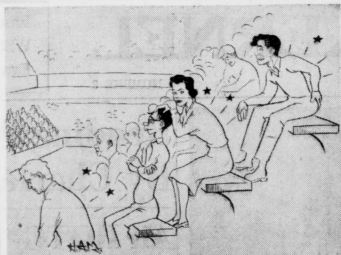

As future leaders, students should take advantage of this chance to hear a man who is exerting such a powerful influence in the effort for world peace.

UK Spirit Impresses UC

UK's Sully card section received some warm praise in a recent issue of the University of Cincinnati's "Record." In an editorial pleading for a more interested and spirited cheering section at UC, the editor makes the following statement:

"Our attention was arrested by the excellent UK cheering section we saw on Migration Day. The section is almost twice as large as ours and their cheers echoed throughout the stadium."

Those who have helped with the card section this year have just cause to be proud of the good publicity they're bringing the University.

Culture at the Coliseum—Or How To Be 4-F In One Easy Lesson

Dear Editor: The Mailbox

Aches And Pains Cause Concertphobia

Did you suffer from a stiff neck or an aching back after attending the James Melton concert or the Elmer Davis lecture? Or were you in the "bleacher section" where the students are permitted to sit? How can anyone possibly relax or even attempt to listen attentively to a lengthy concert or lecture sitting on these two-by-fours?

I am proud, as everyone is, of our new Memorial Coliseum which is equipped with every modern facility. But, would somebody please tell me why these "bleacher seats" were constructed, with plans made to use it also for artistic series, lectures, and forums?

Yes, I understand that the seating capacity is slightly increased—and this is fine, but how often during the coming season will the Coliseum be filled to capacity? I'm afraid the taxpayers of Kentucky have spent millions of dollars on an athletic arena—and none is more deserving of it than the Kentucky Wildcats—but its use for cultural programs is certainly inadequate since it lacks good seats, and what is more important?

A frustrated taxpayer. Yours very truly, (Yes, F. T. in answer to your first question, we did. See accompanying cartoon.—Ed.)

The Smoke Thickens

When I wrote that little note to the Kernel suggesting that perhaps a few Southerners are putting, I don't anticipate stirring to another Civil War.

However, from the looks of last week's letters column, we had better be on our guard against this "True Son of the South." He sounds like a dangerous character.

And one with doubtful reasoning powers. Never have I read a letter so full of blind generalities as his, which led off the parade of Southern indignation. When "True Son" mentions the chivalry, honesty, and gracious living of Southern men, he seems to forget that all Southerners don't live in white pillared mansions and bow at the feet of their charming ladies.

Has "True Son" traveled through this land of milk and honey and seen the broken down shades of tenant farmers and the women and children doing back breaking labor in the cotton fields? Has he seen the rural schools without decent facilities, and has he noticed the South's place in education? I'm not a missionary, a preacher, a poet, or a railroad man, and I'm not condemning the South. I'm all for it, and I appreciate the fact that many of its leaders are making progress toward the solution of its problems.

But I still say that matters aren't going to be improved by the childish practice of chalking confederate mottoes all over a college campus and nobly waving confederate flags. That kind of publicity hurts the South far more than it helps it!

World Doesn't Understand Democracy, Goldstein Says

This is the second installment of an article written for the Kernel by Irvin Goldstein, who traveled in Europe this summer as SGA's representative.

By Irvin Goldstein

When I got to England I also found there that these people were also worried about Korea and a major war. Their general attitude is realistic, yet extremely pessimistic. The people seem to think that Russia is pulling a well planned attack upon the western world. If Europe is overrun, they feel a western victory appears to be virtually impossible. Even if it did come about, another recovery would most certainly never be achieved for many, many generations.

In spite of this outlook, England, as well as the rest of Europe is rebuilding and planning for peace. Also these nations are taking advantage of the destruction wrought by the recent war to rebuild modern facilities in the best way possible and are incorporating many improvements. The English know that we are helping them very much, and they really appreciate it. There is one thing further that we could do to help them: England cannot, and does not intend to compete with us on mass produced goods. But if we lower our tariffs on items like cloth and Scotch, that alone would do more to get England back on a stable basis more than any other thing we are doing at this time.

While in London I met a student from India who questioned my ZBT pin. When I tried to explain the fraternal system of the US, he became highly incensed and wanted to know why all of the US students did not unite into one political body to bring pressure on the government. I tried to explain to him, in the limited time I had, that the US students do not follow only one political view and for that reason as well as many others, it would be impractical, as well as impossible. He just did not understand America, our students, or our Democracy. Now this had come from a very strategic part of the world. It seems

Old Clothes In Edinburgh, Scotland, as well as Paris and other cities in many countries I saw one of the reasons why Americans are not so popular. The Americans seem to have a superior attitude, or just a lack of respect, or ignorance. For one example, they would insist upon wearing the worst possible clothes such as old blue jeans to the finest places. This is an obvious insult to anyone. After all, how many of you would dare to go to the Golden Horseshoe, for example, in such a get up? And what would you think of a person that would? The worst thoughts that you could think would probably elicit the least violent of these people.

These reasons and others which I shall touch upon soon, show one of the major reasons why the US is not as popular as it should be, or as we had thought that it was. And this at a time when we need so many good will ambassadors as we do now. Another point is that the average European has nothing else upon which to base his opinions of America than the Americans he sees and meets in his own country as well as the "First Class" movies that we send to them.

Educational Level High One of the outstanding things I noticed during the summer was the educational level of most Europeans. One of the reasons for this is intelligent programs by the various governments to send as many people to their colleges as possible. Furthermore, the entire educational systems in Scandinavia and England are very well planned and carried out. Many people in the Scandinavian countries speak English, and the children are taught our language at a very early year in school. Most continue to study in their advanced schools and colleges.

Another outstanding item was the mass interest in civic, national, and international affairs. While I had a few exceptions everyone knew about the main topics of the day and wanted to discuss them. They take a very active interest in their governments. Perhaps they have benefited the hard way the penalty for not taking a personal interest. This is a lesson that we seem to have forgotten and may one day be forced to learn again unless we snap out of our political lethargy.

Cosmopolitan Luncheon Often during the trip I was able to meet with students from many countries. One day I had lunch with students from Norway, England, Scotland, France, Egypt, Sweden, and Germany. We all enjoyed ourselves and asked questions of personal things, national customs, and habits as well as present conditions. In short we tried to understand each other, and we judged everyone for their personality and manners, not as to their religion, race, or country. It is indeed a shame, and perhaps even the doom of our present civilization, that the various leaders of the world have not been able to do the same.

The Blue Print

By BOB GORHAM

KERNEL SPORTS EDITOR

A letter from North Dakota University President John C. West to UK President H. L. Donovan, enclosing a clipping from the Nodak school paper, was turned over to us this week.

The gist of the letter was simply to say that the clipping might afford a smile to Wildcat supporters. The clipping (taken from the paper's editorial column) was as follows:

"Direct from the U of Kentucky fact book: 'The Dakota Sioux and the Kentucky Wildcats have never met on the football field, but the 1950 meeting could make the University of Kentucky fans wish even a first game had been scheduled.'

"A small, near-western school, without a big time football reputation, the Nodaks reportedly cannot be taken lightly on the basis of reputation and might prove to be a real sleeper on the UK schedule if the Cats are concentrating too intensely on the following week's game with arch-rival Tennessee."

The school-paper editor added: "Fly away Kentucky babe. This is no sleeper—you could close your fourth-in-the-nation eyes and rest awhile. Hasty will get you nowhere."

Another letter received this week was from Stanley Woodward, editor of the magazine, Basketball—1951, enclosing a copy of his 1950-51 edition.

This yearly publication is one of the most authoritative of its kind. It is divided into sections covering the east, south, prairie and mountain states, southwest, pacific coast, midwest, and professionals. It also has a section on ratings and schedules and includes Woodward's All-American selections and those chosen as the 10 best in their area.

Here is where Kentucky fits into the picture: Bill Spivey is chosen as the All-American first team. Bobby Watson was rated as one of the 10 finest players in the South, as was Spivey.

Walt Hirsch and Cliff Hagan were picked as two of the 50 top players in the South.

And Kentucky was ranked as one of the three best teams in the South.

The rest of the All-American team was made up of Sherman White of LIU; Sam Razzino, North Carolina State; Gene Melchiorre, Bradley; Ed Warner, CNY; Dick Gross, Duke; Ed Shadrake, UCLA; Bob Zawoluk, St. John's; Clyde Lovellette, Kansas, and Tom Hester, Arkansas.

It is interesting to note that Hester was chosen despite the fact he is only a sophomore and has yet to play a minute of varsity ball.

Three of those chosen are familiar to UK fans—Melchiorre, Warner and Zawoluk. The Bradley guy who is in the Cats' hair in the Sugar Bowl game in New Orleans last year; Warner is the great Negro star who was the main factor in that stunning defeat suffered in the NCAA tournament; Zawoluk is the fellow Spivey held to one field goal and a free throw while garnering 17 hits in his first appearance in Madison Square Garden.

The magazine is loaded with fine action pictures, including some of Kentucky, and it is certain that readers in this area will be particularly interested.—It is on sale at all news stands for 25c.

"After these first seven, we don't 'ook too good," the coach said. "Lou Tsoropoulos (Lynn, Mass., sophomore) has done good work on defense, and Guy Strong (Irvine, Ky., junior) is still the best set shot on the club, but they leave more to be desired," he added.

In his familiar Kansas drawl, Rupp issued a warning about the Wildcats' first opponent, West Texas State, who have been to four national tournaments in recent years, and has long carried the trademark as the tallest team in the country.

The Wildcats have been attending "fundamentals mainly since daily practices were begun in New York."

Cats, Maroons Meet Saturday

UK's Air Offense May Be Throttled By Stout Defense

A huge stumbling block in the form of the Mississippi State Maroons looms on the gridiron horizon for the University of Kentucky Wildcats, who go after their ninth straight win in an Armistice Day battle at Starkeville, Miss., Saturday afternoon.

With a forward wall averaging nearly 220 pounds, the Maroons have compiled a 3-3 record and have held their six foes to an average of 169.3 yards per game in total offense, the second-best average among major college teams.

In addition, they have the stoutest defense in the land against passes, the Wildcats' major offensive weapon. They have allowed only 43.2 yards per game in this department, with only 21 of 62 pass tries being completed against them.

It should be quite a battle, because Kentucky hasn't done badly in the defense—and offense—departments so far.

The Cats rank third in total defense (168.9 yards allowed per game), ninth in rushing defense (101.5 yards per game), and fourth in pass defense (67.4 yards given up per game).

Offensively, Kentucky can offer Bats Parilli, who is 57 inches tall, the country in the number of touchdowns passed through with 15, sixth in the country in rushing defense with 72 completions in 132 tries, and 10th in total offense with 1,107 yards to his credit.

To go along with him, there is a team that has had 13 men bring in the scoring column for 249 points while giving up only 34.

Leading the scorers is Shorty Jamerson with 48 points, followed by Parilli and Al Bruno with 39 each, Bob Gain with 21, Bill Leskovar, Cliff Lawson, Benny Zaraniga, Harry Jones, 18 each, and Don Pucci, 12, to mention the boys who have tallied more than once.

This will be the first meeting of the two teams since 1946, when State triumphed, 12-0, and the Cats won in 1916 by a 13-3 count. The Maroons evened the score with a 14-0 victory in 1917 and then the rivalry died until the 1944 season.

It will be Homecoming Day for the Maroons and will mark the third straight game in which the Wildcats have participated in such a contest. They won the first two, whipping Georgia Tech, 28-14, and Duke, 27-0.

The six new pledges, who were selected on basis of scholarship, activities and character are James E. Brown, Jack Griffin, Pat Lasham, Nancy Harlow, Sara Logan, and Robert Conroy.

Home Ec Honorary Will Hold Initiation

Phi Upsilon Omicron, honorary home economics fraternity, will hold a formal initiation for new pledges at 4 p.m. Sunday in the Home Economics Building. The initiation will be followed by a dinner at the Kentuckian Hotel.

Membership Is Open In Hardin County Club

Anyone interested in joining the Hardin County Club, or anyone inquiring about information as to dates of meetings or other activities should contact Guy Williams Jr., secretary, phone 3-6529.

Blyton To Address New York Convention

Dr. Gifford Blyton, of the UK English department, has been chosen to make an address at a professional speech convention in New York City in December. Four speech organizations are sponsoring the convention which will continue four days beginning Dec. 27.

"New Trends in High School Football" will be Dr. Blyton's topic when he speaks to the assembled speech educators from every part of the United States.

In 1949 the assembly drew more than 2000 members to Chicago and this year's convention will be held in two leading New York hotels.

The member organizations of the annual speech convention are the Speech Association of America, American Education Teachers Association, the National University Extension Association, and the National Thespian Society.

Prediction

When you talk about quarter-backs and who are best. We'll take Parilli—and you can have the rest.

Ue front, the Cats have a terror named Gain. Who with opposing linemen raises unholy Cain.

In facing the Maroons of Mississippi State, "Old Kentucky" meets a defense that really does rate.

winning their own annual classic from Florida last week, 40-6.

Mississippi State's offense will be predicted by the smallest major college player in the country, 130-pound Frank "Twig" Branch. The Paicagolla, Miss., junior stands only five feet, 10 inches tall and is considered an excellent ball handler and, better-than-average passer.

All Kentucky visitors to the game will be guests at an old-fashioned football and barbecue Friday night. The event is sponsored by the Columbus Chamber of Commerce and will be held at Mr. "Moose" Vaughn's picturesque ante-bellum home, "Playhouse."

There will be no riding with the hounds in the foxhunting, however. The dogs will be turned loose and the party-goers will content themselves with sitting on the front porch and listening to the chase as it progresses over the surrounding plantations.

Outing Club Sponsors Group Skating Party

The Outing Club will have a skating party Tuesday evening at Scott's Roller rink, 422 W. Main St. Any Outing Club members wishing to attend should meet at the SUB desk at 7:30 that evening.

The club met Monday and elected the following secretaries and chairmen: recording secretary, Eloise Cooksey; corresponding secretary, Louise Borer; publicity chairman, Carter Glass; food chairman, Eloise Lench; program chairman, Ed Roark; program committee, Sue Newell, Arnold Taylor, Bob Creger, and Don Hochstetser.

Swimming Candidates Are Called

Swimming Coach Alge Beece issued the first call for varsity swim team candidates this week and said that all interested should report to the Coliseum pool at 4 p.m. Monday.

Freshmen will be called later, he said.

All candidates must have a physical examination clearance card from the dispensary before they will be eligible to swim, Beece explained.

The first meeting will be largely for organization purposes and other rules and requirements will be discussed at the meeting.

Today Is Last Day To File For ODK

Today is the last day that applications for membership in Omicron Delta Kappa, national men's leadership honorary, may be filed in the Dean of Men's office.

Recognize these keys?

No. 9 is an important newcomer. It's the Bell System's new keyset for the direct dialing of Long Distance telephone calls. And, though not yet "national," it already has "chapters" in more than 900 cities and towns.

By pressing these keys, your operator can dial calls straight through to telephones in many distant places. Calls go through faster, more accurately.

Automatic dialing of Long Distance calls by operators, a development of the Bell Telephone Laboratories, is being extended steadily. This new method of putting through Long Distance calls is especially important right now, when the nation is counting on telephone service to help speed the job of defense.

Intramural Sports

By Bill Samuels

Three seeded teams were eliminated in the second round of the intramural football tournament Monday night. The tournament was to have closed last night, with the winner slated to meet the independent king next week for the championship.

Only the SAEs, of the seeded combine, remained in the journey after quarter-final action as the Phi Delta, Kappa Sigma and ATO's suffered defeats. Both the KS's and ATO's were undefeated this season.

The powerful, unbeaten SAEs scored their second win over the Sigma Nus by rolling to a 12-0 triumph in the first game Monday night. The SAEs defeated the SN's by a four-point margin in their league game earlier this year.

In another quarterfinal battle, the KA's outlasted the Phi Delta, 8-6, and moved into the semi-final bracket opposite the SAEs. They were slated to clash on Wednesday night.

The Sigma Chi's won their rights to meet the Delta in the other semi-final game by trouncing the Kappa Sig, 14-6. The DTD's, defending champions, avenged an earlier setback by blasting the ATO's 12-0. The ATO's nipped the DTD's, 1-0, in an overtime contest earlier this season.

In the first round games, the Sigma Nus beat the Tumbles, 13-6, while the KA's defeated the PCT's, 6-4. The Sigma Chi's and Delta each tallied one point victories by nipping the Phi Sig, 8-7, and FIKA's, 7-6, respectively.

Tuesday night saw a pair of wins by favorites in the Independent League tournament.

Defending their 49 title, the Men's Dorns turned in an impressive win over the Yanks by a 9-0 score. The footballers from the residence halls, controlled the ball almost the entire game and would have run up a higher score had they not been slowed by penalties.

Yank possess were forced to throw quickly to avoid being caught for losses by the Dorn's rushing defense. On offense, the Dorns mixed passes with a wide open running attack to keep the Yanks on the retreat.

In the second game, the Rebels barely edged a vastly improved B.S.U. team, 13-12. The second-ranking Southerners had beaten the Baptists easily during the season, but were forced to the margin to stop them in this second meeting.

One game, the championship tilt for independent league honors, remains. The Dorns and Rebels are scheduled to meet Monday, November 13 to decide which team will represent the non-Greeks against the fraternities.

In their lone encounter in season play, the Rebels led the Dorns until late in the game when the champions of a score to win by the margin of a safety.

UK's Wildcats Smother Florida Gators, 40-6, In Homecoming Game, But Freshmen Kittens Bow To Cincinnati Yearlings By 39-20 Count

Six Men Score In Fourth SEC Win For Varsity

By Fred Lawson

The Florida Gators were surprised by the snow storm that swept St. Field during the game last Saturday but the experts were more surprised at the score at Kentucky; powerful Wildcats blasted out a 40-6 win over a highly-regarded Florida eleven.

This game, played before 33,000 homecoming fans, made football history at Kentucky. For the first time in history the Wildcats have won eight straight games.

Kentucky, the nation's No. 4 college football power, struck on the fifth play from scrimmage and went on to amass a wide 23-6 lead at the half.

The Wildcats started their scoring from the Florida 42. Leskovar on three tries and Jamerson on one moved it to the 25. Then Parrill passed 14 yards out in the flat to Jamerson who ran 11 more for the touchdown. The pass from center was high and prevented the attempted conversion.

A 64-yard march minutes later netted the second Kentucky touchdown with Jamerson running eight yards through center to score. A 14-yard run by Leskovar on an 18-yard pass to Ed Dominicucci were the big blows in the Blue drive. The extra point attempt by Gain was blocked.

Florida struck back immediately for its only score. Sullivan threw a jump pass to Jim French on the 33. Cutting to the left sideline, French evaded several Kentucky tacklers and scored. The extra-point try failed and Kentucky led 12-6.

The third Kentucky score came at the end of an 85-yard advance with Emery Clark scampering over from the nine. Leskovar contributed two runs of 14 yards each in this drive. Gain converted and the score was Kentucky 19, Florida 6.

The Wildcats went 33 yards for the fourth touchdown, the pay-off coming on a 16-yard Parrill to Zaranaka pass. Zaranaka made a sensational catch as he fell in the end zone with the ball. Gain converted and it was 26-6.

In the third quarter a Kentucky threat fizzled when Jamerson fumbled on the Florida 40. But minutes later Cliff Lawson ran 34 yards around left end for the fifth tally. Gain's kick was good and the score read 32-6.

Harry Jones finished the scoring for the Cats in the final period with a 15-yard run around right end to climax a 70-yard drive. Gain converted the 4th point.

LINEBACKERS—Harold Wooddell (left) and Doug Moseley are Kentucky's linebackers who are seen rearing behind the forward wall, looking for a ball carrier to tackle and ease to a pile up a hole.

He is six feet, one inch tall and lettered in '49. Both boys will see plenty of action against Mississippi State Saturday.

Single Wing Plays Fail To Function For Fresh Eleven

By E. T. Kirk

Getting used to the single wing for future scrimmages with the varsity, the Kitten footballers suffered their first defeat in two years, a 23-20 drubbing by host Cincinnati Monday afternoon.

The game followed the pattern of those rough, tough UK-UC varsity scraps. Assistant Coach Ermal Allen counted several minor broken bones Tuesday morning among his battered Kentuckians. The grueling affair took its toll among the Bearkittens also.

Monday's loss to the aggressive, keeled-up Cincinnatians ended a four-game win streak over two years for Kentucky, which had beaten Tennessee and Vanderbilt each season.

The Kittens had run out of the single wing for only three practices. Allen said they will sharpen up this attack to simulate Tennessee plays for the next two weeks.

Allen singled out Ends Steve Melinger, Jim Profit, and Sam Petrovich, Tackles Jerry Hempley and Jim Montgomery and Tailback Bunky Gruner for good work. The rest of the boys, he said, just didn't do the job.

The game was postponed from last Friday because of rain. Cincinnati's freshman record now stands at two wins and one loss, the same as Kentucky's.

Gruner gave Kentucky a brief first-quarter lead when he passed three yards to Profit in the end zone to climax a 28-yard drive after a recovered Cincy fumble. John Smyton booted the extra point.

Cincinnati roared back. It took the Bearkittens only three and one-half minutes to tie the score and another minute and 15 seconds to get a 14-7 lead.

Another Cincy fumble enabled Kentucky to knot the count early in the second quarter. Kentucky got the ball on the Cincinnati 19. Two smashes by Fullback John Platt took it to the four and Gruner ran it over from there.

UC reclaimed the lead which it never relinquished on a 36-yard pass with 40 seconds left in the first half. The home team put the game beyond recall with three markers in the third period.

With a minute to go in the game, Gruner went 17 yards for a touchdown after feinting a pass.

Flash. . . The winner of the WAA golf tournament was Delta Delta Delta. Play was conducted in groups of three at a time contingent to all, and their scores on nine holes turned in to the golf chairman, Bonnie Sharp. The lowest number of strokes was 41, made by Mary Jo Bue. Jane Bartlett put Kappa Alpha Theta in second place with a next to lowest score.

Bowling is rolling right along with the tournament in its last half. Each team should have completed its third turn to bowl; with just one more turn remaining, the race will really be on. The standings are not up to date at this time due to the fact that some teams are behind in turning in their scores.

At the end of the first round through Oct. 28, the standings are as follows: Division One: Delta Delta Delta, Chi Omega, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Division Two: Boyd Hall, Kappa Delta, Alpha Xi Delta. Team captains are asked to look on the Swimming is still an important feature in WAA activity. The Swimming Club is now being formed. Everyone who is interested in joining is invited to come, regardless of skill. Synchronized swimming and water ballet of all types will be taken up. The pool fee of $3 must be paid before one can swim in the pool. This covers locker, suit, and towel fees.
