Department of Education

A Checklist of Articles in the Educational Bulletin of the Kentucky Department of Education, Volumes 1-40, 1933-1972.

Compiled by John Richardson Jr.

GOV'T PUBS DEPT

INTRODUCTION

Since 1933, the Kentucky State Department of Education has published the Educational Bulletin which contains articles in such areas as guidance services, art education, administrative planning, library service, and standardized testing. At present, however, no annual index nor cumulative listing exists to this valuable material. Realizing the need to make the many excellent titles more accessible to the user, this author has prepared a checklist of all the Educational Bulletins from 1933 through 1972.

A portion of this checklist originally appeared in the Magazine of Library Science published by the University of Kentucky. It was prepared by the staff of the library, it covered the years 1933 through 1972, and it was published in the Magazine of Library Science, Volume 24, Number 1, January 1973.

INTRODUCTION

Since 1933, the Kentucky State Department of Education has published the Educational Bulletin which contains articles in such areas as guidance services, art education, administrative planning, library service, and standardized testing. At present, however, no annual index nor cumulative listing exists to this valuable material. Realizing the need to make the many excellent titles more accessible to the user, this author has prepared a checklist of all the Educational Bulletins from 1933 through 1972.

A portion of this checklist originally appeared as the Margaret I. King Library Occasional Contribution Number 36 from the University of Kentucky. As compiled by the Reference Department staff of the Library, it covered the years 1933 through 1952. Obviously I am indebted to their scrupulous efforts and appreciate permission to quote their work. My predecessor, Elizabeth R. Van Horne, attempted to update the original for the span of years 1952-1962. Although I have relied in part on the work of these other people, further editing has been done and I am responsible for any errors or omissions that may occur.

The checklist is arranged chronologically beginning in 1933 with Volume One, Number One and ending in 1972 with Volume Forty, Number Ten. In the event no bulletin was published in a particular month it is so indicated by "None published." In most cases, revised works are indicated and references are provided referring to the previous editions. In recent years bulletins have been misnumbered but they appear in the checklist in "correct order." The brackets indicate the volume and number as published.

The author is confident that this compilation will encourage further use of these materials for "he who knows where knowledge is, is closest to possessing it." And thus possessing knowledge, help advance the education of the children of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.
