

MINUTES OF THE UNIVERSITY SENATE
Dec. 17, 1934

The University Senate met in the Lecture Room of McVey Hall, Monday, December 17, with President McVey presiding.

The minutes of November 12 were read and approved.

The following standing committees of the Senate made reports on their work for 1933-34: The Library Committee, report made by Professor Dantzler, Auditing Committee for Student Activities, report made by Professor Downing.

The Committee on Duplication of Work presented the following new courses and changes in courses, which were approved by the Senate:

College of Arts and Sciences

New Courses:

Physical Education 125. Administration and Organization of Municipal and Community Recreation. A general consideration of the principles and procedures involved in organization methods and administrative policies for supervised children's, youth's, and adult's recreation. Visitation and field trips to local municipalities and communities to study and discuss conditions as they pertain to organized recreational projects. Prerequisites - Physical Education 29, or sufficient experience in organized recreational work. Three credits.

Art 23a. Decorative Arts of the 18th Century in England.

Art 23b. Decorative Arts of the 18th Century in France. A study of the decorative arts of the 18th century with particular reference to England and France, to be described in the catalog as follows:

Art 23a - Decorative Arts of the 18th Century England

Art 23b - Decorative Arts of the 18th Century France

One lecture and weekly problems.

Prerequisite: one year in Drawing or Design, 2 credits per semester. This course will be a study of the Arts which formed the decorative setting for the life and culture of the 18th century. In order to accommodate teachers and town-folk who are interested in having such a course offered we plan to schedule the lectures for later afternoon or evening hours. To be scheduled once every three years, rotating with the "Arts and Crafts" and the "Period Furniture" courses now being given on alternate years.

Minutes of the University Senate - Dec. 17, 1934

Art 41. Architecture of the United States. One lecture period per week; one credit; one semester. Not open to freshmen.

The course will present an illustrated and documented story of architecture in this country, beginning with early colonial days and ending with the present, including the Century of Progress Exposition. If authorized it will be given at a late afternoon or evening hour.

Sociology 117. Advanced Case Work. A continuation of Sociology 113. Three credits.

Sociology 120a,b. Supervised Field Work. 150 hours of field each semester.

Changes in Courses:

Geology 14a,b. Elementary Field Geology. One credit a semester. Changed from Geology 14, one credit. This is a series of field courses run in conjunction with some of the Geology work.

English 210a,b. Seminar. Three credits a semester. Changed from two credits a semester.

Sociology 106. American Immigration. Title changed from Immigration.

Sociology 109. The Family. Two credits. Credits changed from three.

Sociology 110. Child Welfare. Number changed from 10.

Sociology 121. Population Movements. Two credits. Credits changed from three credits. Number changed from 11, Population Movements.

Sociology 113. Introduction to Social Case Work. Title changed from Social Case Work.

Sociology 116. Rural Social Economy. Number changed from 5.

Sociology 118. Urban Social Economy. Two credits. Number changed from 12 and credits from three.

Sociology 119. Social Control. Two credits. Number changed from 15 and credits from three.

College of Agriculture

Change in Numbers:

H. E. 4, Dietetics, to H. E. 124, Dietetics.

H. E. 42, Home Management, to H. E. 142, Home Management.

Minutes of the University Senate - Dec. 17, 1934

College of Education

New Course:

Education 198. The Administration of Pupil Personnel. Three credits. This course will deal with the administration of pupil personnel, including attendance, census, promotion and progress, records and reports and other problems including those of the attendance officer.

College of Engineering

Changes in Courses in Metallurgy

Drop Metallurgy 4 - Metallurgy of Iron and Steele, 2 credits. Required of all Engineers.

Substitute Metallurgy 26 - Engineering Metallurgy. 2 credits. Required of Civil, Mechanical, and Electrical engineers, and Metallurgy 27 - General Metallurgy. 2 credits. Required of Mining and Metallurgical engineers.

Drop Metallurgy 19 - Non-Ferrous Metallurgy. 5 credits. Required of Mining and Metallurgical engineers.

Substitute Metallurgy 28 - Metallurgy of Copper and Lead, 2 credits. Required of Mining and Metallurgical engineers, and Metallurgy 29 - Metallurgy of the Ferrous Metals. 3 credits. Required of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers.

New Courses:

Metallurgy 26 - Engineering Metallurgy. An elementary course in metallurgy designed to acquaint the user of metals with the fundamental principles employed in the production and treatment of engineering metals and alloys, such principles being necessary to an intelligent use of these materials. Lectures and recitations two hours a week. Prerequisite: Chemistry 1b - 2 credits; both semesters.

Metallurgy 27 - General Metallurgy. An elementary course in general metallurgical principles together with a consideration of fuels, refractories, furnaces, pyrometry and the several alloy types. Lectures and recitations two hours a week. Prerequisite: Chem. 1b.- 2 credits; 1st semester.

Minutes of the University Senate - Dec. 17, 1934

Metallurgy 28 - Metallurgy of Copper and Lead. This course comprises a study of the principles and processes employed in the production and preparation for use of copper and lead and their alloys. Lectures and recitations two hours a week. Prerequisite: Met. 27. 2 credits; 2nd semester.

Metallurgy 29 - Metallurgy of the Ferrous Metals. This course comprises a study of the principles and processes employed in the production, treatment and preparation for use of iron and steel together with a consideration of their constitution, including the iron-carbon diagram. Lectures and recitations three hours a week. Prerequisite: Met. 27. 3 credits; 2nd semester.

Doctor McVey read eight questions which had been submitted to him in response to his letter to the local chapter of the American Association of University Professors, suggesting that the members raise questions concerning University policies. These questions had to do with the general policies of the University, such as whether a member of a college faculty should always vote with his college, and how our policies are determined.

The President stated that he had had other letters raising questions concerning insurance, library hours and problems of departmental organization, such as whether we should keep our present system of department heads or should organize the departments on a chairmanship basis.

The Senate approved a petition from a group of twenty students for the organization of the Patterson Literacy Society.

E. M. Gillis
Secretary