

Copy 2

BULLETIN

INVENTORY: The following note from Circulation:

"That wonderful time of year has rolled around again when the MIK collection is surveyed for mutilated, misshelved or missing items. The Fifth Annual Inventory picnic will meet this Saturday the 18th to inventory the 900's. The Catalog Dept. has been readying the shelf list and coordinators John Watson, Mark Paster, and Trudi Bellardo have been holding training sessions this week for the staff and students who will participate."

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY
LIBRARIES

August 17, 1973 No. 13

---

---

BIOLOGICAL SCIENCES: Dr. Thomas J. Waldhart, the new BS librarian, has received an award from the American Society for Information Science. His dissertation was chosen from among 40 others as being the best submitted for the year in the field of Information Science. Tom will be one of the participants in the Doctoral Forum planned for the annual meeting of ASIS this fall.

PERSONNEL CHANGES: Appointments: Debra Clark, classified, Cataloging; Laura Dickinson, classified, Circulation; Jean Graef, professional, Circulation; Donna Hoffman, classified, Copy Service-Circulation; William Marshall, professional, Special Collections; Antoinette Powell, professional, Agriculture Library; Betty Williams, classified, Acquisitions.

DOORS AND MACHINES: The north entrance to MIK is scheduled to reopen the 20th. For how long, no one is certain. In that same general vicinity, you can once again find the vending machines. They were placed Tuesday and should be in full operation by sometime early next week.

SUBJECT HEADINGS OF THE WEEK: Cross references; Exhibitionism; Nonsense literature, English - 19th century - History and criticism; Orange Order; Street literature - Great Britain; Sun dance.

POSITION OPENINGS: Administrative Services, classified V, open now; Acquisitions, classified V, open now; Reference-Interlibrary Loan, classified V, open 8/20/73.

SPECIAL COLLECTIONS: Mr. William Marshall joins the staff after completing work on his MLS at Kent State. He also has a MA in History from Kent with undergraduate work in history from Heidelberg College. Mr. Marshall has completed three years with the U.S. Army.

AGRICULTURE LIBRARY: Ms. Antoinette Powell is the new professional added to the staff effective later this month. Toni attended Northern Michigan University. She took a BA degree in History and MALS from UK. During her time at UK, she worked as a student assistant in Tech Services for three years greatly increasing her experience. Ms. Powell's husband, David, is the Engineering Supervisor for Channel 18.

CIRCULATION: Ms. Jean Graef has been chosen as the new head of Circulation beginning September 1, 1973. Jean has a BA from Peabody College in English and German and has taken her MLS work from the same institution. During her stay in Nashville, she has accumulated considerable time working in and around the circulation and reserve room areas. Ms. Graef is married and has two children ages 4 and 6.

