Awake, My Soul.

1 Awake, my soul! awake, my tongue!
My God accepts the grateful song;
Let all my inward powers record,
The truth and goodness of the Lord.

2 His mercy with unchanging rays
Forever shines, while time decays:
And children's children shall record,
The truth and goodness of the Lord.

3 While all His works His power proclaim,
Let all the living bless His name,
And let my heart, my life, my tongue,
Attend and join the blissful song.
The spacious firmament on high
With all the blue ethereal sky,
And spangled heav'n, a shining frame,
Their great Original proclaim,

Th' unwearied sun, from day to day,
Doth his creator's power display;

And publishes to ev'ry land
The work of an almighty hand.

I
The spacious firmament on high
With all the blue ethereal sky,
And spangled heavens, a shining frame,
Their great Original proclaim,
Th' unwearied sun, from day to day,
Doth his creator's power display;
And publishes to every land
The work of an almighty hand.
God in Nature.

Soon as the evening shades prevail,
The moon takes up the wondrous tale;
And nightly to the listening earth
Repeats the story of her birth. [burn,
Whilst all the stars which round her
And all the planets in their turn,
Confirm the tidings as they roll,
And spread the truth from pole to pole.

What though in solemn silence all
Moved round this dark terrestrial ball:
What though no voice nor real sound
Amidst their radiant orb be found;
In reason’s ear they all rejoice,
And utter forth a glorious voice:
“For ever singing as they shine—
“The hand that made us is divine.”

No. 3. O Praise the Lord.

(Psalm cxlv.)

Andante.

1. O praise the Lord, and thou, my soul,
   For ever bless His name,
   His wondrous love, while life shall last,
   My constant praise shall claim.

2. On princes, on the sons of men,
   Let none for aid rely;
   They cannot help, they turn to dust,
   And all their counsels die.

3. Then happy He, who Jacob’s God
   For His protector takes;
   Who still with well-placed hope, the Lord
   His constant refuge makes.

4. The Lord who made both heaven and earth,
   And all that they contain,
   Will never fail in steadfast truth,
   Nor make His promise vain.

mf
No. 4.

Praise the Lord.

Moderato.

1. Praise the Lord! ye heavens adore Him, Praise Him, angels in the height;

Sun and moon rejoice before Him; Praise Him all ye stars of light!

Praise the Lord, for He hath spoken; Worlds His mighty voice obeyed;

Laws which never can be broken, For thy guidance He hath made.

---

1. Praise the Lord! ye heavens adore Him,
Praise Him, angels in the height;
Sun and moon rejoice before Him;
Praise Him all ye stars of light!
Praise the Lord, for He hath spoken;
Worlds His mighty voice obeyed;
Laws which never can be broken,
For thy guidance He hath made.

2. Praise the Lord! for He is glorious;
Never shall His promise fail;
God hath made the good victorious,
Sin and wrong shall not prevail.
Praise ye God in ev’ry nation,
Hosts on high His power proclaim;
Heaven and earth and all creation,
Praise and magnify His name.
One God! One Lord! One mighty King! In unity will Judah sing; Transmitting e'er from sire to son, That God, the living God, is One!

Thou Sovereign of the Universe Through ages and all climes diverse, The Jewish child is taught to praise, To lisp Thy name, to walk Thy ways.

To Thee alone, when life recedes, The dying Israelite still pleads; In One allgracious God and guide Hjs fleeting spirit doth confide.
No. 6.

The Sovereign Power.

(PSALM CXLV.)

Maestoso.

I will extol Thee, O my King, Thy holiness proclaim;

And earth with every voice shall sing, The glory of Thy name.

Thy tender mercies brightly shine, Immortal is Thy pow'r;

Thy love a beam-ing ray divine, That lights each passing hour.

1 I will extol Thee, O my King,
   Thy holiness proclaim;
   And earth with every voice shall sing,
   The glory of Thy name.
   Thy tender mercies brightly shine,
   Immortal is Thy power;
   Thy love a beam-ing ray divine,
   That lights each passing hour.
The Sovereign Power.

2 The memory of Thy goodness still Shall grateful hearts pervade;
Thy majesty and glory will Forever be displayed.
The eyes of all shall wait on Thee,
For perfect are Thy ways;
And pious hearts united be,
O, Maker! in Thy praise.

No. 7. Life-Long Praise.

In God the holy, wise and just, From childhood’s tender years,

Have I reposed with perfect trust, My changing hopes and fears.

1 In God the holy, wise and just,
From childhood’s tender years,
Have I reposed with perfect trust,
My changing hopes and fears.

2 From every page that time has turned,
Since that bright season fled,
Some holy lessons have I learned,
Some wholesome moral read.

3 Oh, should my term of life exceed,
Frail man’s allotted days,
Until the last my prayer would plead
For strength, my God to praise.
No. 8. The Sovereign Lord.

mf Cheerful.

Sing to the Sovereign of the skies, To His great name alone.

Let winged words of praise arise, To the Almighty’s throne.

For He hath given His law of light, A radiant star to be.

To guide thine erring steps aright, Make it a law for Thee.

1. Sing to the Sovereign of the skies,
   To His great name alone,
   Let winged words of praise arise
   To the Almighty’s throne.

   For He has given His law of light
   A radiant star to be;
   To guide thine erring steps aright,
   Make it a law for Thee.

The Sovereign Lord.

2 Praise be to Thee, who didst command,
    Thy first-born Israel,
In every clime, in every land,
    Thy living truth to tell.
O may these ever be our guide,
    And bear us safely o'er
Life's dark and swiftly flowing tide,
    Until our days are o'er.

No. 9.  In Temples High.
(Psalm Clix)

\[\text{O praise the Lord! His mighty hand Has formed the azure sky;}\]
\[\text{And spanning over sea and land Made it His temple high.}\]

1 O praise the Lord! His mighty hand
    Has formed the azure sky;
And spanning over sea and land
    Made it His temple high.

2 O laud His works, His love, His grace,
    Let joyful songs abound;
O seek with gleesome songs His face,
    The harp and timbrel sound.

3 And like in firmament above,
    In temples man has reared,
Let praise of God's eternal love
    From thankful hearts be heard.

4 Let all that on this earth do dwell
    Their voices loud upraise
Yea, ev'ry soul sing forth and swell
    The mighty wave of praise.
No. 10.

Grateful Praises.

f Allegretto.

1. Oh holy joy that raises
   Again each praying heart!

Give to the Lord new praises,
Ere from this house we part.

Good seeds have been implanted
In bosoms young and pure;

f

Let growth to them be granted,
O Lord, make them mature!

1 Oh holy joy that raises
   Again each praying heart!
Give to the Lord new praises,
Ere from this house we part;
Good seeds have been implanted
In bosoms young and pure
Let growth to them be granted,
O Lord, make them mature.
Grateful Praises.

2 Oh what a heavenly blessing
   Moves over us this hour!
Oh joy, we are possessing
   A new and holier power.
O Father, make us willing To glorify Thy name
Through deeds of truth fulfilling
   The law Thou didst proclaim.

3 Like shadows, days are flying
   Thou, Lord, wilt e’er endure;
A fountain never drying
   Is Thy word, clear and pure.
To Thee, the bounteous donor
   Of truths that never end,
Shall songs of praise and honor,
   From pious lips ascend.

No. 11.

Allegretto.

Charity.

1. Come, let us sound her praise abroad, Sweet Charity,—the child of God,

Hers, on whose kind maternal breast The sheltered babes of misery rest.

1 Come, let us sound her praise abroad.
   Sweet Charity,—the child of God,
Hers, on whose kind maternal breast
   The sheltered babes of misery rest.

2 Who in her robe the sinner hides
   And soothes and pities, while she chides,
Who bends an ear to every cry,
   And asks no plea but misery.

3 Her tender mercies freely fall
   Like heaven’s refreshing dew on all;
Encircling in their wide embrace
   Her friends, her foes,—the human race.
No. 12.

Constant Praise.

p Andante.

Early will I seek Thee, God my refuge strong; Late prepare to meet Thee with my evening song. Though unto Thy greatness

I with trembling soar, Yet my inmost thinking Lies Thine eyes before.

1 Early will I seek Thee,
   God, my refuge strong;
Late prepare to meet Thee
   With my evening song.
Though unto Thy greatness
   I with trembling soar,
Yet my inmost thinking
   Lies Thine eyes before.

2 What this frail heart dreameth
   And my tongue's poor speech—
Can that even distant
   To Thy greatness reach?
Being great in mercy,
   Thou wilt not despise
Praises which till death's hour
   From my soul shall rise.

Who is like Thee, O Universal Lord!
Who dare Thy praise and glory share?
Who is in heaven, Most High, like Thee adored?
Who can on earth with Thee compare?
Thou art the One true God alone,
And firmly founded is Thy throne.

1 Who is like Thee, O Universal Lord!
Who dare Thy praise and glory share?
Who is in heaven, Most High, like Thee adored?
Who can on earth with Thee compare?
Thou art the One true God alone,
And firmly founded is Thy throne.

2 Thy tender love embraces all mankind,
Thy children all by Thee are blest;
Repentant sinners with Thee mercy find
Thy hand upholdeth the oppressed,
All worlds attest Thy power sublime
Thy glory shines in every clime.
My refuge is the Lord alone, His law—my only creed;

He looketh down from mercy's throne On Judah's faithful seed.

Exalted high Yet ever nigh Is Israel's Rock, the mighty King,

To all who to His glory sing, To all who to His glory sing.

I My refuge is the Lord alone,
His law—my only creed;
He looketh down from mercy's throne
On Judah's faithful seed.
Exalted high
Yet ever nigh
Is Israel's Rock, the mighty King,
|| To all who to His glory sing: ||
Israel's Song.

2 Rejoice, my soul, with holy zeal
   That such a faith is thine;
   That earth and skies the truth reveal,
   Preserved in Jacob's shrine;
   And mark the grace
   In all His ways,
   Of Israel's Rock, the mighty King,
   ||: And Him thy grateful offering bring.:||

No. 15.  God's Universal Sovereignty.

mf Andante con moto.

Sovereign, Lord, whose sceptre reigned
Ere yet time its course began;

Since creation was ordained,
It is guided by His plan.

1 Sovereign Lord, whose sceptre reigned
   Ere yet time its course began;
   Since creation was ordained,
   It is guided by His plan.

2 When all things fade and decline,
   He abides in majesty;
   As He was in power divine,
   Is and will He ever be.

3 No beginning and no end—
   His is rule and victory;
   My redeemer, rock and friend,
   My salvation's guaranty.

4 When my lips the Lord extol,
   I feel safe in every sphere,
   Safe in body and in soul:
   God with me—I have no fear.

17
Eternity of God.

No. 16.

mf Moderato.

Without beginning, without end, Art Thou, O God, o'er time and space;

No finite mind can comprehend Thy being, nor Thy essence trace.

Thou Ruler of the world alone, From everlasting is Thy throne.

1 Without beginning, without end,
Art Thou, O God o'er time and space;
No finite mind can comprehend
Thy being, nor Thy essence trace.
Thou Ruler of the world alone,
From everlasting is Thy throne.

2 Thou wast when dark and formless yet
The universe in chaos lay;
Then, by Thy word, in order set
Were earth and sea and night and day.
Almighty then was Thy decree,
As never it shall cease to be.

3 How wonderful Thy mercy's way,
Though often hidden from our sight!
Yet this remains our staff, our stay,
Our star of hope in darkest night:
Thou orderest all things alone,
And everlasting is Thy throne.

No. 17.  Holiness.

Moderato.

Holy, holy, holy God, Lord, Eternal Zebooth!

Sphere's encircling melody Glorify His throne on high.

Vaster yet than time and space Are His kindness and His grace.

1 Holy, holy, holy God,
   Lord, eternal Zebooth!
Sphere's encircling melody
Glorify His throne on high.
Vaster yet than time and space
Are His kindness and His grace.

2 Glorious is His rule, His might,
   Both in darkness and in light
Which, in the celestial choir
Ceaseless songs of praise inspire.
Hark! from the immortal throng
Sounds the pure and holy song.

3 Everlasting Unity!
   Thine are power and majesty;
Time may change, and aeons roll,
Thine is still the world's control.
As it was in ages past,
So it will through ages last.
No. 18.  The God of Gladness.

mf Andante moderato.

If a mortal man might sing Theme above all mortal wing;

f

If the creatures of the clay With the name of God might play;

If the moulded breath might tell All that stirs the soul's deep well;

mf

I would sing a song of glee, Father of all songs, to Thee,

f

I would sing a song of glee, Father of all songs, to Thee.
The God of Gladness.

If a mortal man might sing
Theme above all mortal wing,
If the creatures of the clay
With the name of God might play;
If the moulded breath might tell
All that stirs the soul's deep well;
||: I would sing a song of glee,
Father of all songs, to Thee. ||

What Thou art no tongue may say;
I remember I am clay,
Scarcely knowing brother man,
Shall I venture God to scan?
From within and from without
Full of dream and full of doubt,
||: Feeling only lent from Thee.
This glad being, God of glee. ||

Pious Resignation.

Arise to praise the Lord,
Awake, my slumbering soul,
Strike deep the stirring chord,
Thy Maker to exalt.
For He preserved thy life
When darkness closed around,
'Midst dangers ever rife,
He was thy refuge found.

He is thy rock, thy shield
And will not fail to be;
What off'ring canst thou yield
For so much love to thee?
If but sincere thy gift,
It will His favor find,
Thy heart to Him uplift,
And be to Him resigned.

If my tongue must lisp its lay,
I will speak what best I may;
I will say, Thou art my soul,
Weaving wisely through the whole;
I will say Thou art a power
Working good from hour to hour;
||: I will say, Thou art to me
Light and life, and love and glee. ||

Thou art each and Thou art all
In creation's living hall;
Every breathing shape of beauty,
Every solemn voice of duty,
'Every high and lowly mood,
All that's great, and all that's good;
||: All is echo sent from Thee
God of gladness, God of glee. ||
1. Come, my soul, thou must be waking!
   Now is breaking
   O'er the earth another day.
   Come to Him who made this splendor,
   See, thou render
   All thy feeble strength can pay.

2. Pray that He may prosper ever
   Each endeavor,
   When thine aim is good and true;
   But that He may ever charge thee
   And convert thee
   When thou evil wouldst pursue.
No. 21.

Faith in God.

Allegretto.

There lives a God! Each finite creature Proclaims His rule on sea and land;
Throughout all changing forms of nature Is clearly shown His mighty hand.
In every place is heard the call: "The Lord of Hosts has made us all."

1 There lives a God! Each finite creature
   Proclaims His rule on sea and land;
   Throughout all changing forms of nature
   Is clearly shown His mighty hand.
   In every place is heard the call:
   "The Lord of Hosts has made us all."

2 There lives a God! Though storms are sweeping Across our pilgrim paths of life;
   More bright the morn that ends the weeping
   Through nights of elemental strife.
   Wherever God does chose my way—
   I follow Him without dismay.

3 There lives a God! When life is waning—
   His love is near from dread to save;
   My years are all of His ordaining,
   He only taketh what He gave.
   The grave shall not my end all be—
   Thou livest, God, I live in Thee.

23
No. 22. God is in His Holy Temple.

(Psalm xi, 4.)

Andante sostenuto.

God is in His holy temple, Earthly thought, be silent now,

While with reverence we assemble, And before His presence bow.

He is with us, now and ever, When we call upon His name,

Aiding every good endeavor, Guiding every upward aim.

1 God is in His holy temple,
   Earthly thoughts, be silent now,
   While with reverence we assemble,
   And before His presence bow.
   He is with us, now and ever,
   When we call upon His name,
   Aiding every good endeavor,
   Guiding every upward aim.
God is in His Holy Temple.

2 God is in His holy temple,
   In the pure and holy mind;
   In the reverent heart and simple;
   In the soul from sense refined:
Banish then each base emotion,
Lift us up, O Lord, to Thee
Let our souls in pure devotion
Temples for Thy worship be.

No. 22.  God is in His Holy Temple.

SECOND TUNE.  (Psalm XL, 4.)

\[mf\] Allegro maestoso.

God is in His holy temple, Earthly thoughts, be silent now,

While with reverence we assemble, And before His presence bow.

He is with us, now and ever, When we call upon His name,

Aiding every good endeavor, Guiding every upward aim.

No. 23. In Unity With God and Man.

\[ mf \text{ Andante.} \]

Eternal Ruler of the ceaseless round Of circling planets

\[ mf \]

Sing-ing on their way; Guide of the na-tions from the night profound In to the glo-ry of the per-fect day; Rule in our hearts that

\[ f \text{ dim.} \]

We may ev-er be Guid-ed and strengthened and up-held by Thee.

1 Eternal Ruler of the ceaseless round
   Of circling planets singing on their way;
Guide of the nations from the night profound
   Into the glory of the perfect day;
Rule in our hearts that we may ever be Guided and strengthened and upheld by Thee.
In Unity With God and Man.

2 We would be one in hatred of all wrong,
   One in our love of all things sweet and fair,
   One with the joy that breaketh into song,
   One with the grief that trembles into prayer,
   One in the power that makes Thy children free
   To follow truth and thus to follow Thee.

3 Oh, clothe us with Thy heavenly armor, Lord!
   Thy trusty shield, Thy word of love divine;
   Our inspiration be Thy constant word,
   We ask no victories that are not Thine;
   Give or withhold, let pain or pleasure be.
   Enough to know that we are serving Thee.

No. 24.

Yearning For God.
(Psalm Lxxxiv.)

mf Moderato.

How love-ly are Thy dwellings fair, O Lord of Hosts, how dear

The pleas-ant tab-er-na-cles are Where Thou dost dwell so near.

1 How lovely are Thy dwellings fair,
   O Lord of Hosts, how dear
   The pleasant tabernacles are.
   Where Thou dost dwell so near.

2 My soul doth long, yea, even faint
   Thy courts, O Lord, to see;
   My heart and flesh are crying out,
   O living God, for Thee.

3 Behold, the sparrow findeth out
   A house wherein to rest;
   The swallow also for herself
   Hath found a peaceful nest.

4 Blest all who dwell within Thy house;
   They ever give Thee praise;
   And blest the man whose strength Thou art,
   Who faithful loves Thy ways.
Be still, be still, for all around,
On either side is holy ground;
Here in this house, the Lord today
Will listen while His children pray.

1 Be still! be still! for all around
On either hand is holy ground;
Here in this house, the Lord to-day
Will listen while his children pray.

2 Thou tossed upon the waves of care,
In fear to sink with deep despair;
Here ask relief with heart sincere
And Thou shalt find that God is near.

3 If Thou hast dear ones far away,
In foreign lands, 'mid oceans' spray,
Now pray for them, and dry the tear,
And trust to God who listens here.

4 If thou art mourning o'er thy sin,
Deploring guilt that reigns within;
The God of peace does lend His ear
The troubled spirit meets Him here.
1 How blest are they, whose lives are pure
   And upright in the way;
   Who in the Lord's most holy law
   Do walk and do not stray.

2 O blest are they, who to observe
   His statutes are inclined,
   And who do seek the living God
   With all their heart and mind.

3 O that Thy statutes to observe
   Thou wouldst my way direct;
   Then shall I not be stained, when I
   Thy precepts all respect.

4 Upon Thy statutes my delight
   Shall constantly be set,
   And by Thy grace I never will
   Thy holy law forget.
No. 27.  The Thought of God.
(Psalm LXXIV, 25.)

One thought I have my ample creed, How deep it is and broad,
And equal to my every need—It is the thought of God.

1 One thought I have my ample creed,
   How deep it is and broad,
   And equal to my every need—
   It is the thought of God.

2 Each morn unfolds some fresh surprise,
   I feast at life’s full board;
   And rising in my inner skies
   Shines forth the thought of God.

3 At night my gladness is my prayer;
   I drop my daily load,
   And every care is pillowed there
   Upon the thought of God.

4 To this their sacred strength they owed
   The martyr’s path who trod;
   The fountain of their patience flowed
   From out their thought of God.

5 Be still the light upon my way,
   My pilgrim staff and rod,
   My rest by night, my strength by day
   O blessed thought of God.

30
Thou Lord of Life.

1 Thou Lord, of life! whose tender care
   Has led us on till now,
   We in this quiet hour of prayer
   Before Thy presence bow.

2 Thou blessed God hast been our guide
   Through life, our guard and friend.
   O, still, on life's uncertain tide
   Preserve us to the end.

3 To Thee our watchful praise we bring
   For mercies day by day;
   Lord, teach our hearts Thy love to sing,
   Lord, teach us how to pray.
Eternal One.

Eternal One, the living God, Whom changing years unchanged reveal, With Thee their way our fathers trod; The hand they held, in ours we feel!

1 Eternal One, the living God,
   Whom changing years unchanged reveal,
   With Thee their way our fathers trod;
   The hand they held, in ours we feel!

2 The same our trust, the same our need,
   In sorrow's stress, in duty's hour;
   We keep their faith, as well as creed,
   That faith the fount of all our power.

3 We praise Thee for the growing light,
   Th'advancing thought, the widening view,
   The larger freedom, clearer sight,
   As through the old unfolds the new.

4 With wider view, come higher goal!
   With broader light, more good to see!
   With freedom, truer self-control!
   With knowledge, deeper reverence be!
Eternal One.

5 Anew we pledge ourselves to Thee,
   To follow where Thy truth shall lead,
   That truth alone can make us free;
   Who goes with God is safe indeed!

Moderato.

When Samuel heard in still mid-night A voice amid God's presence bright,

He rose and said on bended knee "Speak, Lord, Thy servant heareth Thee."

1 When Samuel heard in still midnight
   A voice amid God's presence bright,
   He rose and said on bended knee
   "Speak, Lord, Thy servant heareth Thee."

2 E'en such a voice I too may hear,
   E'en such a light my soul may cheer;
   For wisdom's words by God were given,
   And reason is a ray of heaven.

3 Then will I feed this sacred fire,
   For wisdom's precept still inquire;
   Still pray from pride and folly free;
   "Speak, Lord, Thy servant heareth Thee."

4 His voice shall drown the hum of men
   And echo from the deep again,
   Where'er He is my prayer shall be;
   "Speak, Lord, Thy servant heareth Thee."
Our Shepherd is the Lord,
And we the flock He leadeth;
His earth with beauty stored,
Yields all that mankind needeth.

Is there a thirsting heart?
His staff to waters leads it;
To soothe its aching smart
With joy and light He feeds it.

1 Our Shepherd is the Lord,
   And we the flock He leadeth;
His earth with beauty stored,
   Yields all that mankind needeth.
Is there a thirsting heart?
   His staff to waters leads it;
To soothe its aching smart,
   With joy and light He feeds it.
Our Shepherd is the Lord.

2 Through night of death and fear
   We pass without dismay,
   His light refulgent shines
   To guard us on our way;
   His arm grants victory,
   Dispenses joy and bliss,
   And trusting in His help
   We cannot step amiss.

3 Thus happy is our lot
   Within this earthly sphere,
   While heaven's blessings smile
   In richness far and near.
   God decks our life with gifts
   Of His abundant grace,
   Until eternal rest
   Completes our pilgrim race.

No. 32.

Divine Omnipotence.

The Lord is great, and boundless is His might, His will no creature can withstand;

He is enthroned in never changing light, The world is governed by His hand.

1 The Lord is great, and boundless is His might,
   His will no creature can withstand;
   He is enthroned in never changing light,
   The world is governed by His hand.

2 The Lord is kind, proclaims each morning's beam,
   A ray of love from heaven shed;
   The Lord is love, declares the blossom's gleam,
   By quickening, glowing dew drops fed.

3 The Lord is wise, the starry skies declare
   Where everlasting order reigns!
   Why, then, should I in darkest hour despair?
   His guardian hand for aye remains.
Lord of might and Lord of glory,

Humbly do I bow before Thee; With my whole heart

I adore Thee, Listen to my prayer, O Lord!

1 Lord of might and Lord of glory,
Humbly do I bow before Thee;
With my whole heart I adore Thee,
Listen to my prayer, O Lord!

2 Passions proud and fierce have ruled me,
Fancies light and vain have fooled me,
But Thy training stern hath schooled me;
Take me for Thy child, O Lord!
For Direction.

3 In the deed that no man knoweth,
   Where no praiseful trumpet bloweth,
   Where he may not reap who soweth,
   Let my heart serve Thee, O Lord!

4 In the work that no gold payeth,
   Where he speedeth best who prayeth,
   Doeth most who little sayeth,
   Let me work Thy will, O Lord!

No. 34.

Before Parting.

Moderato.

Now as the parting hour is nigh, In our last song, with glad refrain

To God on earth and in the sky We lift both voice and heart again.

1 Now as the parting hour is nigh,
   In our last song, with glad refrain
   To God on earth and in the sky
   We lift both voice and heart again.

2 Soon may that blessed morn arise,
   When o'er the earth from East to West,
   Thy light shall flood the earth, the skies,
   And all mankind in Thee be blest.

No. 35.

Before Parting.

1 To God whose mercies never end,
   Our overflowing thanks we pour:
   Whose light and truth through earth extend,
   Whose goodness is forevermore.

2 Then let our hearts and lips unite
   To chant our thanks in choral lays,
   As we in gratitude recite
   O Lord, Thy everlasting praise.

Evening.

Moderato.

Again, as evening shadow falls, We gather in these hallowed walls; And evening hymn and evening prayer Rise mingling on the silent air.

1 Again, as evening shadow falls,
   We gather in these hallowed walls;
   And evening hymn and evening prayer
   Rise mingling on the silent air.

2 May struggling hearts that seek release
   Here find the rest of God's own peace;
   And, strengthened here by hymn and prayer,
   Lay down the burden and the care!

3 O God, our light! to Thee we bow,
   Within all shadows standest Thou:
   Give deeper calm than night can bring,
   Give sweeter songs than lips can sing.

4 Life's tumult we must meet again,
   We cannot at Thy shrine remain;
   But in the spirit's secret cell
   May hymn and prayer forever dwell
No. 37.  The Jew's Prayer,

mf Andante.

In what-so-e'er my people sinned, I’ll share Most willingly the burden that they bear, And raise my arms in pray'r to none but Thee,

Who else would be so merciful to me? Yea, e'en though for my faith I suffer death, To serve Thee I'll not cease while I draw breath.

1 In whatsoe'er my people sinned I'll share
Most willingly the burden that they bear,
And raise my arms in prayer to none but Thee,
Who else would be so merciful to me?
Yea, e'en though for my faith I suffer death,
To serve Thee I'll not cease while I draw breath.
2 Oh, give me strength to hold to Thee for aye!
   To let me touch Thy garment’s hem, I pray;
   And though Thy dreaded judgments may draw near,
   Submissive to Thy will, I have no fear.
   I’ll keep Thy covenant unbroken, Lord,
   Most dear and precious is to me Thy word.

3 Thou who so high hast raised me by Thy love,
   My eyes look upward to Thy realms above;
   Thou art my strength, on Thee will I rely,
   And serve Thee till the moment that I die;
   Thy service I have made my chosen part.
   O God! instil Thy grace into my heart.

No. 38.

The World, God’s Temple.

f Moderato.

Our God! where’er Thy children meet
There may they see Thy mercy-seat;

Wher’er they seek Thee, Thou art found,
And ev’ry place is holy ground.

1 Our God! where’er Thy children meet
There may they see Thy mercy-seat;
Where’er they seek Thee, Thou art found,
And every place is holy ground.

2 For Thou within no walls confined,
Inhabitest the humble mind;
Such ever bring Thee, where they come,
And going take to Thee their home.

3 Here may we prove the power of prayer
To strengthen faith, and sweeten care,
To teach our faint desires to rise
And bring all heaven before our eyes.
O Lord of Hosts, exalted high! How far art Thou and yet so nigh!

And if my life be but a dream Still of Thy light it is a beam.

Though suns and stars may pass away—With Thee is everlasting day.

1 O Lord of Hosts, exalted high!
How far art Thou and yet so nigh!
And if my life be but a dream
Still of Thy light it is a beam.
Though suns and stars may pass away—
With Thee is everlasting day.
The hosts above, the worlds below
Thy sovereign might with joy avow.
Supplication.

2 And should not I sound forth Thy praise,
Since I Thy handiwork can trace?
Should I not glorify Thy name,
So clearly writ in signs of flame?
And if I stammer what I feel
And overawed before Thee kneel—
Yet will my song not rise in vain
Heart offering wilt Thou not disdain

No. 40. Prayer.

When I pour out my soul in prayer, Do Thou, O Lord, attend;
To Thy eternal throne of grace Let my sad cry ascend.

1 When I pour out my soul in prayer,
Do Thou, O Lord, attend;
To thy eternal throne of grace
Let my sad cry ascend.

2 Oft, hide not Thou Thy gracious face
In times of deep distress;
Incline Thine ear, and, when I call,
My sorrows soon redress.

3 My days, just hastening to their end,
Are like an evening shade;
My vigor does like withered grass,
With waning lustre fade.

4 But Thine eternal state, O Lord,
No length of time shall waste;
The memory of Thy wondrous works
From age to age shall last.
No. 41.  Father, to Thee we Look.

(Psalms xxx.)

_ Grave._

Father, to Thee we look in all our sorrow, Thou art the fountain whence our healing flows, Dark though the night, joy

cometh with the morrow; Safely they rest who in Thy love repose.

1 Father, to Thee we look in all our sorrow,
Thou art the fountain whence our healing flows,
Dark though the night, joy cometh with the morrow;
Safely they rest who in Thy love repose.

2 Naught shall affright us on Thy goodness leaning,
Low in the heart faith singeth still her song;
Chastened by pains we learn life’s deeper meaning,
And in our weakness Thou dost make us strong.

3 Patient, O heart, though heavy be thy sorrows!
Be not cast down, disquieted in vain;
Yet shalt thou praise Him when these darkened furrows,
Where now he plougheth, wave with golden grain.
No. 42.  As Pants the Hart.
(Psalm xlii.)

mf Andante.

As pants the hart for cooling streams When heated in the chase, So longs my soul for Thee, O God, And Thy refreshing grace.

1 As pants the hart for cooling streams
   When heated in the chase,
   So longs my soul for Thee, O God,
   And Thy refreshing grace.

2 For Thee, my God, the living God,
   My thirsting soul doth pine;
   Oh, when shall I behold Thy face,
   Thy majesty divine!

3 Why restless, why cast down, my soul?
   Trust God who will employ
   His aid for Thee, and change these sighs
   To thankful hymns of joy.

4 Why restless, why cast down, my soul,
   Hope still and Thou shalt sing
   The praise of Him who is Thy Lord,
   Thy health's eternal spring.
O Lord, my God, to Thee I pray
For knowledge and for light,
That from Thy path I may not stray
When darkness veils my sight.
For Thee I yearn, I deeply long,
Be Thou my guide ere I chose wrong,
So that my will be firm and just,
My heart upheld with constant trust.

1 O Lord, my God, to Thee I pray
   For knowledge and for light,
That from Thy path I may not stray
When darkness veils my sight.
For Thee I yearn, I deeply long,
Be Thou my guide ere I chose wrong,
So that my will be firm and just,
My heart upheld with constant trust.
2 O shed Thy light into my soul
That I may understand
To reach my being's happy goal
Directed by Thy hand.
Each duty be my soul's delight,
My courage true to do the right
In weal and woe, in joy and pain,
May faith and hope my heart sustain.

No. 44.    Regard my Words.

mf Andante con moto.

Regard my words, O gracious Lord, Accept my secret prayer;

To Thee alone, my King, my God, Will I for help repair.

1 Regard my words, O gracious Lord,
Accept my secret prayer;
To Thee alone, my King, my God,
Will I for help repair.

2 Thou in the morn my voice shalt hear;
And, with the dawning day,
To Thee devoutly I'll look up,
To Thee devoutly pray.

3 To righteous men, the righteous Lord
His blessings will extend:
And in His love, His pious sons
As with a shield defend.
No. 45.

The King of Glory,
(Psalm xxiv 7-10.)

mf Andante moderato.

O bless the souls, forever blest, Where God as sovereign is confess!
O happy hearts, the blessed homes To which the Lord in glory comes.

1 O bless the souls, forever blest,
   Where God as sovereign is confess!
   O happy hearts, the blessed homes
   To which the King in glory comes.

2 Ope wide Thy portals, O my heart!
   Be thou a temple set apart;
   So shall Thy Sovereign enter in,
   And new and nobler life begin.

3 Deliv'rer, come! we open wide
   Our hearts to thee; here, Lord, abide!
   Let all Thy sacred presence feel;
   O King of souls! Thyself reveal.

48
To Thee, my God, whose presence fills
The earth, the sea, the skies,
To Thee whose name, whose heart is love,
With all my powers I rise.

1 To Thee, my God, whose presence fills
The earth, the sea, the skies,
To Thee, whose name, whose heart is love.
With all my powers I rise.

2 To Thee, my God, alone I look,
In Thee alone confide;
Thou never dost forsake a soul
That on Thy grace relied.

3 Though oft Thy ways are wrapt in clouds,
Mysterious and unknown,
Truth, righteousness and mercy stand
As pillars of Thy throne.
No. 47.  Prayer for the Night.

Moderato.

Now God be with us, for the night is closing, The light and darkness are of His disposing; And 'neath His shadow here to rest we yield us, For He will shield us......

1 Now God be with us, for the night is closing,
The light and darkness are of His disposing;
And 'neath His shadow here to rest we yield us,
For He will shield us.

2 Let evil thoughts and passions flee before us;
Till morning cometh, watch, O Father, o'er us,
In soul and body Thou from harm defend us,
Thy mercy send us.

3 Let pious thoughts be ours when sleep o'ertakes us,
Our earliest thoughts be Thine when morning wakes us;
All sick and mourners, we to Thee commend them;
Do Thou, befriend them.

4 We have no refuge, none on earth to aid us,
But Thee, O Father, who Thine own hast made us;
Keep us in life; forgive our sins, deliver
Us now and ever.
The Peace of God.

mf Andantino.

O Father, lift our souls above, Till we find rest in Thy dear love;

And still that peace divine impart Which sanctifies the inmost heart,

And makes each morn and setting sun But bring us nearer to Thy throne.

1 O Father, lift our souls above,
Till we find rest in Thy dear love;
And still that peace divine impart
Which sanctifies the inmost heart,
And makes each morn and setting sun
But bring us nearer to Thy throne.

2 Help us with man in peace to live,
Our brother's wrong in love forgive,
And day and night temptation flee,
Through strength which comes alone from Thee,
Thus will our spirits find their rest,
In Thy deep peace, forever blest.
1  Hear, Father, hear our prayer!
   Thou who art pity where sorrow prevaleth,
   Thou who art safety when mortal help faileth,
   Strength to the feeble and hope to despair,
   Hear, Father, hear our prayer!

2  Hear, Father, hear our prayer!
   Wandering alone in the land of the stranger,
   Be with all travelers in sickness and danger,
   Guard Thou their path, guide their feet from the snare,
   Hear, Father, hear our prayer!
Hear, Father.

3 Hear Thou the poor that cry!
Help us to help them and lighten their sorrow,
Grant them the sunshine of hope for the morrow;
They are Thy children; their trust is on high,
Hear Thou the poor that cry!

4 Dry Thou the mourner's tear!
Bind up the wounds of time-hallowed affection;
Grant to the widow and orphan protection;
Be in their trouble a friend ever near;
Dry Thou the mourner's tear!

No. 50. Evening Sacrifice.

f Moderato.

And now, O Lord, my God, or ere This day in sleep forgotten be,

Its dying breath must rise in prayer, And bear my latest thoughts to Thee.

1 And now, O Lord, my God, or ere
This day in sleep forgotten be,
Its dying breath must rise in prayer,
And bear my latest thoughts to Thee.

2 The loved ones, those I hold so dear,
Be pleased, O Lord, to guard and keep;
To all their hearts this night draw near,
And tend and bless them while they sleep.

3 On eyes that weep, on hearts that bleed,
May all Thy richest blessing fall;
I ask Thy help for all who need,
And asking this I pray for all.

4 And if to morn in safety brought,
Grant that sweet breathings pure and true,
May rest on each awakening thought,
As on fresh flowers the early dew.
Hear Our Prayer.

mf Andante con moto.

Hear our prayer, protecting power, Be propitious as we call;

Be our guardian, be our tower, Guide our footsteps lest we fall.

Not for vain things let us yearn, Only that thy grace we earn.

1 Hear our prayer, protecting power,
Be propitious as we call;
Be our guardian, be our tower,
Guide our footsteps lest we fall.
Not for vain things let us yearn,
Only that thy grace we earn.

2 Father, bend our inclinations,
That to Thee we may be true;
And in concord with all nations
Still and glad our way pursue,
Till Thy praise from every part
Rise to Thee as from one heart.

54
Thy faithful servant, Lord, doth yearn
For Thy consoling grace,—Spread over him its healing wing, His guilt do Thou efface.

1 Thy faithful servant, Lord, doth yearn
   For Thy consoling grace,—
   Spread over him its healing wing,
   His guilt do Thou efface.

2 Were not Thy word; Turn back from sin
   And I will turn to Thee,—
   I, like a helmsman in the storm,
   Would, helpless, face the sea.

3 To Thy despondent servant show
   The path of penitence;
   He striveth painfully for words
   To tell, how he repents.

4 Oh, let my penitence to-day
   My own soul's surety be;
   Contrite I vow to serve Thee well;
   Be merciful to me!
No. 53. Morning Invocation.

Moderato.

Once more the daylight shines abroad, O let us all now praise the Lord Whose grace and mercy
thus have kept The nightly watch while we have slept.

1 Once more the daylight shines abroad,
Oh, let us all now praise the Lord
Whose grace and mercy thus have kept
The nightly watch while we have slept.

2 To Him let us together pray
With all our heart and soul to-day,
That He shall keep us in His love
And all our guilt and sin remove.

3 Eternal God! our loving friend,
Whose deep compassion has no end,
Oh, send Thy light our way before
And be our guardian evermore.

4 We offer up ourselves to Thee,
That heart and word and deed may be
In all things guided by Thy mind,
And in Thine eyes acceptance find.
1 Write Thy law upon my heart,
   Inwardly abiding;
Make it of my life a part,
Still my footsteps guiding.
Till I in Thy courts appear,
And to fall, no longer fear.

2 Pour Thy life into my soul
   Which, with strong awaking,
Urges onward to the goal
Till that day is breaking,
When to will, to do, to see
One unbroken bliss shall be.
No. 55.  For Spiritual Strength.

mf Andante.

1. O Lord, to whom the heart's desires lie bare, Ere yet expressed in supplanting prayer, Grant me but this and gladly will I die, That Thou to me Thy grace wilt not deny! Keep in Thy hand my life until its close, And sweet I'll slumber in my soul's repose.

O Lord, to whom the heart's desires lie bare,
Ere yet expressed in supplanting prayer,
Grant me but this and gladly will I die,
That Thou to me Thy grace wilt not deny!
Keep in Thy hand my life until its close,
And sweet I'll slumber in my soul's repose.
For Spiritual Strength.

2 Swayed by the impetus of youth till now,
When may my conscience its own strength avow?
The worldliness that dwells within my heart
Has kept me from my longed-for goal apart,
How can I, living, truly love the Lord,
I, slave of passion and of sin abhorred?

3 'Tis death in life Thy standard to desert,
'Tis life in death Thy power to assert.
Yet passeth me, how I Thy grace shall gain,
How prove my faith, Thy service how attain?
Lead me, O Lord, upon Thy tranquil way,
Deliver me from folly's tempting sway.

Our shelter from the stormy blast, And our eternal home.

1 O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.

2 Before the hills in order stood
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the same.

3 Beneath the shadow of Thy throne
Thy children dwell secure;
Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure.

4 Our God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home.

1 Maker of all things! God most high! Great Ruler of the starry sky! Who, robing day with beauteous light, Hath clothed in soft repose the night.

2 That sleep may wearied limbs restore, And fit for toil and use once more; May gently soothe the careworn breast, And lull our anxious griefs to rest.

3 We thank Thee for the day that’s gone, We pray Thee, now the night comes on: To Thee our rapt affections soar, And Thee our chastened souls adore.

4 And while the parting beams of day In evenings shadow fade away; Let faith no ’wilderling darkness know, But night with Thy effulgence glow.

Each broken heart and spirit sad—
Pour on this mourning soul Thy cheer
Give me Thy healing word to hear!

O Lord, Be Gracious.

2 All nations shall, O Lord, confess
Thy never-ending glory,
Acknowledging Thy righteousness,

No. 60. Living Altars.

Lord of all being! throned afar,
Thy glory flames from sun and star;

Centre and soul of ev'ry sphere,
Yet to each loving heart so near.

1 Lord of all being! throned afar
Thy glory flames from sun and star;
Centre and soul of ev'ry sphere,
Yet to each loving heart so near.

2 Sun of our life, Thy quickening ray
Sheds on our paths the glow of day;
Star of our hope, Thy softened light
Cheers the long watches of the night.

3 Lord of all life, below, above,
Whose light is truth, whose warmth is love,
Before Thy ever-blessing throne
We ask no lustre of our own.

4 Grant us Thy truth to make us free,
And kindling hearts that burn for Thee,
Till all Thy living altars claim
One holy light, one heav'ny flame.

Prayer for Wisdom.

Almighty God, in humble prayer To Thee our souls we lift; Do Thou our waiting minds prepare For Thy most needful gift.

1 Almighty God, in humble prayer
   To Thee our souls we lift;
   Do Thou our waiting minds prepare
   For Thy most needful gift.

2 We ask, that if Thou grantest wealth
   Our alms may richly flow,
   And that we may, in years of health
   Good works in plenty sow.

3 We ask not honors, which the hour
   May bring and take away;
   We ask not pleasure, pomp or power
   Lest we should go astray.

4 We ask for wisdom; Lord, impart
   The knowledge how to live;
   A wise and understanding heart
   To all before Thee give.

Prayer for Peace.

Moderato.

O God of love, O King of peace, Make wars throughout the world to cease; The wrath of sinful man restrain; Give peace, O God, give peace again.

1 O God of love, O King of peace,
Make wars throughout the world to cease;
The wrath of sinful man restrain;
Give peace, O God, give peace again.

2 Remember, Lord, Thy works of old,
The wonders that our fathers told;
Remember not our sin's dark stain;
Give peace, O God, give peace again.

3 Whom shall we trust, but Thee, O Lord?
Where rest but on Thy faithful word?
None ever called on Thee in vain;
Give peace, O God, give peace again.
Unveil mine eyes that of Thy law
The wonders I may see;
I am a wand’rer on this earth—
Hide not Thy face from me.

1 Unveil mine eyes that of Thy law
   The wonders I may see;
   I am a wand’rer on this earth—
   Hide not Thy face from me.

2 I of the perfect way of truth
   My choice have freely made,
   Thy judgments, which most righteous are,
   Before me I have laid.

3 In loving kindness let my prayer
   And cry be heard by Thee;
   According to Thy promise, Lord,
   Revive and quicken me.

4 Great peace have they who love Thy law,
   Offence they shall have none;
   I hope for Thy salvation Lord,
   When Thy command I’ve done.
Aspiration.

1 One and universal Father,
Here in rev'rent thought we gather
Seeking light in honoring Thee;
Free our souls from error's fetter;
Make us wiser, make us better;
Be our guide, our guardian be!

2 For the truths of life to win us,
Thou, O God, didst plant within us
Aspirations high and bright;
Bring us to Thy presence nearer,
Let us see Thy glories clearer,
When all mists shall melt in light.
Trust in God.

May our children still revere Thee;
So Thy work shall hasten on
Till assembled worlds shall hear Thee.

No. 66. Our Guiding Star.

Courage brother, do not stumble, Though thy path be dark as night;

There's a star to guide the humble;—"Trust in God and do the right."

1 Courage brother, do not stumble,
Though the path be dark as night;
There's a star to guide the humble;
"Trust in God and do the right."

2 Let the road be rough and dreary
And its end far out of sight,
Fight it bravely! strong, or weary,
"Trust in God and do the right."

3 Perish policy and cunning!
Perish all that fears the light!
Whether losing, whether winning—
"Trust in God and do the right."

4 Simple rule and safest guiding,
Inward peace and inward might,
Star upon our path abiding
"Trust in God and do the right."
No. 67.  The Covenant of God.

mf Moderato motto.

God hath giv'n His promise true—And His word is surety—

That no cause shall e'er undo His paternal loyalty.

Hence no fear can us appal, Although earth and heaven fall;

God will not His promise break, Nor His covenant forsake.

1 God has given His promise true—
And His word is surety—
That no cause shall e'er undo
His paternal loyalty.
Hence no fear can us appal,
Although earth and heaven fall;
God will not His promise break,

2 Therefore, rest content my heart,
Trust in God, whose guiding light
Bids all doubt from thee depart
In affliction's gloomy night.
Stand ye firm and undismayed,
Who on God rely for aid;
In His love and faith so pure
We for ever feel secure.

Israel's Calling.

   Renewed the barren ground—
   Rich harvest decks the land,
   And plenty smiles around.
Thanksgiving.

2 Praise ye the Lord, proclaim His might,
   Who made our fathers free,
   Who gave to us a heavenly light
   The sun of liberty.
   A prosperous people hails
   Its bright and genial ray,
   And golden peace prevails
   Wide o'er the land to-day.

3 Then let your hymns of thanks ascend,
   To the Almighty's throne,
   To whom in gratitude we bend,
   Who reigned supreme alone.
   Of His great mercies tell,
   Whom earth and heaven adore,
   Let hallelujahs swell
   His praise for evermore.

No. 76. Give Thanks to God.

Moderato.

Great God, my joyful thanks to Thee Shall, like Thy gifts, continual be;

In constant streams Thy bounty flows, Nor end nor intermission knows.

1 Great God! my joyful thanks to Thee
   Shall, like Thy gifts, continual be;
   In constant streams Thy bounty flows,
   Nor end nor intermission knows.

2 Thy kindness all my comforts gives;
   My numerous wants Thy hand relieves;
   Nor can I ever, Lord, be poor,
   Who live on Thy exhaustless store.

3 If what I wish Thy will denies,
   It is that Thou art good and wise;
   Troubles which might me cause to mourn
   Thou canst, Thou dost, to blessings turn.

4 Deep, Lord, upon my thankful breast
   Let all Thy favors be impressed;
   And though withdrawn Thy gifts should be,
   In all things I'll give thanks to Thee.
Now thank we all our God,
With hearts and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done,
In whom this world rejoices;
Who from our mother’s arms
Hath blessed us on our way,
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours to-day.
Now Thank We All Our God.

2 Oh, may this bounteous God
Through all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts
And blessed peace to cheer us,
And keep us in his grace,
And guide us when perplexed,
And keep us safe from ill,
In this life till the next.

\[ \text{The rolling seasons, as they move, Proclaim Thy constant care.} \]

1 Fountain of life, and God of love!
   How rich Thy bounties are!
The rolling seasons, as they move,
   Proclaim Thy constant care.

2 When in the bosom of the earth
   The sower hid the grain,
Thy goodness marked its secret birth,
   And sent the early rain.

3 The spring's sweet influence, Lord, was Thine,
   Its mild, refreshing showers;
Thou gav'st the ripening suns to shine,
   And summer's golden hours.

4 Thy quickening life, forever near,
   Matured the swelling grain;
The bounteous harvest crowns the year,
   And plenty fills the plain.

5 With thankful hearts we trace Thy way
   Through all our smiling vales;
Thou, by whose love, nor night nor day
   Seed-time nor harvest fails!
We thank Thee, Lord, we thank Thee, Lord, For all the garnered riches we have stored, The ripened fruit that generous autumn yields From sunny fields, from sunny fields.

1 We thank Thee, Lord, we thank Thee, Lord, For all the garnered riches we have stored, The ripened fruit that generous autumn yields From sunny fields, from sunny fields.

2 In many lines, in many lines, Sustained upon earth’s bosom, fed by dews, And ripened in the sunlight waves the grain O’er hill and plain, o’er hill and plain.

3 And patient toil, and patient toil, Which sowed the seed upon the fertile soil, And watched and tended through the summer days Thy name does praise, Thy name does praise.

4 Thy gifts sustain, Thy gifts sustain, The body’s need, but poverty and pain Oft minister to higher wants than those The spirit knows, the spirit knows.

5 Then come what will, then come what will, Prosperity or failure, good or ill, Unknown or understood, still be adored Thy ways, O Lord! Thy ways, O Lord!

1 How precious are Thy thoughts of peace,
   O God! to me, how great their sum!
   New every morn they never cease;
   They were, they are, and yet shall come;
   In numbers and in compass more
   Than ocean’s sand on ocean’s shore.

2 How from Thy presence should I go,
   Or whither from Thy spirit flee?
Since all above, around, below,
   Exists in Thine eternity,
   I feel Thine all-controlling will,
   And Thy right hand upholds me still.

3 Search me, O God, and know my heart;
   Try me, my secret soul survey;
   And warn Thy servant to depart
   From every false and evil way.
   So shall Thy truth my guidance be
   To life and immortality.

2 O solemn thought! O solemn thought!
Do I not know that I am naught?
Yet more than all this vast world's fame,
Since I can ask, from where it came;
May find its maker and adore—
Nor sink despairing by the shore.

3 O solemn thought! O solemn thought!
To reach thy depth yet vainly sought!
Fill me with awe of man and God,
Be Thou my guiding chastening rod,
To my true self bring me so near
That I the voice of God may hear.

No. 76.  God's Counsel Unsearchable.

1 Wait, O my soul! thy Maker's will;
Tumultuous passions, all be still;
Nor let one murm'ring thought arise;
His ways are just, His counsels wise.

2 In heaven and earth, in air and seas,
He executes His wise decrees;
This know alone and be at rest,—
That what He does is ever best.

3 Then, wait, my soul submissive wait;
With reverence bow before His feet;
Though paths of pain thou oft hast trod,
Trust in a wise and gracious God.
Remember Him, the Only One, Now ere the years flow by;
Now, while the smile is on thy lip, The light within thine eye.
Now, ere for thee the sun has lost His glory and his light;
Or earth rejoice thee not with flow'rs, Nor with its stars the night.

2 Now, while thou lovest all on earth,
   And deemest all will last,
Before thy hope has vanished quite,
   And every joy has past,—
Remember Him, the Only One,

When thou shalt have no joy in them,

For sorrow, bitter though it be, Hath blessings all its own:

1 Oh, deem not that earth's crowning bliss
   Is found in joy alone,
For sorrow, bitter though it be,
   Hath blessings all its own.
2 As blossoms smitten by the rain
   Their sweetest odors yield;
As where the plough-share deepest strikes,
   Rich harvests crown the field,—
3 So to the hopes by sorrow crushed
   A nobler faith succeeds;
And life, by trials furrowed, bears
   The fruit of loving deeds.
4 Who never mourned, hath never known
   What treasures grief reveals:
The sympathies that humanize,
   The tenderness that heals,
5 The power to look within the veil
   And learn the heavenly lore,
The keyword to life's mysteries,
   So dark to us before.
6 How rich and sweet and full of strength
   Our human spirits are,
Instructed in the sanctities
   Of suffering and of prayer!

1 Haste not! haste not! do not rest!
   Bind the motto to thy breast;
   Bear it with thee as a spell;
   Storm or sunshine, guard it well!
   || Haste not flowers that 'round thee bloom,
   Bear it onward to the tomb. ||

2 Haste not! let no thoughtless deed
   Mar for aye the spirit's speed;
   Ponder well and know the right,
   Onward then with all thy might,
   || Haste not, years can ne'er atone
   For one reckless action done. ||

3 Rest not! life is sweeping by,
   Go and dare before you die;
   Something mighty and sublime
   Leave behind to conquer time!
   || Grand it is to live for aye
   When these forms have passed away. ||

4 Haste not! rest not! calmly wait;
   Meekly bear the storms of fate!
   Duty be the polar guide,
   Do the right whate'er betide!
   || Haste not! rest not! conflicts past,

1 It singeth low in every heart,
   We heard it each and all,—
   A song of those who answer not,
   However we may call.
They throng the silence of the breast,
   We see them as of yore,—
   The kind, the brave, the true, the sweet,
   Though they are here no more.

2 'Tis hard to take the burden up,
   When these have laid it down;
They brightened all the joy of life,
   They softened every frown;
But, oh! 'tis good to think of them
   When we are troubled sore;
Thanks be to God that such have been,
   Though they are here no more.

3 More home-like seems the vast unknown,
   Since they have entered there;
To follow them were not so hard,
   Wherever they may fare.
They cannot be where God is not,
   On any sea or shore
Whate'er betides, Thy love abides,
   Our God forevermore.

1 Speak gently of the erring one
   And let us not forget,
   However darkly stained by sin,
   He is our brother yet.
   Heir of the same inheritance,
   Child of the selfsame God;
   He has but stumbled in the path,
   We have in weakness trod.

2 Speak gently to the erring one,
   Thou yet may'st lead him back
   With holy words and tones of love
   From misery's thorny track.
   Forget not, thou hast often sinned,
   And sinful yet must be:
   Deal gently with the erring one
   As God has dealt with thee.

Weep, weep for him, the man of God! In yonder vale he sank to rest, But none on earth can point the sod That flowers above his sacred breast.

1 Weep, weep for him, the man of God,
   In yonder vale he sank to rest,
   But none on earth can point the sod
   That flowers above his sacred breast.

2 His doctrine fell like heaven's rain,
   His word refined like heaven's dew—
   O ne'er shall Israel see again
   A chief to God and her so true.

3 Remember ye his parting gaze,
   His farewell song by Jordan's tide,
   When full of glory and of days
   He saw the promised land and died.

4 Yet died he not as men who sink
   Before our eyes to soulless clay,
   But changed the spirit like a wink—
   Of summer-lightening passed away.

To weary hearts, to mourning homes, God's meekest angel gently comes,
No pow'r hath he to banish pain, Or give to us our lost again;
And yet, in tenderest love, our dear And heav'nly Father sends him here.

1 To weary hearts, to mourning homes
   God's meekest angel gently comes,
   No power hath he to banish pain,
   Or give to us our lost again;
   And yet, in tenderest love, our dear
   And heavenly Father sends him here.

2 There's quiet in that angel's glance,
   There's rest in his still countenance;
   He mocks no grief with idle cheer,
   Nor wounds with words the mourner's ear;
   But ills and woes, he may not cure,
   He kindly trains us to endure.

3 Thou patience's angel! sent to calm
   Our feverish brows with cooling balm,
   To lay the storms of hope and fear,
   And reconcile life's smile and tear,
   The throbs of wounded pride to still,
   And make our own our Father's will!

4 O thou who mournest on the way
   With longings for the close of day,
   He walks with thee, that angel kind
   And gently whispers "Be resigned!"
   Bear up, bear on, the end shall tell,
   That God doth order all things well.
Men! whose boast it is, that ye
Come of fathers, brave and free,

If there breathe on earth a slave, Are ye truly free and brave?

If you do not feel the chain When it works a brother's pain,

Are ye not base slaves indeed, Slaves unworthy to be freed?

True Freedom.

Are ye not base slaves indeed, Slaves unworthy to be freed?

1 Men! whose boast it is, that ye
Come of fathers, brave and free,
If there breathe on earth a slave,
Are ye truly free and brave?
If you do not feel the chain
When it works a brother’s pain,
Are ye not base slaves indeed,
Slaves unworthy to be freed?

2 Is true freedom but to break
Fetters for our own dear sake?
And with heathen hearts forget
That we owe mankind a debt?
No! true freedom is to share
All the chains our brothers wear,
And with heart and hand to be
Earnest to make others free.

3 They are slaves who fear to speak
For the fallen and the meek;
They are slaves, who will not choose
Hatred, scoffing and abuse.
Rather than in silence shrink
From the truth they needs must think;
They are slaves, who dare not be
In the right with two or three.

   Once more we meet to praise and pray;
   Once more a peace, a holy calm
   Descends upon our hearts like balm.

   No shadow fell across their way;
   And to their lives, how doubly blest
   The quiet of this day of rest.

   Comes with thee, most blest of days,
Comfort thou all hearts that sigh,
   Pledge of heaven’s covenant-grace.

3 Sabbath-peace, oh let thy calm
   Bring its healing on its wing,
And the sweetness of thy balm
   Make all hearts in gladness sing!
1. Come, O Sabbath day, and bring
   Peace and healing on Thy wing,
   And to every troubled breast
   Speak of the divine behest!
   Thou shalt rest!

   Quench our passions hurtful fire:
   To the wayward, sin-oppressed
   Bring Thou Thy divine behest:

Banish care, and silence fear;
All things working for the best
Teach us the divine behest;

1. Come, O Sabbath day and bring Peace and healing on Thy wing, And to ev'ry troubled breast
Speak of Thy divine behest; Thou shalt rest! Thou shalt rest!

   Our thoughts from earth withdraw;

   Each voice in gladness raises
   Its loudest, sweetest lay.

1 With joy, O Lord, we hail this day,
Which Thou didst call Thine own;
With joy the summons we obey,
To worship at Thy throne.

2 O grant us peace in heart and home,
And every soul unite
To thank Thee for the day that’s blest
And keep it with delight.

3 We trust, O God, when life is o’er
Thy mercy will endure,
And Thou to us eternal rest
Hereafter wilt secure.
1 To Thee, above all creatures' gaze,
   To Thee, whom earth and heaven praise,
   Whose ever watchful Providence
   Proves daily Thine omnipotence—
   To Thee our thanks in chorus rise.

2 Thou didst redeem the captive band,
   Who were enslaved by tyrant's hand;
   Their cries were heard, their groans were stilled,
   Their yearning hopes at last fulfilled,
   And Freedom dawned on Israel.
To Thee Above all Creatures' Gaze.

3 O God, Thy children recognize
With grateful hearts this precious prize;
Thy people at this holy shrine
Proclaim aloud Thy power divine:

Mad'st the proclamation,
Warning loud every proud,
Every tyrant nation,
We, Thy fame still proclaim,
Bend in adoration.

3 Be with all, who in thrall
To their task are driven;
In Thy power speed the hour
When their chains are riven;
Earth around will resound
Gleeful hymns to heaven.
The sullen ice has crept from many fields;
The conflict, though so turbulent is past;
Again the spring its wealth of verdure yields,
The probing sun has conquered cold at last.

The longed-for resurrection of its charms,
Each bud, prophetic type of freedom's birth,
A conquest each o'er winter's dread alarms.
The Hope of Nations.

3 And all the sunny joys, till now concealed,
   Are emblems bright of freedom’s blessed morn,
When Israel’s rescue first that truth revealed;
   “To free and equal rights all men are born!”

4 Then let our festival to all proclaim
   Who yearn for liberty’s enkindling sun,
And let the nations join the glad acclaim:
   “Our God is One—humanity is one!”

Cannot endure Thy test—
How, then, can we approach Thy sight,
Who are by sin opprest.

3 We cannot hide our trespasses
   Cannot our deeds rescind;
With contrite heart we must confess:
   “Our father, we have sinned!”
O God, Thy pardon we implore,
Thou know’st that we are frail;
Refresh us from Thy mercy’s store
Uplift us, when we fail.

1 Into the tomb of ages past
Another year has now been cast;
Shall time unheeded take its flight,
Nor leave one ray of higher light,
||: That on man's pilgrim-age may shine
And lead his soul to spheres divine? :||

2 With firm resolves your bosoms nerve,
The God of right alone to serve;
Speech, thought and act to regulate,
By what His perfect laws dictate;
||: Nor from His holy precepts stray,
By worldly idols lured away. :||

Into the Tomb of Ages Past.

3 Peace to the house of Israel!
May joy within it ever dwell!
May sorrow on the opening year,
Forgetting its accustomed tear,
|| With smiles again fond kindred meet,
With hopes revived, the festal greet! ||

No. 102.
Forgiveness.
(Atonement.)

\[f\] Moderato.

1 God of mercy, God of love,
Hear our true repentant songs:
Listen to the suppliant ones,
Thou, to whom all grace belongs.

2 Deep our shame for follies past,
Talent wasted, time misspent,
Hearts absorbed in worldly cares,
Thankless for the blessings lent.

3 Foolish fears and proud desires,
Vain regrets for things as vain,
Lips too seldom taught to praise,
Oft to murmur and complain.

4 These and every secret fault,
Filled with grief and shame we own:
Humbled at Thy feet we bow,
Seeking strength from Thee alone.

5 God of mercy, God of love,
Hear our true repentant songs,
Oh, receive Thy suppliant ones,
Thou, to whom all grace belongs.

To Thee we give ourselves today, For getful of the world outside, We tarry in Thy house, O God! From even-tide to even-tide. From Thy all-searching, righteous eye Our
To Thee We Give.

1 To Thee we give ourselves to-day,
   Forgetful of the world outside,
   We tarry in Thy house, O God,
   From eventide to eventide.

2 From Thine all-searching righteous eye
   Our deepest heart can nothing hide;
   It crieth out for Thee, for peace
   From eventide to eventide.

3 Who could endure shouldst Thou, O God,
   As we deserve, for ever chide;
   We therefore seek Thy pardoning grace
   From eventide to eventide.

4 O, may we lay to heart how swift
   The years of life do onward glide;
   And learn to live that we may see
   Thy light at our own eventide.
p Moderato molto.

In peace with all the world we live, Nor let our angry passions burn,

But when we suffer we'll forgive, And good for evil we'll return.

And we'll forgive and we'll forget, And conquer ev'ry sullen word,

Unkindness shall with love be met, And evil overcome with good.

In peace with all the world we live,
Nor let our angry passions burn,
But when we suffer we'll forgive,
And good for evil we'll return.
And we'll forgive and we'll forget,
And conquer every sullen word,
Unkindness shall with love be met,
And evil overcome with good.
In Peace with All the World.

2 It is not pride, it is not strife,
    No bitter thoughts, nor angry deeds,
Which gild with joy the days of life,
    Resentment still to sorrow leads.
When love shall triumph, love alone
    Within our hearts shall ever reign;
Our foes subdued, its power shall own
    And once loved friends be friends again.

No. 105. Give Forth Thine Earnest Cry.

(Atonement.)

1 Give forth thine earnest cry,
    O conscience, voice of God!
To young and old, to low and high,
    Proclaim His will abroad.

2 Within the human breast
    The strong monitions plead,
Still thunder Thy divine protest
    Against th' unrighteous deed.

3 Show the true way of peace
    O Thou, our guiding light!
From bondage of the wrong release
    To service of the right.
No. 106.  The Sun Goes Down.

(Atonement.)

Andante.

The sun goes down, the shadows rise,  The day of God is near its close;

The glowing orb now homeward flies,  A gentle breeze foretells repose.

Lord, crown our work before the night:  In the eve let there be light.

1 The sun goes down, the shadows rise,
   The day of God is near its close,
   The glowing orb now homeward flies,
   A gentle breeze foretells repose.
   Lord, crown our work before the night:
   In the eve let there be light.

2 While still in clouds the sun delays,
   Let us soar up, soar up to heaven;
   That love may shed its peaceful rays;
   New hope unto our souls be given.
   Oh, may the parting hour be bright:
   In the eve let there be light.

3 And when our sun of life retreats,
   When evening shadows 'round us hover,
   Our restless heart no longer beats,
   And graveward sinks our earthly cover,
   We shall behold a glorious sight:
   In the eve there shall be light.
No. 107.

Rock of Ages.

(Chanucah.)

Maestoso.

Rock of Ages, let our song Praise Thy saving power;

Thou, amidst the raging foes, Wast our shelt’ring tower.

Furious they assailed us, But Thine arm availed us,

And Thy word Broke their sword, When our own strength failed us.

1 Rock of Ages, let our song
Praise Thy saving power;
Thou amidst the raging foes,
Wast our shelt’ring tower.
Furious they assailed us,
But Thine arm availed us,
And Thy word
Broke their sword
When our own strength failed us.
Rock of Ages.

2 Kindling new the holy lamps,
    Priests approved in suffering,
Purified the nation’s shrine,
    Brought to God their offering.
And His courts surrounding Hear, in joy abounding
    Happy throngs
Singing songs
With a mighty sounding.

3 Children of the Martyr-race,
    Whether free or fettered,
Wake the echoes of the songs
Where ye may be scattered.
Yours the message cheering
That the time is nearing
Which will see
    All men free,
Tyrants disappearing.

No. 108. The Mighty Deeds.

(Chanucah.)

1 Let children hear the mighty deeds,
    Which God performed of old,
Which in our younger years we saw,
    And which our Father’s told.

2 He bids us make His glories known,
    His work of power and grace!
So we’ll convey His wonders down
    Through every rising race.

3 Our lips shall tell them to our sons,
    And they again to theirs,
That generations yet unborn
    May teach them to their heirs.

4 Thus shall they learn in God alone
    Their hope securely stands,
That they may ne’er forget His works
    And practice His commands.

118
My country! ’tis of thee, Sweet land of liberty, Of thee I sing; Land, where my father’s died! Land of the pilgrim’s pride, From ev’ry mountain side, Let freedom ring!

1 My country! ’tis of thee, Sweet land of liberty, Of thee I sing; Land, where my father’s died! Land of the pilgrim’s pride, From every mountain side, Let freedom ring!

2 My native country! thee,— Land of the noble, free,— Thy name—I love; I love thy rocks and rills, Thy woods and templed hills; My heart with rapture thrills Like that above.

3 Let music swell the breeze, And ring from all the trees, Sweet freedom’s song: Let mortal tongue awake; Let all that breathe partake; Let rocks their silence break,— The sound prolong.

4 Our fathers’ God! to Thee, Author of liberty; To Thee we sing: Long may our land be bright, With freedom’s holy light; Protect us, by Thy might, Great God, our King!
O beautiful, my country!
Be thine a nobler care,
Than all the wealth of commerce,
Thy harvest waving fair;
Be it thy pride to lift up
The manhood of the poor;
Be thou to the oppressed
Fair Freedom's open door.

O beautiful, my country!
Be thine a nobler care,
Than all thy wealth of commerce.
Thy harvest waving fair;
Be it thy pride to lift up
The manhood of the poor;
Be thou to the oppressed
Fair Freedom's open door.
Our Country.

2 For thee our fathers suffered,
   For thee they toiled and prayed;
Upon thy holy altar
   Their willing lives they laid.
Thou hast no common birthright,
   Grand mem’ries on thee shine;
The blood of pilgrim nations
   Commingled flows in thine.

3 O beautiful, our country!
   Round thee in love we draw;
Thine is the grace of freedom,
   The majesty of law.
Be righteousness thy sceptre,
   And justice diadem:
And on thy shining forehead
   Be peace the crowning gem.

No. 111.

Dedication.

f Allegro Maestoso.

O Thou, whose own vast temple stands
   Built over earth and sea,
Accept the walls that human hands
   Have raised to worship Thee!

1 O Thou, whose own vast temple stands
   Built over earth and sea,
Accept the walls that human hands
   Have raised to worship Thee!

2 Lord, from Thine inmost glory send,
   Within these courts to bide,
The peace that dwelleth, without end,
   Serenely by Thy side.

3 May erring minds that worship here
   Be taught the better way;
And they who mourn, and they who fear,
   Be strengthened as they pray.

4 May faith grow firm, and love grow warm,
   And pure devotion rise,
While round these hallowed walls the storm
   Of earth-born passion dies.

121
Like purest azure brightness
God's saving power appears
When freedom shines on faces
Bedimmed with bondage tears.
When fall the chains,
And justice reigns,
In equal laws to bind
And bless the human kind.

   Bedimmed with bondage tears.
   When fall the chains,

Freedom.

2 Unfurl thy banners, Freedom,
   Thou blessing from on high!
Proclaim Thy Father's kingdom
   To brothers far and nigh.
   All men unite
   In heaven's sight,
   That over vale and hill
   May rule His sovereign will.

3 O Freedom speed thy heralds
   To sound their mighty peal!
That fetters broke asunder
   And wounded spirits heal.
   Let nations sing:
   The Lord is King!
He broke the tyrant's sword
   By His almighty word.

1 In mercy, Lord, incline Thine ear
   To Zion's faithful band;
In love and grace our prayer hear,
   Reveal Thy mighty hand.

2 Reveal once more celestial light
   O'er Salem's holy tents,
Dispel the clouds and end the night,
   Let truth pervade all lands.

3 To truth be laid this corner-stone,
   Be reared these massive walls;
To Thee, Most High and only One,
   Be arched these sacred halls.

4 Pour down Thy grace in sunny rays,
   Let Judah's temple be
The house of praise to teach Thy ways,
   Devoted, Lord, to Thee.

124
This Day's Sentences.

2 Let us hold our lines not only,—
    Hear the order to advance!
Grasp the shield of faith not only,—
    Lift on high truth's flaming lance.
Fight for every hope that's human,
    Fight to shatter every chain,
Fight till every man and woman
    Owneth heart and soul and brain.

3 By the ancient's long endeavor
    By the Honorables fame,
By our race and by our country,
    By each high and noble name,
By the God of Hosts who leads us
    By the future's dawning light,
Swear to stand and swear to struggle
    Till earth's might shall mean its right.

No. 115. Decoration Day.

mf Grave.

We remember ye, O brave ones Who for truth and country bled,

And, though with us here no longer, Still we cannot think ye dead.

1 We remember ye, O brave ones
    Who for truth and country bled,
And, though with us here no longer,
    Still we cannot think ye dead.

2 Ye are living though the grasses
    Green above your graves may be:
Ye are living in the glory
    Of a people that is free;

3 Ye are living in the comrades
    That your faith and valor knew;
Ye shall live in all the future,
    While to right brave men are true.

4 For no deed heroic faileth
    Ever from the hearts of men:
Each new year it springeth upward,
    Young with endless life again.
Decoration Day.

With fragrant flowers we decorate their graves,
Who met in battle or in prison pen,
A fruitful death; who broke the chains of slaves,
And crushed the might of proud and cruel men.

1 With fragrant flowers we decorate their graves,
Who met in battle or in prison pen,
A fruitful death; who broke the chains of slaves
And crushed the might of proud and cruel men.
Decoration Day.

2 They broke the chains with tears of bondage wet,
    And gave their brave young lives for you and me;
For, where the slave endures, it is a threat
    Against the precious freedom of the free.

3 The sun of liberty dispels the dew,
    The tears, the night, and shines on near and far;
But, where it only lights the selfish few,
    It scars and blights, and sinks in clouds of war.

4 'Tis fragrant gratitude we scatter o'er
    The graves of them that died for you and me:
Their names, their dust, their memories once more,
    O liberty, we consecrate to thee!

No. 117. Calmly, Calmly.

1 Calmly, calmly, lay him down!
    He has fought a noble fight;
He has battled for the right;
    He has won a fadeless crown.

2 Mem'ries all too bright for tears,
    Crowd around us from the past;
He was faithful to the last,—
    Faithful through long toilsome years.

3 All that makes for human good
    Freedom, righteousness and truth,
These the objects of his youth,
    Unto age he still pursued.

4 Kind and gentle was his soul,
    Yet it had a glorious might;
Clouded minds it filled with light,
    Wounded spirits it made whole.

5 Hoping, trusting, lay him down!
    Many in the realms above
Look for him with eyes of love,
    Wreathing him immortal crown.

Round Thy altars, O most High!
Happier souls that find a rest
On their heavenly Father’s breast!
Like the wandering dove that found
No repose on earth around,
They can to their ark repair,

2 Happy souls! their praises flow
In Thy pleasant courts below;
Waters in the desert rise,
Manna feeds them from the skies;
On they go from strength to strength
They Thy presence feel at length,
Thou who ledst them safe through all,

My God, how endless is Thy love!
Thy gifts are every evening new,
And morning mercies from above,
Gently distill like early dew.

2 Thou spread’st the curtains of the night,
Great guardian of my sleeping hours,
Thy sovereign word restores the light,
And quickens all my drowsy powers.

To Thee I consecrate my days;
Perpetual blessings from Thy hand
Demand perpetual songs of praise.

By heaven and earth adored,
Our prayer attend!
Come and Thy children bless,
Give Thy good word success;
Make Thine own holiness

Rule Thou in every heart
Hence evermore!
Thy sovereign majesty
May we in glory see,
And to eternity
Love and adore.

1 Thou, who art enthroned above,
Thou by whom we live and move!
Oh, how sweet, with joyful tongue,
To resound Thy praise in song.
When the morning paints the skies,
When the sparkling stars arise,
All Thy favors to rehearse,
And give thanks in grateful verse.

2 From Thy works our joys arise,
O Thou only good and wise!
Who Thy wonders can declare?
How profound Thy counsels are!
Warm our hearts with sacred fire,
Grateful favors still inspire;
All our powers, with all their might,
Ever in Thy praise unite.
Praise the Lord, when blushing morn-ing  Wakes the blossoms fresh with dew,
Praise Him when re-vived cre-a-tion  Beams with beau-ties fair and new.

1 Praise the Lord, when blushing morning
Wakes the blossoms fresh with dew,
Praise Him when revived creation
Beams with beauties fair and new.

2 Praise the Lord, when early breezes
Come so fragrant from the flowers,
Praise thou, willow by the brookside,
Praise, ye birds among the bowers.

3 Praise the Lord, and may His blessing
Guide us in the way of truth,
Keep our feet from paths of error,
Make us holy in our youth.

Praise to God, im-mor-tal praise, For the love that crowns our days;
Grateful Praises.

1 Praise to God, immortal praise,
For the love that crowns our days;
Bounteous source of every joy,
Let Thy praise our tongues employ;
For the blessings of the field,
For the stores the gardens yield,
For the joy which harvests bring,
Grateful praises now we sing.

2 All that spring with beauteous hand
Scatters o'er the smiling land,
All that liberal autumn pours
From her overflowing stores,
These, great God, to Thee we owe,
Source, whence all our blessings flow;
And for these our souls shall raise
Grateful vows and solemn praise.
No. 9.  The Lord my Pasture Shall Prepare.

The Lord my pasture shall prepare,

And feed me with a shepherd's care;

His presence shall my wants supply,

And guard me with a watchful eye;

1 The Lord my pasture shall prepare,
   And feed me with a shepherd's care;
   His presence shall my wants supply,
   And guard me with a watchful eye;
   My noon-day walks He shall attend,
   And all my midnight hours defend.

2 When in the sultry glebe I faint
   Or in the thirsty mountain pant,
   To fertile vales and dewy meads
   My weary, wandering steps He leads,
   Where peaceful rivers soft and slow,
   Amid the verdant landscape flow.

3 Though in the paths of death I tread,
   With gloomy horrors overspread.
   My steadfast heart shall fear no ill,
   For Thou, O Lord, art with me still.
   Thy rod and staff shall give me aid,
   And guide me through the dismal shade.

1 How happy is he born or taught
Who serveth not another's will;
Whose armor is his honest thought,
And simple truth his highest skill;
Whose passions not his masters are,
Whose soul is still prepared for death;
Not tied unto this world with care
Of public fame or private breath.

2 Who God does late and early pray,
More of His grace than goods to lend,
And walks with man from day to day,
As with a brother and a friend!
This man is freed from servile hands,
Of hopes to rise, or fears to fall,
Lord of himself, though not of lands,
And having nothing, yet has all.

   But as brothers united throughout our broad land,
   And the star spangled banner forever shall wave,
   O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

3 O thus be it e'er when freemen shall stand
   Between their loved homes and the war's desolation;
   Blessed with victory and peace, may the heaven rescued land

By flowers sweet and gay enhanced is the charming sight,

64

GLORY, honor, praise, and power,
Be unto God for ever.
Praise to Thee, Thou great Creator,
   Praise be Thine from every tongue.
Young and old, Thy praise expressing,
Worship, honor, glory, blessing,
   Laud Thy Name in joyful song.

Praise the Lord! ye heavens, adore Him,
Sun and moon, rejoice before Him,
   Praise Him, all ye stars and light.
Praise His mercy, His salvation,
Heaven and earth ev'ry nation, and all creation,
   Praise Him, angels in the height.

As the stars in heav'n adore Thee,
As Thine angels bow before Thee,
   And extol Thy boundless love:
We, Thy servants, lowly bending,
Pray Thee, let Thy grace, descending,
   Fit us for the realms above.

Let the realms of all creation
Praise the God of every nation,
   For the hope of future joy;
Sound His praise through earth and heaven
For ten thousand blessings given,
   Sound Jehovah's praise on high.
Hear my prayer, O God, incline Thine ear,
Thyself from my petition do not hide,
Take heed to me; hear how in prayer I mourn to Thee;
Without Thee all is dark; I have no guide.

The enemy shouteth—the godless come fast;
Iniquity, hatred upon me they cast.
The wicked oppress me—ah, where shall I fly?
Perplexed and bewildered, O God, hear my cry!

My heart is sorely pained within my breast,
My soul with deathly terror is oppressed.
Trembling and fearfulness upon me fall.
With horror overwhelmed, Lord, hear me call!

O for the wings of a dove!
Far away, far away would I rove;
In the wilderness build me a nest,
And remain there for ever at rest.

How lovely are Thy dwellings fair,
O Lord of Hosts! how dear
The pleasant tabernacles are
Where Thou doest dwell so near.

My soul doth long, yea, even faint
Thy courts, O Lord, to see;
My heart and flesh are crying out,
O living God, for Thee.

Behold, the sparrow findeth out
A house wherein to rest;
The swallow also for herself
Hath found a peaceful nest.
Blest all who dwell within Thy house,
They ever give Thee praise;
And bless the man whose strength Thou art,
In whose heart are Thy ways.

67

To God be praise who reigns on high,
Let all on earth adore Him.
His children we, our Father He,
Let us rejoice before Him.

Up to His heavenly dwelling bright
With heart and soul ascending,
We’ll sing to Him who thrones in light
And glory never ending.

68

The heavens are declaring the Lord’s endless glory,
Through all the earth His praise is found;
The seas re-echo the marvelous story,
O man, repeat that glorious sound.

The starry host, He orders and measures,
He fills the morning’s golden springs;
He wakes the sun from his night curtained slumber,
Oh! man, adore the King of kings.

What power and splendor and wisdom and order,
In nature’s mighty plan unrolled!
Through space and time to infinity’s border,
What wonders vast and manifold!

The earth is His, and the heavens o’er it bending
The Maker in His works behold!
He is and will be through ages unending
A God of strength and love untold.

69

(Ps. XXIII.)

The King of Love my shepherd is,
Whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am His,
And He is mine forever.
Where streams of living waters flow,
  My peaceful soul He leadeth,
And where the verdant pastures grow,
  With food celestial feedeth.

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
  But yet in love He sought me;
And on His shoulder gently laid,
  And home rejoicing brought me.

In death’s dark vale I fear no ill,
  With Thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
  A light before to guide me.

And so through all the length of days,
  Thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise
  For ever and for ever.

70

Oh! Thou whose pow’r tremendous
  Upholds the starry sky,
Thy grace preserving send us
  To Thee, O Lord, we cry.

From wilds of fearful error,
  Wherein we darkly stray,
Oppress’d with doubt and terror,
  For saving aid we pray,

Oh, God of mercy, hear us,
  Our pains, our sorrow see,
Thy healing pity spare us,
  And bring us home to Thee.

71

The Lord is great, when in the tempest peal
  His voice resounds with mighty force.
And in their tracks the orbs of heaven reel,
  And earth is quivering in her course.
The Lord is kind, when in the morning's beam
    His radiant love on earth is shed
And fragrant vernal blossoms blandly gleam
    By quick'ning sparkling dewdrops fed.

The Lord is great, His might the heavens declare
    He reigns supreme below, above:
The Lord is kind. He listens to my prayer
    And guides His child in gracious love.

72

Let there be light!
Such was the first supreme command.
Ere God divided sea and land,
And starless night encompassed all.
The heavenly word,
Reverberating through all space was heard:
    Let there be light!
It is our holy mission still
To guard the light as heaven's will.
    To keep it bright
A radiant beam which all may clearly see,
The path that leads to immortality.
Here in this house will He reveal
    Eternal light!
A beacon flame to guide aright,
Still here and now, as in the days of yore,
In sacred splendor shining evermore,
    Let there be light!

73

Shades of eve are falling,
Father be ever near us,
Keep us, O Father, till shall dawn the morning
With danger draught the night draws nigh.
O hear us, we implore Thee,
We cry to Thee for aid.
With mourning, lamenting, we turn to Thee in contrition.
For Thou art evermore a present help to comfort us.
Then hear us, O hear us,
See us lowly bending before Thy throne, O Father,
Most merciful, most gracious, full of compassion.
Be with us now and evermore. Shades of eve are falling,
Father be ever near us.
Keep us safely through the night. Amen.

74

Here as the night is falling,
Stars from the shadows calling,
Lord, to Thy shelter flying
Raise we an evening prayer.
Only on Thee relying,
Make us this night Thy care.

While all unconscious sleeping,
Have us, O have us in Thy keeping!
Father graciously hear us,
Kindly our strength renew.
Thus for the morrow prepare us,
O Lord, prepare us, Thy will to do.

75

On high the stars are shining,
The night with its darkness draws nigh,
O hear us our Father in Heaven
And answer Thy own children’s cry:
Who humbly seeking Thy blessing,
Now pray that Thy grace may remain.
O, make our love pure and holy,
O, may we not seek Thee in vain.

Though bright stars may wander in heaven,
Thou still lookest down from above
Ah! Father, we trust in Thy mercy,
And in Thy infinite love.
Shadows falling dark and long,
   Night o'er all decending;
Our Father we raise to Thee our song
   In worship lowly bending.
Heart, forget thy bitter pain,
   Rouse thee from thy sadness;
Let thy faith but firm remain,
   Serve thy Lord with gladness.
O give thanks to Him and praise His name
   Forever and forever.

Psalm cxvii.
Here by Babylon's wave
   Though heathen hands have bound us,
Though afar from our land,
   The pains of death surround us;
Zion! thy memory still
   In our hearts we are keeping,
And still we turn to thee,
   Our eyes all sad with weeping.
Through our harps that we hung on the trees,
   Goes the low wind wearily moaning;
Mingles the sad note of the breeze,
   With voice as sad of sigh and groaning.
When mad with wine our foe rejoices,
   When unto their altars they throng,
Loud for mirth then they call—"A song!
A song of Zion sing, lift up your voices!"
O Lord, though the victor command
   Our captivity sad and lowly,
How shall we raise Thy song so holy,
That we sung in our father's land?
   Jerusalem, if we forget thee,
Let our hands remember not their power,
And our tongues be silent from that hour,
   Jerusalem, if we forget thee.
O Father of all nations
To Thee my praises ring,
Thine are my heart's vibrations,
In pious lays they swing.
With joy my breast is swelling,
Thy wonders claim my tongue.
Ô Lord, in mercy dwelling!
Thou art my strength, my song.

Thus sang our sires, delivered
From tyranny that day;
When they in anguish quivered
Thou wast their strength, their stay.
They saw Thy power, Thy wonder,
And strengthened was their faith;
Thou rent'st the waves asunder,
And mad'st for them a path.

To-day we stand before Thee
Redeemed from hatred's rage;
We stand here and adore Thee
Our rock from age to age.
We glorify Thy power,
To Thee our thanks belong;
Thou art our sheltering tower,
Thou art our strength and song.

Loud the swelling anthems rise,
Let all the nations sing
To Him who rules the skies.
Unto the Lord, our King.
The sun at His command,
Renewed the barren ground
Rich harvest decks the land,
And plenty smiles around.
Praise ye the Lord, proclaim His might
   Who made our fathers free.
Who gave to us a heavenly light,
   The sun of liberty.
A prosperous people hails,
   Its bright and genial ray
And golden peace prevails,
   Wide o'er the land to-day.

Then let your hymns of thanks ascend
   To the Almighty's throne,
To whom in gratitude we bend,
   Who reigns supreme alone.
Of his great mercies tell
   Whom earth and heaven adore;
Let hallelujahs swell
   His praise for evermore.

80

Without beginning, without end
   Art Thou, O God o'er time and space,
No human mind can comprehend
   Thy being nor Thy essence trace.
Thou rul'st the world alone and free,
   Thou wast, Thou art, wilt ever be.

Thou wast, when yet all void and dark,
   The universe in chaos lay,
Thou spok'st, and order made her mark,
   The sea, the earth, the night and day,
The sky was set by Thy decree;
   Thou wast, Thou art, will ever be.

The lustre of Thy mercy's ray,
   Sustains the world in love and light;
And though all things should pass away,
   Thou wilt forever reign in might.
Thy being is eternity,
   Thou wast, Thou art, wilt ever be.
I have called, O God upon Thee, O incline Thine ear unto me, and harken unto my words. Show Thy marv'llous loving kindness, Thou who art the refuge of them which put their trust in Thee.

Hear, Lord, hear us, when we call upon Thee.
O Lord, let me never be confounded, for in Thee, Lord, I trusted. Lord be Thou my helper; hear Thou me graciously Thou God of my salvati
Let Thy loving mercy ever be upon us, like as we trust in Thee. Hear us Lord, O hear us.

Great is Jehovah the Lord. The heavens and the earth proclaim His power and His might. 'Tis heard in the crash of the storm, in the wild torrent's loud impetuous roar. Great is Jehovah the Lord; wondrous His power and might. At His command the trees put forth their opening leaves, and valleys wave bright with golden corn; with lovely flowers the fields are decked, and stars in splendor fill the vault of heaven. Heard with dread in the thunder's deep blast, and seen in flames of lightning. But chief in His great loving kindness shines forth Jehovah's boundless might. In His loving kindness shines forth the boundless power of God. Raise your prayerful hearts on high, and hope for mercy, and trust in Him.

I do not ask O Lord, that this life may be a pleasant road
I do not ask that wouldst take from me aught even sparing of its load;
I do not ask that flowers should always spring beneath my feet,
I know the poison, I know the sting too well, of things too sweet.
For one thing only, Lord, dear Lord, I plead:
Lead me aright, lead me aright,
Though strength should falter and though hearts should bleed,
Lead me aright, dear Lord, I plead,
Through peace to light, lead me aright
For He shall give His angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways; they shall bear thee in their hands, that thou hurt not thy foot against stone.

On Thee each living soul waits. From Thee, O Lord, all seek their food. Thou openest Thy hand and fillest all with good. But when Thy face, O Lord, is hid, with sudden terror they are struck. Thou taketh their breath away; they vanish into dust. Thou sendest forth Thy breath again and life with vigor fresh returns. Revived earth unfolds new strength and new delights.

Blessed is he who cometh in the name of the Lord. We bless ye from the house of the Lord.

Send out Thy light and lead me, Father, lead me beyond this darkness, This sorrow and unrest, And guide me worn and weary, To the calm shelter of my Father's breast.

The eyes of all wait upon Thee, and Thou givest them food in due season. Thou visitest the earth and blessest it; Thou crownest the year with Thy goodness. Oh, give thanks unto the Lord, for He is gracious, for His mercy endureth forever.

O God of Hosts, the mighty Lord, How lovely is the place Where Thou, enthroned in glory, showest The brightness of Thy face! My longing soul faints with desire To view Thy blest abode; My panting heart and flesh cry out For Thee, the living God.

God of mercy, God of love.
Deign to hear Thy servants' humble prayer.
Hear and bless us with Thy grace
As Thou hast promised to all those who call upon Thy name.
O Lord hear our supplications.
Tremblingly we call to Thee
Knowing our unworthiness,
Hear us, O our Father, O hear our prayer and grant us peace.
Hear us, O Almighty God, and regard us now in mercy,
Father make us strong to do Thy will,
Father give us grace to cast away and forsake our sins forever.
Be with us evermore.
Give us grace to love Thee more and more from day to day.

92

Thou earth, waft sweet incense o'er thy plains;
Be an altar pouring thanks.
Sound His praise, ye rocky mountains;
Breathe His glory, whispering breezes:
He will be, and is, and was.
God, Thou art great!
The seraphs hail Thee, the worm and dust.
Thou art our Maker, Thou art the loving one.
God, Thou art great!
Thy love is given to men
Who strive to obey their Maker,
And seek their Father.

The Lord great wonders for us hath wrought! Sing and be joyful! Mighty is our God, and of mighty power, there is none that searcheth or understandeth His judgments.
I will extol Thee, my God, O King, and I will praise Thy name forevermore. Thy mercy, O Lord, is great above the heavens, and Thy truth reacheth unto the clouds. Thou openest Thine hand and satisfiest the desire of every living thing. I will extol Thee, my God, O King, and I will bless Thy name forevermore.

I will magnify Thee, O God, my King; and I will praise Thy name, O God. The Lord is righteous in all His ways, and holy in all His words. Every day will I give thanks unto Thee, and praise Thy name forevermore.

King all-glorious, Lord of Hosts Almighty, Thou art revealed in victory, over all the world of light ascended. We pray Thee leave us not comfortless, but send Thy great promise on us, the spirit of Truth, Thy Spirit. Halleluia.

Praise thou the Lord, my spirit, and my inmost soul praise His great loving-kindness. Praise thou the Lord, O my spirit, and forget not all His benefits.

He watching over Israel slumbers not nor sleeps. Shouldst thou walking in grief, languish, He will quicken thee.

Ye sons of Israel, thank the Lord, sing praises to His glorious Name; O praise the Lord who liveth forever, sing praises to Him now and for evermore.
We thank Thee, O Lord, for of Thy goodness the earth is filled, and Thy gracious love lasts for evermore.

We thank Thee, O Lord, for from Thy holy throne Thou surveyest the earth, kindly regarding the sons of dust.

We thank Thee, O Lord, who, as a father, Thy children lovest, sustaining all with faithful love and grace.

We thank Thee, O Lord, who workest wonders, renewing daily the mercies which Thou to us has promised.
