

C. C. Bagby
Attorney at Law
Danville, Ky.

July 24, 1907.

Hon. Samuel M. Wilson, Attorney at Law,
Lexington, Kentucky.

Dear Sam:

Judge Breckinridge and I have been summoned as witnesses in the Powers case. I have arranged to take some depositions in a case next Monday, and it will be very inconvenient for me to attend as a witness. ^{or that day} I presume no witnesses will likely be called on the first day, in any event. I am at a loss to know why we have been summoned, as I do not know anything that would have any bearing on the case. If not asking too much of you, I wish you would drop me a letter, and let me know what is expected to be proven by us. This might save the necessity of our attending Court. In any event, I would like for you to arrange in order that I will not have to attend next Monday, and if possible, so that I will not have to attend for several days, awaiting to be called as a witness.

Kindly advise me at your earliest convenience, and oblige

Yours truly,

C. C. Bagby