

This House (which is the home of John Jacob Niles, Rev. L. Niles, John Edward Niles
and Thomas Michael Follmer Niles) is believed to be the birthplace of the Anglo-Saxon people which in later times has celebrated the voyages
and cheered the sails
of gallant ancestors
and having cheered
us has gone out from this spot to the ends of the English-speaking world

1007 3400 Farm
September 8, 1948

