Add-drop not as bad as it looks, advisers say

By JAY BLANTON
Executive Editor

Some students may say the experience is something akin to the Bubonic Plague or waiting in line four hours for a canceled concert. But UK advisers and professors say that if you bring a student ID, a couple of No. 2 pencils and a lot of patience, tomorrow's centralized add-drop is a relatively painless experience. Centralized add-drop in Memorial Coliseum for students who are not advance registered begins at 10 tomorrow morning and lasts until 6 p.m. And according to University Registrar Randall Dahl, add-drop "looks worse than it is." Dahl said his only major concern right now is the cold weather the state is experiencing.

Students will be admitted into the coliseum alphabetically in 30-minute increments.

Still, Dahl said there are some golden rules. "If you know what the section or course number is, that will make the add-drop experience a little more bearable. Besides bringing a 'cheery disposition' and patience, students should be willing to be flexible in planning out courses," Dahl said. Students should always add before they drop and have an alternative in mind if the section or course students want is filled, he said. In other words, Dahl said, a little advance planning is in order. Students should have a good idea what they want to do before going through add-drop. Students will be admitted into the coliseum alphabetically in 30-minute increments. Dahl said students shouldn't come before their assigned time, but may come anytime afterward.

For more information on add-drop students can call the registrar's office at 257-7173. Here are some other dates to remember: •February 2 is the last day a student may officially drop a course or cancel registration with the University Registrar for a full refund of fees. •Wednesday is the first day of class work. •January 13-19 is late registration for returning students who did not register and new applicants cleared late for admission. A $20 late fee is assessed to students who register late. •January 19 is the last day to enter an organized class for the 1988 Spring semester. •January 26 is the last day for payment of registration fees and/or housing and dining fees in order to avoid cancellation of registration and/or meal card. •February 2 is the last day to drop a course without it appearing on the student's transcript. •February 2 is also the last day to change a grading option (from pass/fail to letter grade or letter grade to pass/fail; credit to audit or audit to credit) in your college dean's office.

Wildcats remain undefeated, move back to the No. 1 spot

By TODD JONES
Sports Editor

So, you spent the Holiday break lounging on the couch and vegetating in front of the TV. It's OK. The rest of the UK students probably did the same. Well, everybody but the Kentucky basketball players. A few weeks out of the classroom was anything but a break for the Wildcats. They were too busy in the gym. Don't believe me... A last second tip-in, a 42-point blowout, a UKIT championship, comeback victories, basket by Davender, Christmas dinner at Coach Eddie Sutton's house, a car crash on the way home from Sutton's house, national television, an MVP for Winston Bennett, a missed curfew because of Clint Eastwood, basket by Chapman, a rise to the top of the polls, a drop in the polls, a 24-second explosion, a sprained ankle, basket by Davender, Sutton's 400th coaching victory, a zone defense, basket by Chapman, a hockey check that is called traveling, the reappearance of "the phantom", a road game in front of the home fans, basket by Davender, and basket by Chapman. Wait, there's more. First place in the Southeastern Conference, six victories to go 9-0, a No. 1 ranking in the country - again, basket by Davender and basket by Chapman. Some break. Kentucky began the holiday season ranked No. 1 in the country thanks to Vanderbilt's upset of North Carolina. But the Cats would soon discover that when you're voted into the penthouse of college basketball, everybody wants a shot at you. The fun started on Dec. 12. Denny Crum brought his Louisville Cardinals to Rupp Arena for a certain "50-point" massacre. It was anything but. Louisville trailed by as many as 16 in the first half, and 13 at intermission. But the Cards caught fire in the second half and hit 64.3 percent of their shots. When center Pervis Ellison swished a jumper in the final minute of play, Louisville led 76-75. But Cedric Jenkins swooped in to save the day. With the final seconds ticking away, Ed Davender mistired on a jumper from the baseline. Rob Lock batted the rebound, Jenkins swatted it and Jenkins tipped it again. The final tip fell and so did the Cardinals, 76-75.

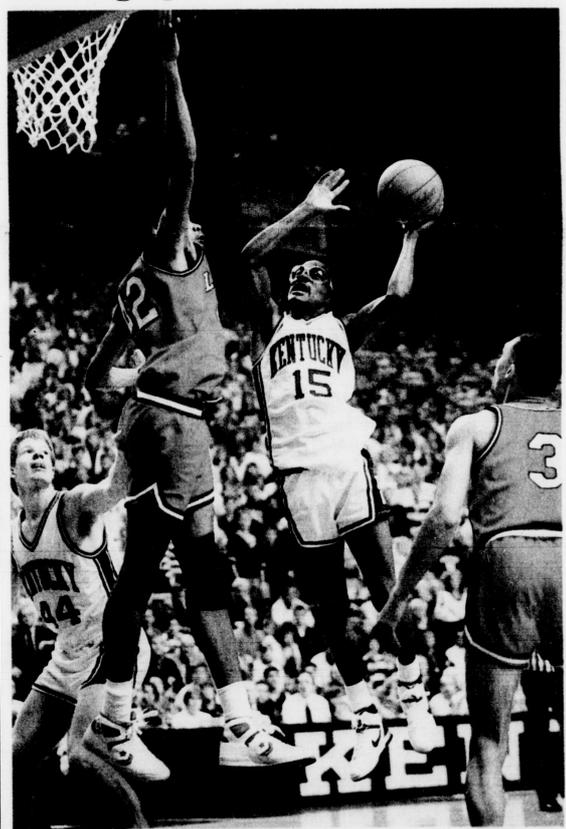

Tickets

Student tickets for Kentucky's contest with Tennessee Saturday night at Rupp Arena are available from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. today at the ticket window outside Memorial Coliseum. Students with IDs and activity cards can also pick up tickets for the Florida game Wednesday night (Jan. 20) at this time. Tomorrow and Wednesday, guest tickets can be purchased for both games at the same location. Tickets are $6.

"The ball just bounced funny," Louisville forward Herbert Crook said. "I fouched it but Cedric tipped it with those long arms." The University of Kentucky Invitational Tournament, or better known as Invite Some Patsies and Beat the Tar Out of Them, came next. Only this tournament was as funny as the dancing basketball that dropped against the Cardinals. Miami of Ohio was supposed to be the first sacrificial lamb for UK. They had steel wool. The visiting Redskins hung tough for 31 minutes but withered down the stretch and fell, 85-71. Bennett led everyone with 28 points and 10 rebounds. "The finals against North Carolina-Charlotte was also supposed to be a laugh. But like Miami, the 49ers would not roll over and die. Charlotte fired in 10 of 15 three-point jumpers, led by guard Byron Dinkins six times. "I have never seen three-point shooting like that," Sutton said. "I kept saying golly, when are they going to miss?" With eleven seconds left, UK was clinging to an 82-81 lead. The 49ers inbounded the ball to Dinkins as he streaked toward the hoop. He nearly streaked into the front row. Traveling. He was pushed? "We're not pleased with the call," Charlotte coach Jeff Mullins said. "Byron doesn't walk. Rob Lock walks." The call stayed and UK had its 27th UKIT title. Bennett was the Most Valuable Player and Davender and Chapman joined him on the All-Tournament team. The close victories caused the Wildcats to tumble out of the top of the polls. Arizona took over No. 1. Freshman center LeRon Ellis jumped and landed wrong during practice on Christmas Eve. Ellis badly sprained his left ankle, "my good one," he said. It did no good for the next couple of weeks. Ellis didn't play the rest of the break. Trouble struck again the next day. While returning home from Christmas dinner at Sutton's home in Jessamine County, Madison and Eric Manuel were involved in a car accident. Both were taken to the hospital and released the next day with bumps and bruises. Both returned to the court, but not before missing the Alaska game. They didn't miss much. UK baked Alaska, 100-58. It could have been worse. Bennett led the scoring again with 24 points. Chapman added 19 and Davender 15. Kentucky opened SEC play with a 81-74 victory over Vanderbilt at Rupp Arena. But it didn't come without a struggle. The Commodores led 65-56 with eight minutes to play and 65-60 with 4:47 on the clock. But then BOOM! UK used a suffocating press to rip off seven consecutive points in 24 seconds to take the lead. Vandy was shell-shocked and never recovered. The Cats survived thanks to 45 points from the backcourt of Davender and Chapman. "We didn't play very well to-night," Sutton said after the Vandy game. "But we found a way to win. That's a great quality in a truly You win league championships by winning when you don't play very well." You also win league championships by starting off on the right foot. And that's what UK did with a 84-77 victory over Georgia at The Omni in Atlanta. Davender and Chapman again did the major damage, combining for 48 points. But it was a Wildcat zone defense - yes, a zone - that was the key. It was a reversal from the previous year when Georgia defeated UK twice with a zone. "We didn't beat this team," Bulldog coach Hugh Durham said. "We beat a team with Kentucky stitched across the jersey. This is an entirely different team." And a team that is once again ranked No. 1 in the country. Kentucky was back in the penthouse when Arizona fell to New Mexico. It was that kind of break.

Moving up

Ed Davender goes for a layup against Pervis Ellison, during the UK-U of L game last month while Keith Williams and Rob Lock look on. The Cats won the game by one point, 76-75.

While UK's student population was vacant from the campus last month, UK continued to function. Gov. Wallace Wilkinson appointed former Kentucky Gov. Albert B. "Happy" Chandler to the UK Board of Trustees as a voting member. Prior to this appointment, Chandler, 89, was an honorary member of the BOT. Honorary members are non-voting members. In other BOT business - UK approved the offering of additional options for the management of retirement funds. Later in 1988, UK employees will be able to choose from among TIAA/

CREF, Fidelity Investments and Twentieth Century. "The University approved a lease agreement at the last BOT meeting, Dec. 8, 1987, with Shepherd's House Inc. to create a halfway house for recovering male alcoholics. The house will be open to as many as 12 men over the age of 18 who have already undergone a drug or alcohol rehabilitation program. Renovation on the house, located on Bonnie Brae Ave., will begin this month and should be completed by June, 1988. "The BOT will meet for the first time this year on Jan. 19. break, members of RFL have been constructing and painting cabinets in their Student Center studio. Members of RFL will be trained on how to operate the equipment this week as their new equipment arrives. Mark Beatty, program director for RFL, said that the station will be ready for broadcast "near the end of January." The UK College of Medicine established an endowed scholarship fund in memory of '68 graduate Wilson Sebastian Jr. who died suddenly in November 1987. Sebastian was chief of staff at Lexington's Central Baptist Hospital at the time of his death. The endowment will provide scholarships for "gifted and multi-talented" UK medical students, according to a press release. "Walt Disney World announced that they will be coming to UK's Fine Arts Building on Jan. 28 to seek musicians for "Disneyland and Walt Disney World All American College Bands and Walt Disney World All American College Orchestra," according to a press release. "The UK Survey and Research Center released the results of a survey on former Gov. Martha Layne Collins' job rating. The November 1987 survey showed that 45 percent of those interviewed statewide gave Collins an "excellent" or "good" rating, compared to the 45 percent that marked Collins as positive in a survey taken in the spring of '87. "The UK Alcohol Policy Task Force Committee is expected to recommend a policy this semester. Last year the Task Force discussed several aspects of the prospective policy. The recommendation was expected by the end of last semester, but Chancellor for the Lexington Campus Art Gallaher granted the Task Force an extension.

KERNEL KNOWLEDGE:

That Looks Easy ...

Is that what you've been saying to yourself every time you pick up the Kentucky Kernel?

Well, you're right, it is.

All you do is come in and take out a story assignment, then go out and interview a bunch of people, then come back in and write, with an editor breathing down your neck. Then do it again the next day.

Oh yeah, and you've got to keep up with your course load.

If you're lucky, you might get a chance to meet some interesting people and do some interesting things. You may even land a job at a "real" newspaper one day.

So if you're interested, stop by room 035 in the Journalism Building. It's as easy as falling off a log.

Pssst. Have you heard? The Kentucky Kernel is the 4th largest morning daily in Kentucky! Advertise in the Kernel, we bring results. 257-2872.
