My Dearest Jim

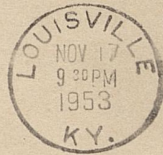

Honey, just a note to let you know congratulations are in order. Betty had a little 6 lb. boy girl at 5:15 A.M. this morning. They named it "Miss Cindy Marie Bender."

Honey I got to run now I am going to the hospital to see Betty and I want to mail this on the way. Betty is doing just fine. She got to the hospital at 3:30 this morning and the baby was born at 5:15 so she wasn't there long.

Honey we got some work to do when you get home.

Love
your future
wife Yanie.

My Dearest Jim,
Hi Honey. I got your letter giving me
heck and I know you're right. It took that letter to wake me up. Honey for once
I want it be that way
any more. I want you to know you are in my thoughts every min.
I go to sleep at night
dreaming about us & every thing. Please don't be mad. I know how you must feel.

Well honey, I'll get off the subject.

I was going out
to your Mom's today
but since the baby is here I'm going to the hospital instead

I got your Dad a couple pair of socks for his birthday.
 I got a blue pair and a brown pair and I want to take them out to him. Better late than never.

Well honey I'll close for now. Honey I wish you get this you'll probably get some more letters with it. But sweetheart it will be the last time of p-r-o-m-i-s-e it will be the last time so far now.

I love you so very very much.

Be good honey.

your future
 wife,
 Janice
