CATS TO FACE TIGER THINLIES ON LOCAL TRACK

Only Home Meet of Year to Be Held Saturday, May 3, On Stoll Field

"SHIPWRECK" KELLY HEADS SCORING LIST Captain Owens to Rest for Southern Conference Meet at Birmingham

LAWRENCE CRUMP The University of Kentucky track squad will face the Sewanee track in a dual meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock on Stoll Field.

Sewanee has fallen so much through this year and the Kentucky thinlies are confident of a victory. Both teams have dropped to meet to the powerful Tennessee crew but Kentucky had the better of the score.

"Shipwreck" Kelly continues to lead the Cats scoring and added to his laurels at Knoxville by turning in a win in the 440 yard dash. Kelly should win at least three events against the Tigers.

Sewanee seems to be most potent in the hurdles, javelin and pole vault. Craven, the timber topper, runs the 120 high hurdles in 16 seconds flat which is good time around these parts.

In the track meet between the two schools from Lexington Wednesday afternoon on Stoll field which was in the nature of a preliminary workout for the rivalry in preparation for their meet with Sewanee here Saturday, some real talent was discovered in the freshmen ranks.

Central Kentucky Colleges Assist U. K. Political Science Department in Presentation of Model Assembly

The political science department of the University of Kentucky in cooperation with Asbury, Centre, Wesleyan and other colleges presented a model assembly of the League of Nations, Tuesday, April 29, in the Memorial Building.

Herr Wolf von Dewall, editor of the Frankfurter Zeitung, made the introductory remarks. Herr von Dewall began by saying that he felt perfectly at home in Kentucky because of the presence of the cities of Versailles and Paris which reminded him of France.

Thursday—On such a morning it did give me sorely to wander forth to the man's college, where I did see SIRK MOBERG and the other MOORE NASH and I went to class. There I listen wearily to DICK BREWER discuss the subject of the GLADYS RICE whose arm hangs limp in a sling. Well—WOMEN BLUE BRIDES.

Later went down to ye old village where I did see KELLY parked in his shiny vehicle. Also saw CHERRY ROYSE bump by in his Kitty-Car. Thence to dine at the den of iniquity where the "bachelors" were. SHICK and HEBBER do surely remind me of WEBER and FIELDS. I trudged home past the DELTA ZETA house where I did see BOB LEVINS and his lady love, SARAH REYNOLDS. Methinks that man has no bad line.

Friday—I laid abate a listening to the idle prattle of sparrows. Ach! Methinks I've got the spring fever. Bad thing, too! I do hear that KEN MCINTYRE has a continuous case of it. Dragged up the campus to see RICK RICHARDS and MARY ARMSTRONG taking over a car door. Saw EARL KILGIP SENEFF sprawled on the campus green winking at the girls that went by. BILLY CALLISON and HENRY SHIERWOOD with their heads together and I did sorely fear to intrude there.

The hour of tea was dead and thus my day passed wearily. In the evening I didst charge the JUNIOR PROM to the care of FRANK GATES and MARTHA GIVEN. What a couple! Handsome? Oh, yes. Did see KAY KENNEDY who was charming as usual and SPOOKS MILWARD. It did thrill my soul. O Public, as I did heed JAMES DORRIS as he was moping so proudly to pledged O. D. K. O. Froited! Thy name is Pleasure. To sing where I dreamed of FRANK THOMPSON and PAUL MCBRYER to bed a trio.

Saturday—The day was dull, but Oh what news did I hear! The lovely DORIS STRIKER and JOHNNY SLAGLE have dropped their robes in a haze of matrimony. Did fare forth to the dance where I did see GAY LOUGH.

FIRE RESULTS IN $5,000 LOSS AS BUILDING BURNS

2,000 Eggs, Due to Be Hatched in Seven Days, Are Destroyed by Blaze

STUDENT VOLUNTEERS MAKE GOOD FIREMEN Construction Work to Begin on Newoultry Laboratory Immediately

Fire resulting in a loss of approximately $5,000 practically destroyed a two-story farm building housing poultry laboratory and is the residence of A. McFadden, farm superintendent on the University Experiment Station farm, Tuesday, April 29.

The blaze was discovered shortly after noon Tuesday by passerby and an immediate alarm was sent in but engines reached the farm too late to do more than salvage some of the goods belonging to the McFadden family. Students at the University assisted in fighting the fire.

Included in the loss was a 6,000 egg incubator which contained 2,000 eggs due to be hatched in seven days. An estimate of the loss to the building was placed at $3,000 with $2,000 insurance, and $1,200 loss to the incubator which was partly covered by insurance.

Approximately $600 worth of furniture and personal belongings were destroyed. The loss was a heavy blow, although the greater part of their belongings were carried from the building by the firemen.

Work on a new building to replace the laboratory will begin immediately according to plans of the College of Agriculture and Maury J. Crutcher, superintendent of buildings and grounds. It is meantime the experimental work carried on formerly in the destroyed building will meet in the other buildings on the Experiment Station farm.

Fires which have originated as the result of sparks from the chimney of the building. The burning building, being a frame one, is a non-personal volunteer fire department which was first on the scene.

The McFadden family have taken rooms in a nearby house, adjoining the Experiment Station grounds.

KERNEL ISSUES ANNUAL EDITION FOR BLUE RIDGE

University Y. M. C. A. Sponsors Publication Concerning Conference

STUDENT ENCAMPMENT TO MEET JUNE 14-23 Prominent Speakers Are Secured to Discuss Campus Problems at Meetings

This issue of the Kernel has been set aside as the annual "Blue Ridge" edition, sponsored by the University Y. M. C. A. Page three has been given to that organization for the purpose of setting forth the plans and purposes of the Blue Ridge Student Conference which will meet in Blue Ridge, Va., June 14-23.

For several years it has been the custom of the Kernel and other student publications in the South to dedicate one issue each year to this student encampment. At that time a concerted drive is made to make the entire "Blue Ridge conscious," and to impress upon those students who desire to spend their summer vacation in the mountains that Blue Ridge is one of the most ideal of vacation spots.

Blue Ridge encampment has had a very interesting history. Planned and built by men who had no thought of the present, it is situated in one of the most picturesque portions of the famous Blue Ridge mountains and is visited by more than 60,000 southern students for periods ranging from one week to the entire summer.

Probably the most important of these conferences are those for the Y. M. C. A.'s of the southern United States which meet in May, and for the Y. M. C. A.'s (Continued on Page Five)

Students to Edit Lexington Herald

Staffs of Central Kentucky College Papers to Publish Edition of May 14

Student journalists of central Kentucky colleges will have complete charge of the publication of the issue of the Lexington Herald on Wednesday, May 14, according to plans announced by the Herald management during the past week.

On that date, representatives from the Kernel and other central Kentucky college publications will take over the beats of the regular Herald reporters, as well as editorial and proof reading and advertising.

Alpha Delta Sigma, University advertising fraternity, will have charge of the May publication appearing in the student edition.

May Edition of Letters Is Issued As Subscription Campaign Begins

The May edition of Letters, a quarterly magazine issued by the University is now on sale at the bookstore and the business office of the Kernel. It is edited by the English department of the University and published for the purpose of encouraging literary activity in this state.

There are several outstanding articles in this edition which are of great interest. One of the most impressive features of the publication is that most of the contributions are either from University students or from University graduates.

"The Sacrifice of the Maidens" was written especially for Letters by Elizabeth Madox Roberts, a native of Springfield, Ky. It is a story of several beautiful, young girls who were sent to the world to the well in a nursery. Miss Roberts is outstanding in literary circles in Kentucky.

Just Another Good Lady Gone Wrong! Anonymous One Accuses Students of Gaming in Restaurants

No little worry and excitement were written on the brow of restaurant owners who have places of business adjacent to the campus during the past week when the opening was accused of harboring "gaming dens" patronized exclusively and intensely by students of the University.

A lady who refused to give her name but who asked if a lady called the restaurants and asked if there was any card playing being done by students, said she had received a tip that students are gambling instead of attending classes. She received the "tip" from someone at the University, she said, and threatened to make a personal investigation of the matter.

Restaurant owners were perplexed by the calls and declared that they knew of no reason why anyone should believe students are gambling in their places of business. The owners say they know nothing of the charges.

BOWMAN PRAISES R. O. T. C. MORALE

Results of Inspection Conclude Rating of University Unit Will Be Made in Next Two Weeks

"I was very much impressed with the morale of the University of Kentucky R. O. T. C. unit as a whole," said Lieut. Col. E. N. Bowman, chief of the tenth infantry at Fort Thomas, who was assisted in the inspection of the University R. O. T. C. unit by Col. E. R. Harris of Corps Artillery at Louisville, Ohio, who left Lexington earlier Tuesday morning for Kentucky headquarters at Louisville.

"My reception at the University of Kentucky was fine, and the spirit shown by the men in the unit to meet the inspection was highly commendable," said Col. Bowman. He added, "I received a number of expressions of interest from the unit sponsors—their spirit as part of the organization and not merely as display units; also the University may well be proud of its Seaboard and Blade chapter."

Monday's inspection consisted of a drill on the parade grounds. All classes drilled during the day and at 4 o'clock the entire regiment passed in review. After the parade a guard mount was held. Tuesday's inspection consisted of class work for the junior and senior classes on the parade grounds for freshmen and sophomores. Lieut. Col. Bowman left for Tuesday concluded the inspection.

Results of the inspection concerning the rating of the unit will not be known until at least two weeks since data from other inspections over the Fifth Corps Area must be considered before a rating can be made.

PEAK ADDRESSES STUDENTS

Bart Peak addressed the student body of Pictadome High School during the week-end at that school Thursday morning.

naturalism, which is common to all countries in Germany. Mr. Keil, who is now an instructor at Hunter College, was instructor of German at the University in 1929 and was for some time engaged at Columbia University.

Cardby B. Fitch, a graduate of the University at the University of Foreign Languages at Transylvania College, contributes "The Return of the War." This piece is particularly entertaining in that it is an excellent description of the ancient methods of torture which existed in all of the European countries during Medieval times.

An article bearing the title "The Great Misadventure" is an excellent criticism of that story written by Elizabeth Madox Roberts. This review is the work of Professor E. F. Farquhar.

"Consider the Language" by Edward W. Rannels, head of the Art department of the University, is a criticism or commendation on the trend of Modern art. "The Paths of Glory" delivers a very good description of war. It is somewhat interesting, but rather interesting reading.

MANY BENEFITS OFFERED AT BLUE RIDGE

TRAINING CENTER OPENED IN 1912

Blue Ridge Arose From Needs of Y. M. and Y. W. For a Summer Conference; Was Incorporated in 1907

Blue Ridge arose out of the needs of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. for a summer training conference center, and the grounds were opened for conferences for the first time during the summer of 1912.

Since the first summer session, Blue Ridge has acquired land totaling 1,619 acres. There are 56 buildings on the grounds, which provide comfortable and modern housing for more than 600 guests at one time; ample class and conference rooms, an auditorium, dining hall, gymnasium, swimming pool, cottages for family groups, etc.

Present officers of the association which governs Blue Ridge are: P. S. Gilchrist, president, Charlotte, N. C.; F. C. Abbott, secretary-treasurer, Charlotte, N. C.; C. H. Hobbs, executive chairman, Coconut Grove, Fla.

Blue Ridge Association was incorporated March 6, 1907, under the laws of North Carolina. It is non-commercial, non-dividend paying, and its property is held in trust by an executive committee composed of 21 men and women.

JOINT Y. M. AND Y. W. MEETING

BEAUTIFUL SCENERY, EDUCATIONAL CONTACTS OFFERED IN CAROLINA

It is a beautiful place. Some have called those mighty hills the American Alps, and some might call them the American Andes, but we prefer to boast of them as our beautiful Blue Ridge. Many have lived and tried trying to describe their mountain majesty and anyone else who tries it deserves a similar fate.

There are crystal dawns and magnificent sunsets, that wonderful gradation of color and temperature the green to the gold, the chill to the sun's heat, that breathes the atmosphere of purity that is Nature's eternal council to man. You'll quarrel for cover at night, maybe, and languish for the swimming pool at noon, but spending the healthiest ten days that you ever lived, eating good food, drinking God's purest beverage and breathing His own fragrant air, right there on the mountain side.

And there is, too, a health in the contact with real, live men. Men who are leaders back in their colleges, who have won glory on the gridiron and diamond for their institutions, men who are making their names in athletics and in the literary and social life of our Southern educational world, who have met to share their fellowship in the most friendly of contests and the most fraternal of rivalries. Yes, those mountain sides, the long athletic field, the invigorating plunge in the swimming pool, are a physical road to health.

Blue Ridge Offers An Ideal Vacation Ten Days of Inspirational Addresses, Recreation and Scenery Are Features

A perfect ten day vacation is what Blue Ridge offers to southern students at a minimum charge. Ten days packed full of worthwhile diversions, broadening influences, and breeding friendships is but a feeble estimate of the results obtained in the fifteen previous years that Blue Ridge has been maintained for southern conferences by the national organization of the Young Men's Christian Association.

Here are a few of the outstanding features of Blue Ridge: 1. The most beautiful scenery in eastern America; 2. Athletics of every description; 3. The ultimate in good speakers, leaders, and counselors; 4. Campus leaders from practically every important university in the southern states; 5. Accommodations to satisfy the most meticulous; 6. Food of the highest quality in the greatest quantities.

U. K. Class Reunions To Be May 31-June 2

Class reunions for all graduates of the University will be held Saturday, May 31. Husbands and wives of the graduates will be included in the meetings. The reunions will continue through June 1 and 2 and a varied program of entertainment has been arranged for the returning alumni.

The alumni will take part in many of the commencement exercises and space will be reserved for them a all the more important functions of the graduation season.

The program which has been arranged for the graduates includes both business sessions and social entertainments.

CONFERENCE TO HEAR KIRBY PAGE

Noted Editor, Lecturer and Author Is Among Principal Speakers at Blue Ridge Session

Kirby Page, noted editor, author and lecturer, will be among the principal speakers at the annual Blue Ridge Student Conference, to be held June 14-23 at Blue Ridge, N. C. Students from the leading universities in the South will be in attendance at this conference which is held under the supervision of the Southern Association of Y. M. C. A.

The Rev. E. McNeil Potat, of Pullen Memorial Church, Raleigh, N. C., will open the conference with three addresses on "Coming to Terms With Our Universe"; Dr. Frank S. Brinkman, of Duke University, will address this group on "Introduction to the Psychology of Religion"; and Dr. J. H. H. Hamlin, of the University, will address this group on "Coming to Terms With Ourselves."

Dr. Fletcher S. Brockman, a native of Virginia and a graduate of Vanderbilt University who has attained a position of international renown, will speak on the students' relationship with foreign students.

Detailed Plan of Conference Program Given

The daily program at Blue Ridge provides diversified occupation for delegates. Time for meditation, reading, sight seeing, and athletics is allowed, outside of the hours assigned for worship, addresses, discussion groups, and Bible study.

The first period of the workshop hour, which comes as a morning watch before breakfast. This part of the program is led by a speaker of inspirational and entertaining ability and is one of the best parts of the Blue Ridge program.

The third period is taken up for personal adjustment. The whole conference assembles in the evening for a major problem of their adjustment during college life. Each leader is a trained specialist in his subject.

Following dinner, the afternoon is spent with the majority of the delegates participating in the various inter-delegation athletic contests. Nature study, sight seeing, hiking, and reading are also optional to the individual.

Immediately after supper a good many of the delegates assemble around the piano in the lobby of Robert E. Lee hall for singing, while others stroll around the grounds getting a good view.

A climax to the day's program, the leading address of the day is given at 8 o'clock. The featured leaders of the conference are heard by an assembly of the entire conference during this hour.

Students Are Urged To Plan Vacation Peak Announces Results to Be Obtained by Attending Summer Meetings

Students interested in Blue Ridge as a place to spend their summer vacation are urged to get in touch with O. R. Magill, 412 Palmer Building, Atlanta, Ga., before May 15, according to Bart Peak, secretary of the University Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Peak in recommending Blue Ridge gave the following results which students may hope to obtain in attending the meetings:

- (1) Great help in understanding what you are able to do.
- (2) Knowledge of new lines to explore.
- (3) New light on the significant opportunities of your campus.
- (4) Definite suggestions for additional work experiences.
- (5) Acquaintance with splendid ways to get information and help.
- (6) Clearer, broader, deeper, richer views of the problem involved in vocational choice.

Intramural Track Meet to Be Held At U. of K. May 9

The annual spring intramural track meet will be conducted on the University track May 9, according to an announcement made by Sid Robinson, director of intramural athletics.

A period of supervised training will be held beginning this week and continue until May 7, four days of each week. To the fraternities having as many as eight men out for each training day, including Easter holidays, they will be awarded 25 points toward the participation trophy. Men should be out at 4:45 o'clock each afternoon. Those who have 4 o'clock classes may come out at 8:30 o'clock.

All undergraduates will be eligible for the final meet except men who are competing with varsity and freshman teams and former letter men in track.

Preliminary to the final meet a series of quadrangular meets will be sponsored so that the men may acquire experience in competitions. These meets will be held April 24, 25 and 28, and May 1. Each fraternity team will enter at least one of these meets.

"ALPS OF AMERICA"

BLUE RIDGE MOUNTAINS ROMANCE PICTURED BY FORMER DELEGATE

That well known Carolina moon, enlorged so fittingly in song, never shines more brightly, nor more effectively than it does at Blue Ridge. On a soft, moonlit June night, when sections are over and everyone breathes deep of the pure mountain air with a sense of security and inspiration, romance finds its place in the groups that gather for singing and talking.

A canoe ride on the moonlit lake, a stroll down a shady path, flecked with penetrating moonbeams, or lounging on the grassy carpet in front of Robert E. Lee hall, to gaze over the beautiful panoramic view, laid out boldly under the rays of the moon, are some of the inducements to romance and nobility of friendship.

Representatives of U. K. at Blue Ridge Announced by Peak

According to an announcement from the office of Bart Peak yesterday, Morton Walker, president of the University Y. M. C. A., Joe Ruttenbutter, Virgil Couch, Bart Peak, and probably several others who have not definitely decided as yet, will represent the University at Blue Ridge.

Miss Margaret Lewis, secretary of the local Y. W. C. A., announced that Eleanor Sweigler, newly elected president of that organization, will represent the Y. W. club, and that many other girls on the campus have signified their intention of attending the girls' meet, which begins two weeks earlier than the boys' meet.

MAY DAY

Most cherished day in the whole calendar of University life—May Day! Distinguished with the solemnity of seniors in black caps and gowns; beautified with the loveliness of the chosen Queen and her fair maids; thrilling with its wealth of time-honored traditions. May Day probably is the most memorable of all in the school year.

To the co-ed who has been elected to reign over the festivities of the day, we wish to give the congratulations which she deserves. Her attendants also have been chosen by the men students for their beauty and popularity and well represent their sisters on the campus. The spirit of May Day is surely fittingly carried out when the whole of the University pays homage to such a distinguished court of beauty.

Today is the first occasion on which the seniors appear in their full regalia—and the time, perhaps when many of them first realize the nearness of the end of their college careers. So, heedless undergraduates, cognizant of the fact that the same ceremonies of a coming May Day will bring you the same realizations, pay due reverence to the members of the class which today dons its dignity.

Awards of several types are scheduled on the May Day program, prizes which attest the worth of student work as well as the work done by some organizations, and although awards are materially small in value, they are a recognition of character and contribution that will not be forgotten.

For many years the prime tradition has been the planning and carrying out of the day's program by the members of the SuKy Circle, and to them and to the organizations which have aided them in their excellent work, goes the heartfelt appreciation of the student body for this day of days.

BLUE RIDGE

"Nestled among the hills of North Carolina stands a Cathedral erected to the students of the South. Probably in all history of mankind there has never been such a creative force erected to the living—for sweat, blood, heartache, entered into the building of this sanctuary. Men who made this possible were not working for a salary. They were working to preserve that intangible something—call it God if you wish—that flickers, and sometimes goes out in the consciousness of man, but when it permeates, transforms individuals. The men who created this cathedral sensed the need for a place where students could retire from the hustle of the campus and consecrate their lives. They were busy men, and yet they were close enough to the students to sense the need of a place where one could come, and in the stillness, feel the presence of his creators."

That is Blue Ridge—Blue Ridge as seen through the eyes of one of the many thousand students who yearly make pilgrimages to this Mecca of the University Y. M. C. A. members. An institution known to all inspires those who come within its influence as which can gain such a grip on the lives of southern students who attend any of its sessions, must have a dynamic, moving force behind it. An institution which can do this deserves the support of every organization interested in the religious life of the youth of today.

The Kernel considers it a privilege to dedicate this issue to the Blue Ridge movement. Each year it has been the policy of the paper to set aside one edition for the University Y. M. C. A. and its sister organization, the Y. W. C. A., to share with other students on the campus their knowledge of Blue Ridge encampment and its influence.

The annual Blue Ridge Student Conference, which meets in this beautiful North Carolina resort June 12-23, has outlined an ambitious program. Rarely have more widely known leaders in religious and educational fields been assembled for one such conference. Kirby Page, internationally known for his writing and his lectures, is alone a justification for the heartiest of commendations of this meet. Nor are the other lecturers who will appear less known nor less capable in their fields.

Situated in the heart of the magnificent Blue Ridge Mountains, which extend throughout the Virginias and the Carolinas, Blue Ridge encampment is a site of unsurpassed natural beauty. Sparking mountain streams—clear skies—invigorating mountain air—all combine to make Blue Ridge a spot where any student, who as yet has not decided upon the place where he will spend his summer vacation, one of the most promising of locations, should select as one of the most promising of locations.

THE LAST LAP

The long journey that began last September is nearly ended, with the last lap representing but half a league until the year's final examinations arise as a frightful specter after the Easter hiatus. It is good to contemplate the rapid approach of summer vacation, but the barrier of examinations must be hurdled successfully ere the world will be in tune for students at the University.

Within the short time that remains in this, the final semester of the year, there must be reviews and intensive study. It would not be out of place to say here that professional dignity will not encourage laxity in knowledge of the various courses here. It follows that the parties defendants, upon whom the burden of proof will be to show lack of negligence, will be the students.

So, now is the time to get busy and study as never before during the current semester. In order that excellent grades may result, for it is unanimously agreed that high grades are most desirable under the educational system of this school and other American universities. They are looked upon with favor by instructors, by parents, by those to whom students apply for positions following graduation, by honorary societies and by students themselves; they are accepted as a criterion of knowledge, ability and aptitude; they are connotations of future success. Such being the case, students ought to endeavor to make the most of the short time that remains until the end of another school year shall come to the University of Kentucky.

THE GEORGETOWN FIRE

The Georgetown College fire was indeed a catastrophe and The Kernel offers its sincere sympathy to the students and faculty. We appreciate the circumstances under which they are now placed and are happy to note that they are well capable of meeting the situation.

The Georgetown alumni are to be praised for their initiative and cooperation. We note that they already have thrown their hats into the ring by beginning a drive to procure funds for a new building, with the hopes also of being able to replace some of the books and other articles that were lost in the fire. We wish you success in your enterprise.

THE MODEL ASSEMBLY

In preparation for service in the field of international relations, the political science department, in cooperation with the international relations class, sponsored a model assembly of the League of Nations Tuesday night. Students from the University of Kentucky, Asbury, Centre, and Kentucky Wesleyan colleges participated in the presentation.

Addresses taken from the verbatim records of the tenth assembly of the league were delivered by student members. Careful attention was given to the manner in which the meeting was conducted, so that every detail was an authentic reproduction of the league.

This meeting was of benefit to the students of international relations in giving them a clear and concise idea of the workings of the league. Education by such examples serves to clear up a certain amount of haziness that hangs about many an understanding of foreign relations and world problems.

Miss Sarah Blanding, professor in the department of political science, with the other professors who were influential in the presentation of this model assembly, are to be highly commended for their work and the success of their efforts.

LET'S MISBEHAVE

The ancient Greeks conceived of athletic contests as the highest expression of their religious belief. As true sportsmen they have been equaled throughout the ages. We, at Kentucky, have departed quite a long way from the ideals of these historic heroes. An evidence of this, one of the crudest displays that has ever been seen at the University, occurred at the Kentucky-Vanderbilt game Saturday. Spectators, players and the umpire exercised no restraint in expressing their feelings, which were evidently those of uncultured and uncivilized savages.

This manifestation of barbarism was in accordance with the policy that has been generally pursued by Kentucky's sons and daughters at various athletic contests. One who does not "razz" the other team or the officials is expected to lack school spirit. Umpires cannot be believed to uphold higher standards of sportsmanship than the spectators who watch them. An official can be expected, however, to be a man if not a gentleman. When an umpire resorts to the methods of his prosecutors to clear himself he is disgracing the ideals which he is obviously supposed to maintain. That is exactly what the umpire at the game Saturday did. When he was "booed" by the spectators he turned and addressed them in language even cruder than their own.

LITERARY COLUMN

Dorothy Carr, Editor

"THE GREAT MEADOW"

(By Elizabeth Madox, Editor, The Viking Press, New York, 1928.)

The story of the settlement of Kentucky by those brave, hardy men and women, who, facing untold hardships and unknown dangers, bravely marched over the Wilderness Route mapped by Boone, into this rich, promising land, is the theme of the latest novel by the author of "The Time Of Man."

The story opens on the upper reaches of the James river in Virginia, where Diony Hall, daughter of Thomas Hall, a poor "tide-water" farmer, meets Berk Jarvis, whom she marries, and with whom she leaves her home and friends to journey to Kentucky—the "Great Meadow" of the Indians. Here she grew to know the necessity of eternal vigilance against the redmen; the hardships of frontier life, and the fine character of her fellowmen and women, who were bound one to the other by a common danger and purpose.

Miss Roberts tells the story of Diony Hall's life with a lyrical, yet simple beauty. The book has a strong thread of action running throughout and ends after a stirring, though rather conventional climax. "The Great Meadow" is distinguished for the portrayal of the character of Diony Hall, whose life as painted by the author forces one to a more lasting faith in the potentialities of human character. As a picture of one of the most inspiring episodes of American history, and as a chronicle of human fortitude, faith, and love, the book burns itself into the memory and cannot be forgotten.

BUILDINGS in Which You Take Pride

On THE CAMPUS, where class buildings and memorial structures are so often distinguished by their noble form, flood-lighting equipment serves to prolong the enjoyment of their beauty and to enhance pride in the institution. Such an application is made for the new 165-foot campanile at South Dakota State—magnificent gift of an alumnus. Electrically operated chimes sound the hours and are heard in concerts. At night, shafts of light from General Electric floodlighting projectors effect a picture of superb beauty done in the school colors and white. From the air, the tower is identified by the beam from a G-E airway beacon surmounting the floodlighted dome. Thus, G-E equipment plays its part in promoting progress and fine appreciation. Back of every G-E product is an organization in which college-trained men are largely responsible for the planning, production, and distribution.

May Edition of Letters Is Issued

In the poetry section Miss Marjorie Gould scores again with "Maidenhair" and "Escape." Another contribution Miss Gould's, not found in the poetry section is "Triumph." All three are of excellent quality.

Other poems of merit are "That Guy Cupid" by Walter F. Wright, "Wakening" and "Nocturne" by Robert Gray and "Contemporaneity" by Anna Dodd. Anna Dodd and Walter F. Wright are graduates of the University and Robert Gray is a freshman in the College of Engineering.

There are two art sketches by Mildred Shute in this issue: "Cold Clean" and "Track Watch." Both are very realistic. Miss Shute is a junior in the College of Arts and Sciences and is from Ottumwa, Iowa.

There are only two book reviews in this edition of the magazine. One is Manuel Komroff's "Coronet," reviewed by Joe H. Palmer, and the other is Jessie S. Miner's "Trailings," a book of poems, criticized by E. F. Farubar.

(Continued from Page One) which meets June 14-22. At these meetings leaders in "Y" work and affiliated organizations gather for a five-day session for recreation, study and discussion. Each year the University sends delegates to these conferences.

Prominent religious and educational leaders are secured for these conferences, and at the Y. M. C. A. Student Conference such figures as Kirby Page will be among the principal speakers. Discussion of camp-themes of most group meetings. According to an announcement from those in charge of the conference, more than fifty of the nation's leading men have been selected to lead these discussion groups.

The grounds of Blue Ridge are unusually attractive. Modernly equipped buildings, built along the colonial style of architecture add a very pleasing effect to the background of natural beauty. The Blue Ridge Mountains have been called by many "The Alps of America," and easily justify their claim to this title.

Any students interested in taking advantage of the opportunity of spending the summer vacation at Blue Ridge should communicate with Bart Peak, secretary of the University, Y. M. C. A., or Miss Margaret Lewis, Y. M. C. A. secretary.

Coronation of Queen To Follow Parade

(Continued from Page One) zations on the campus. The parade, scheduled to leave the University grounds promptly at 1:30 o'clock, will traverse the downtown sections of the city and end in the glen between the Law building and Dicker Hall.

The processional march of the Queen from her royal float, followed by her attendants, will end at the throne. There Miss Hazel Baucum will be properly enthroned and crowned Queen of the May, with the maid of honor, Miss Kathleen Fitch, in close attendance.

After the queen has been installed upon her throne the English folk dances and the customary may-pole dance will be held. Miss Rebecca Averill is in charge of this part of the program.

The floats will be judged and three silver loving cups will be presented; one to the most beautiful; one to the most mirth-provoking; and one to the most humorous individual. The cups, which are on display at the Tavern, will be presented at the "Gingham dance."

Saks To Pledge At Dance
At 7 o'clock a dinner party will be given at the Lafayette hotel in honor of the Saks pledges. The day's events close with the annual "Gingham dance" which will be held in the Men's gymnasium from 9 to 1 o'clock, the music being furnished by the Kentuckians orchestra. The annual pledging exercises of Saks will be held at the dance, when five girls and seven boys will be taken into the Circle.

Everyone is supposed to attend the dance clad only in overalls and gingham dresses to carry out the spirit of the affair.

The "Kentuckian" annual University year-book will be distributed at 10 o'clock today. This is the first time that it has been possible for the year-book to be distributed at such an early date.

Movie cameramen will take moving pictures of the parade and the crowning of the queen.

University Art Student Contributes Forty-eight Drawings

The new spelling text, written by Prof. Jesse Adams and among the list of textbooks officially adopted by the state textbook commission, contains forty-eight illustrations by William D. Letters of endorsement from professors out of the state have been received by Professor Adams who expects the number of copies of the spelling to be used to exceed the half million mark during the five-year adoption period.

Prof. C. C. Ross, Prof. Lawrence Yates, and Mrs. Jesse Adams have been mentioned by Professor Adams in his book as having aided him in its completion.

In the sprints, Foster has been doing the century in 10.2 which is not so bad for freshmen in the Southern Conference. Maddox runs the mile in 4.46 and has been consistently running second to the rarely beaten Tuttle, another who broke the University discus record in the Wednesday session with a heave of 122 feet. Other first year men who have been showing to good advantage are Milligan in the quarter, Conboy, two mile, Baker, Clark and Skinner in the high hurdles, Hirsch has also been showing good time in the low hurdles.

Freshmen Meet M. M. I. Cadets This Afternoon

COACH JOHNNIE MAUER TO PRESENT REVAMPED TEAM; ELLIS ON MOUND

The fresh nine will tie up with the M. M. I. Cadets on the home lot this afternoon. The lineup probably will differ from that used in the first two games as Coach John Mauer has shifted his men considerably. In their initial appearance of the year the Kittens defeated the Deaf and Dumb outfit from Danville by a 10 to 5 count. In their next game Irvine bowed to the Yeasleys, 4 to 2.

Ellis, of Male, has had to bear the brunt of the pitching burden so far but "Windy" Aldridge is fast gaining form and may hit his stride soon. Wooten is another promising mound candidate. Lavin looks like a sure starter behind the bat due to his previous showing but he has a worthy assistant in Gilbert.

"Hemie" Kreuter has been shifted from second base to first. This will be the "Dutchman's" first appearance at that position this year. "Mike" Tucker the Paducah flash, will start at second and Charley Worthington will perform around the "hot corner." Hogue, a good defensive man and a dependable hitter, will retain his old position at short.

Bill Luther, after trying several positions, has finally settled down in the outfield as fly chaser de luxe. Carney, of Chicago, is cavorting around in centerfield in manly fashion. Engle, of the Hamilton, Ohio product, is staging a battle with Kaempfe, a New

Peak Addresses Y. M. C. A. Retreat

Four men from the University were among the 48 delegates from six different colleges to attend the State Y. M. C. A. Cabinet Retreat at Camp Daniel Boone, Sunday April 27. These men from the University were Bart Peak, Gale Tudor, R. L. Rudolph, and Robert Stewart.

Sunday afternoon Bart Peak spoke to the delegates on "Our Responsibility to Others." Among those present were representatives E. G. Rowe, of state headquarters at Louisville, and C. B. Loomis, of Southern regional student secretary.

Jersey lad, for one of the outer garden beds and it is doubtful as to which will start today's tilt. John Frye, another Male luminary, is giving them fits and may break in before the last tear is shed.

Luther, Hogue and Lavin have been hitting in big league fashion and the team as a whole is showing improvement in this department. The freshmen have three more games on their card with an occasional encounter with the Varsity to make things interesting.

COUNCIL SEEKING BASKETBALL COACH

When Coach Johnnie Mauer resigned as varsity basketball and freshman baseball coach at the University, a vacancy was made in the coaching staff that has proved to be one of the most difficult situations the present Athletic Council has ever faced.

It is a task to choose between the many applicants for the position, according to "Daddy" Boles athletic director, and a great deal of time and expense is necessary to carry on the investigations attached to electing a new man to fill the shoes of a winning coach like Johnnie Mauer.

"Daddy" Boles said that there are 300 applicants for the position. This list of names, according to Daddy Boles, will be reduced by a series of eliminations to six or ten, and then the Athletic Council, judging by past experiences of the men, reference and the ability of the men, to handle boys, will elect a successor to Mauer. Mr. Boles said that the new coach would not only be head basketball coach, but he would also have an active part in track and football.

Names of applicants for the position are not ready for publication, but it is understood that some of the outstanding coaches in the South are applying for the job.

All Athletes to Get Same Awards At Ohio State

The Athletic Board of Ohio State University announced last week that major and minor sport letter winners will receive the same kind of letter.

Under the new rule there will be no distinguishing feature between a major sport award such as football and a minor athletic activity like soccer. Awards for reserve athletes will be in the nature of a gray sweater with a scarlet "O" and the word "reserve" written across the letter.

Other ratifications were: Ohio State-Columbia basketball game at New York, February 2; substitution of Ohio State Reserves-Indiana Reserves football game at Bloomington, Ind., November 8; to replace Ohio State Reserves-Ohio Northern game which has been cancelled; Ohio State-College of City of Detroit tennis match at Ohio Stadium April 25, and Alternates of Ohio State-Illinois and Northwestern golf matches to be played at Ohio Stadium, April 28, at Evanston, Ill., respectively, May 5.

Louisville Club Hears Anderson

Members Are Given Photo of Gray Rochester, Active Alumnus

The Louisville Alumni Club held their annual dinner dance recently at the University Club in the Brown office building, Louisville, at which Dean F. Paul Anderson was guest of honor and speaker of the evening. Thomas A. Ballantine, 25, Law, president of the Louisville club, accepted the photo for his club.

Immediately following the presentation exercise, Mr. Ballantine introduced Dean Anderson. In his address the dean dwelt upon the fact that there is a noticeable absence of friction and dissension among faculty members. He made the statement that more had been accomplished in the past ten years than in any 40 years prior. He expressed the wish that he be known as a trainer of men in an endeavor in which they will be happy to pursue during their lives after leaving the campus.

The next meeting of the club will be held at 6:30 the second Monday evening in May in the dining room of the University club. Any graduate or former student, working in or near Louisville or who may be passing through, any second Monday of any month, will find a hearty welcome if they will visit the club at 6:30. Wildcats, especially, are invited to attend the meetings.

Wildcat Golf Team Defeats Wesleyan

Larmee Leads Mates to Victory; Frosh Is Also Winner

The University of Kentucky Golf team defeated the Kentucky Wesleyan Golf team last Saturday in a match held at the Ashland Country Club. The score was 9 to 0. The full team of the University did not play in the match Saturday because of the fact that Wesleyan has only a two-man team. The Blue and White team was represented by Captain Kenneth Larmee and Bill Lusky, number one and two players of the Wildcat's newest sport, which is coached by Prof. J. Catron Jones. The Wesleyan team was represented by Rouse and Pupillo.

The boys have been showing rapid improvement over the form indicated in their recent match with Vanderbilt, in which the Commodores swept the entire card. Bad weather and the late opening of the local courses proved to be a severe handicap to the Kentucky players and because of their inability to get in plenty of early practice they will not enter the Southern Conference meet which will be held in Atlanta on May 30.

The Blue and White frosh team also annexed its first victory this season at the expense of the Wesleyans. The score was 3 to 0. The varsity team will meet its next foe Monday, May 5, when they journey to Cincinnati to meet the St. Xavier team of that city. They will play a return game with the Wesleyan boys here on May 30, and will return the visit of the Wesleyan team on May 17 when they journey to the Clark county metropolis. The meet with St. Xavier will be held on the beautiful Meehan course which is one of the most beautiful and yet most difficult courses in the state of Ohio.

The tournament for the University championship is under way and the first round has been played. In this first round Larmee defeated Maxon and Lusky defeated Hardwick. The Watson-McLane match will be played this week-end. In the second round, which will probably be played next week, Larmee will meet Buskie while Lusky will meet the winner of the Watson-McLane match. Trophies will be given to the winner and runner-up of the championship flight.

The varsity matches and the finals of the University championship match will be held over the Ashland Country Club course. The parings and results of University championship tournament

UNCLE PAT WILL PREPARE HIS WILDCATS FOR TILT WITH ST. XAVIER MONDAY

By BILL LUTHER

Since the Buckeye state has proved the wrong section for Coach Pat Devereux' Wildcat baseball team to win games he brought his charge back to the sunny South Wednesday night, to remain for the rest of the season. After a battle with Johnnie Mauer's frosh aggregation Saturday afternoon the wily Pat will prepare his charges for the invasion of the Saints from St. Xavier May 5, and Cincinnati U. May 12.

Tuesday's loss marked the third out of three attempts north of the Ohio river. The victorious host was the University of Miami team at Oxford who opened the 1930 season for the Wildcats in the Kentucky fair with a 3 to 2 loss.

Before leaving for the second trip into Ohio regions Coach Devereux made a change or two in the lineup with the hopes of bringing the boys out of the slump they immediately dropped back into after the first Vanderbilt engagement. In this game Kentucky bats rapped out an 8 to 4 victory and worries about the ability to gather hits seemed to be over for the Kentucky coach. His anxieties now remained with the infield which has been a bit ragged all season.

Relief pitcher with no mean ability has been revealed in McMurray. This youngster was sent into the second Vandy fray after all was over except the shouting but he pitched as though everything was at stake and stopped the heavy Commodore attack in great style. So far Captain Rhodes has borne the brunt of the mound duties with McBrayer working ably and playing first base. As a pitcher, Mac hasn't been doing so well this season due to a sore arm. At bat, however, he has been feared by the opposing twirlers.

After the St. Xavier and Cincinnati matches that have been held are as follows:
Larmee vs. Maxon—Larmee, 1 up.
Meredith vs. Buskie—Buskie 1 up.
Watson vs. McLane—Not played.
Hardwick vs. Lusky—Lusky, 3 and 2.
Second flight parings as follows:
Gibson, Lewis; Riley, Drake; Hankey, Anderson—Anderson, 2 and 1; Laughlin, Blanton.

University Students Recognize Days Of the Week by Many Peculiar Signs

By Eleanor M. Smith

There is little or no need for the revision of the present calendar system—at least for the students of the University of Kentucky.

The days of the week can be recognized easily by signs peculiar to certain days. The only difficulty encountered is to start the week with the day, Monday.

The next day of the week, granting that one has managed to survive the preceding one, the prevalence of individuals wending their ways across the beaten plot of earth on Euclid avenue and Limestone, towards a favorite eating place.

Wednesday the week is well over for the collegians, and now they are seen to be pouring busily over road maps, or thinking of the weekend to be enjoyed later.

Thursday there is really little activity on the campus, but surrounding roads and lanes are kept "hot" by the friction of automobile tires.

Basement space at McVey hall on Friday is cluttered up by the great mass who either cannot or do not desire to read. This succeeding day, students clean out their mail boxes, discard notices from the deans, Kentucky Progress magazines, vester programs, and copies of the Kentucky Kernel indiscriminately.

University Will Be Host to Farm Clubs For Junior Week

The University is now preparing to be host to 600 farm boys and girls and 4-H club leaders from all parts of Kentucky at the annual Junior week, June 9-14.

Six hundred dollars in cash prizes donated by the Steward Dry Goods Company and the Kosmos Portland Cement Company of Louisville, will be divided among the demonstration teams winners.

Contests in the various counties of the state are being held to select demonstration teams and other outstanding club members to attend Junior week.

Miss McLaughlin to Make European Tour

Miss Marguerite McLaughlin, assistant professor in the Department of Education, has announced that she will personally conduct a private tour to Europe this summer from June 20 to August 26.

The party will sail from New York June 20 on the S. S. Olympic. The special features of the trip include the Passion Play at Oberammergau; mountain excursions over the Alps; and to the summit of the Rigi; motoring around the Bay of Naples; in the Dolomites; in the Bavarian Highlands; and the Thames Valley, and Shakespear country.

In addition to this, the party will spend several days in Paris and will visit many of Italy's beautiful cities. Several days will also be spent in Germany during which time a visit will be made to old Heidelberg, a romantic university town.

There will be an excursion trip to Scotland, the Lake District and Ireland, lasting from August 6 to 17. This party will sail from Cobh on the S. S. Cedric, call one day at Boston and land in New York August 26.

Miss McLaughlin has announced that the party probably will not be completed until the middle of May. About fifteen are expected to make the trip.

Three feet, and it is no longer possible to wade through the debris. Janitors clean the floors and collect the discarded papers, and matters proceed more agreeably.

Here the week ends; neither time nor place are noticed particularly. The remainder of the week, Saturday and Sunday, are private chapters in the lives of the students.

Magazines to Give Annual Prize for Collegiate Novel

Doubliday, Doran and College Humor announce that they will again offer a college novel prize for 1930. This announcement is concurrent with the appearance of the first installment of Betty White's prize-winning novel, "I Lived This Story."

The conditions are much the same as those governing last year's contest. The prize is $3,000 for the best story of American college life written by an undergraduate or not more than one year. It may or may not be an autobiography, but must deal with college life and college people; it must be a story of youth seen through the eyes of its own generation.

The sum of $3,000 covers the following: $1,500 for the right to realize the story in College Humor, $1,500 for book publication rights; $1,000 to apply against royalty, and $500 in addition to all royalties.

Judges of the contest will be the editors of Doubliday, Doran, and College Humor. The contest will close on midnight, October 15, 1930. Both the book and magazine publishers reserve the right to publish in book or serial form, according to the usual terms, any of the novels submitted in the contest.

Boyd to Be Delegate At Meeting of Deans

Convention of Liberal Arts Heads Meets at University of S. D., May 1 and 2

Dean Paul F. Boyd of the College of Arts and Sciences will leave Wednesday for the University of South Dakota, where he will act as official representative of the University of Kentucky at the annual meeting of Liberal Arts Deans of the Mississippi Valley to be held there this year, May 1 and 2.

At this meeting it has been the custom in the past to discuss the problems which arise during the year concerning the Arts and Sciences colleges and to suggest remedies for them. Dean Boyd has been selected by the program committee to talk on the subject, "Extension Work in College."

Representatives from 15 to 20 universities of the middle west are expected to attend. While he is at the University of South Dakota Dean Boyd plans to attend the inauguration of President Herman James, there, May 2. Dr. James was former Dean of Arts and Sciences at the University of Nebraska and is the son of former President James of the University of Illinois. "O h, you base deceiver!" cried the maiden.
"Wrong again," cried the villain, George Boskie. "I'm a tenor."

Emitted (at banquet)—I'm full up to the neck.
George—Right, from your neck up you are empty.

The pictures this week have been unusually good. The outlook for next week is promising but it will be a long time before we see another drama as great as "The Case of Sergeant Grisham."

It is reported that the girls of Hollywood are now wearing monacles. The first co-ed here to effect this touch of ecst will receive a prize from this department.

As a sequel to "In Old Arizona," one of 1929's best, Fox is offering "The Arizona Kid" at the Ben All Sunday Warner Baxter is again featured and Mona Morris is seen in support.

"Table d'Hotel," the fifth and last Guignol play of the current season opens Monday. As this is the first original production to be announced at the campus playhouse the opening should have an added importance.

"Paramount On Parade" opens at the Kentucky tomorrow and, from advance reports, it should capture all honors for a film review. All of Paramount's players, directors, and authors have something to do with the production which is composed of 20 revue scenes many of which are in color.

You can hear all manner of remarks in a theater but the best of the recent crop came from a lady in the State theatre a few days ago who during a quiet moment, cried out: "Where's my toothbrush?"

The Strand will open "This Mad World" (MGM) Sunday. The cast is headed by Kay Johnson, Louise Dresser, and Basil Rathbone and I cannot conceive of a more competent trio of players.

Louisville Alumni Extends Invitation

At a recent meeting of the Louisville Alumni Club, which meets on the second Monday of each month at 6:30 in the dining room of the Brown building, Louisville, the following officers were elected:

Sgt. Eversole: Move that car along.
Co-ed: Don't get fresh, I'm a Delta.
Aforementioned Officer: I don't care if you are a whole Penisula. Move that wreck!

WILLIAM ARBERY

We have decided to admit some of the sources from whence flow our inexhaustible supply of information. Following this worthy resolution we give Evelyn Ford credit for this one.

We took great delight in watching the ed and ette stroll from the post office last Friday. Everyone came out with visages of the most menacing despair and displeasure.

Some enterprising individual with a highly developed sense of humor has been enjoying himself no end during the past week. Several more prominent members of the various fraternities have received phone calls summoning them to mythical meetings of the student council.

After the election of the May Queen the ballot boxes disappeared. The same thing happened after the election of the Prom Queen. We shall withhold all comment for fear of injuring the delicate feelings of either the K. D.'s or the Alpha Gams.

The cleverest business operation we have ever known was used by the Chi Omegas to secure a new radio. Ever since last fall the little girls have been trying the various makes of radios in their own home.

In the language of the vernacular, ladies and gentlemen, the May Queen is not so hot. Everyone knows that the parasitic maiden who holds this high and honorable office should never, never have charming he might be. Her submit to a mere man—no matter how handsome or beautiful—should be mystic and unapproachable and her position should present a chasm which no man might cross.

Any ed or ette who loses as much as two rocks on the races come to believe himself an unparalleled sportsman and henceforth monopolize every conversation with and all phases of racing. We are always strangely unimpressed.

Modest, demure little we will, however, give you the derby winner. Tannery told us the other day that he is in a class by himself and that the other entries will be to him as Centre is to Kentucky.

We are shocked and surprised to see the football captain at a band concert the other night. We knew that everything was all right though when he started beating time with his program on the back of his date's neck.

Evil Kampus Kat to Appear Again Today

The Kampus Kat, which has been growling threateningly for the past few days, will be set free today in one of the May Day festivities, according to its trainer, Al Stoffel. The last time this fierce killer of character escaped the hands of the worthy guards of Sigma Delta Chi the damage was terrific.

The howl that the Humane society has been making over vivisection will be nothing to the one that will go up from that august organization when they discover this bloody Kat, laid so wide open that it exposes all that is going on inside-campus society.

If you want to get the low down on your doll or your prof., approach one of the perfectly innocent appearing vendors, give him the high sign, and he'll slip you the desired packet of dope.

CAMPUS KERNELS

Sunday—Did sleep all day. Then betook myself to that rendezvous of one who I did see the fair MAY QUEEN to be with JIMMY SULLIVAN—they fall for the serpent in the look of MINA NI. Did converse with LOLA COMBS, who gazed prettily at her crooning troubadour. Later did see BETTY POWELL RODES with "Old Faithful" JACK PHIPPS. Just then I did see that second Shakespeare, ANDY HOOVER, breeze by. The night did seem perfect, and the constant lovers did languish under the moon in every avenue. Did see TED CASSIDY and VIRGINIA DOUGHERTY, MAX KERR and DOT GORHAM; ROD KENNEY and LOIS ADAMS; and HAZEL JONES and OBBY JONES Oh, Heavens, Monday—So I was right! JONES and JONES! Shades of ditziness! The night did seem unusual. She is staggering under the load of that pin! Saw LOUIS BICKEL looking fresh as a lily. And BETTY BOARD with a pretty pouting mouth. In the evening went to a show and the day did pass, raining.
