

WHAT IS EXPECTED OF THE STUDENT

The University has adopted certain rules and regulations and has made certain provisions designed to bring about the best adjustment between the institution and the student and to insure the fullest development of the latter, intellectually, spiritually, and physically. Registration by a student carries with it the obligation to cooperate to the fullest extent in observing the regulations and traditions of the institution, in making the most of the state's investment in him, and in furthering the welfare of the University.

Rules Affecting the Student

The following list of rules does not include all of the regulations of the University, but only the most important of those relating to studies, examinations, attendance, and discipline.

Student Load. During any semester the maximum load to be carried by any undergraduate student without special permission (including both residence and extension courses) shall not exceed either one-eighth of the curriculum requirement for graduation, plus two semester hours, or the amount specified in the curriculum for the particular semester, whichever is larger.

A student with a standing of 2.0 or more for the preceding semester, or a beginning freshman ranking in the upper 25 per cent on the University classification tests, may carry extra work with the approval of his dean, provided that the amount of extra work shall in no case exceed two semester hours or the total load exceed twenty-three semester hours.

The maximum load of work for a summer session (including both residence and extension) shall in no case exceed half of that which would be allowed for a semester. Two short courses of four weeks or less in length shall not be carried concurrently either by undergraduate or graduate students.

In all cases a correspondence course shall be considered as carried during the semester or summer session during which the last assignment is completed, and it shall be counted as a part of the load of that semester or summer session.

Auditors or Visitors. No instructor is authorized to admit an auditor to any of his classes except on presentation of an auditor's card from the Registrar's Office. A student who visits a class as an auditor is not allowed an examination for credit.

Probation. A regular student who fails to pass in three-fourths of the normal load required by his college in his preceding semester may be placed on probation by the dean of the college. If during the semester of probation, he again fails to pass in three-fourths of the normal load, he may be dropped from the University by the dean of his college. A student who has been thus dropped
