Mr. Samuel M. Wilson,

Lexington, Ky.

My Dear Sam:

I note through the papers that you are of Counsel for Caleb Powers. Please accept my hearty congratulations, for you are indeed becoming famed as a great criminal lawyer. The trial is watched here with peculiar interest, I have been asked many times about the Atty in the case.

If you can find time please drop me a few lines in regard to the progress of the trial - the jury and perhaps the judge. I am still having my same old trouble with my eyes. Will go to Cincinnati soon to see a Specialist in the hope that he may help me. With sincere regards and best wishes for your success and happiness I am

Your Friend,
P. M. Gaxtineau
