KENTUCKY REPUBLICAN ORGANIZATION

—O—

By virtue of the power and authority conferred by the Republican Party of Kentucky in State Convention assembled, the Republican State Central Committee of Kentucky, in regular session, does hereby enact the following rules for its government and the government of all other committees subordinate thereto. But said rules shall not apply to the County of Jefferson and the districts embraced therein, except the rules applicable to appeals and contests, proxies, conventions and primary elections, and such rules as are specifically made applicable thereto. In other respects said territory shall be governed by the rules heretofore established and amended by the State Central Committee with respect thereto.

PRECINCT CHAIRMEN.

Republican precinct chairmen in the State of Kentucky shall be selected under the following rules:

RULE ONE.

The basis of the county organization shall be the election precincts as established under the State law. Each precinct in each county shall have a precinct chairman who shall always be a resident of said precinct, and may associate other Republicans with him in the work of the party.

RULE TWO.

The selection of precinct chairmen shall be made at 2 o'clock p. m., standard time, on the first Saturday in March of each Presidential election year, at the place of holding the last previous election in said precinct, unless the county committee shall fix another place, and unless the State Central Committee shall fix another date. Provided, however, that in lieu of such precinct meeting the county committee may call a county mass convention at said hour on said date to elect precinct chairmen for the entire county, and in such event shall fix rules of procedure for such county convention, and shall fix a place for holding the same in the county seat of such county, except in the counties of Boyd, Campbell and Kenton, in which counties such meetings shall be held in the cities of Ashland, Newport and Covington, respectively.

The term of office of such precinct chairmen shall begin when the State convention is held to elect delegates to the National Republican Convention to nominate a candidate for President and they shall hold their offices for a term of four years and until their successors are elected and qualified.

On the day fixed for such precinct meetings or county mass conventions or when a re-organization of the county executive committees and precinct chairmen is ordered by the State Central Committee as hereinafter provided, the Republicans of each precinct or county shall assemble at the designated voting place in such precinct or county and then and there in mass convention, at which either the viva voce or the ballot form of voting may be used, select a precinct chairman for each precinct of the county. Due notice of such precinct mass meetings or county mass conventions and of the time and places of holding the same shall be given by the chairman of the county executive committee.

At such meetings all Republican voters who will be qualified to vote at the next regular election shall be entitled to vote. In cities where registration is required such voters shall be permitted to participate as are registered or shall have become entitled to register since the last election.

RULE THREE.

The State Central Committee at any time, after charges filed against the precinct chairmen or the county committee of any county and a hearing on said charges, may order a re-organization of the precinct chairmen and county committee of such county; in which event on the day and at the place or places fixed by said State Central Committee, an election of precinct chairman shall be held therein and the same procedure shall be had as is provided for the regular election of such precinct chairmen; provided, that the chairman of the State Central Committee may designate a person to call such precinct or county mass meetings or may direct the district chairman to do so.

MAGISTERIAL DISTRICT COMMITTEE.

RULE FOUR.

The County Executive Committee of each county shall act as the committee of each magisterial district of said county.

COUNTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

RULE FIVE.

The County Executive Committee shall be composed of the precinct chairmen of said county, and the chairman of said committee. The officers of the County Executive Committee shall be a chairman, a secretary, and a treasurer. The officers shall be selected from within or out the membership. If selected from without the membership the officers shall have no vote except the chairman, who shall be entitled to vote in case of a tie vote. If the chairman is elected from the membership, he shall vacate his office of precinct chairman and the vacancy so created shall be filled by the committee.

RULE SIX.

As soon after their election as practicable, and within fifteen days after their election, the members of the new county executive committees shall be called together for organization, but no member of the old committee shall take part in the organization unless he is re-elected thereto. The meeting shall be called by the secretary of the old or preceding committee, by written notice mailed to the P. O. address of each member elected not less than five days before the day of meeting. When the new committee meets pursuant to the notice aforesaid, the Secretary of the old committee shall call for the election of a temporary chairman and a temporary secretary. The temporary officers chosen shall then call for nominations for permanent chairman and the permanent chairman, when elected, shall call for nominations for permanent secretary and a permanent treasurer; the committee shall elect in addition to the permanent chairman, a permanent secretary and a permanent treasurer, and said permanent officers of the new committee shall each serve during the term of the committee unless removed by death, resignation, removal from the county or for cause.

Any officer of the County Executive Committee, or any member thereof, may be removed by the State Central Committee for malfeasance, or misfeasance in office, after five days notice has been given him in writing stating the charges and time and place of hearing thereon, and after he has had an opportunity to be heard.

When the Chairman, Secretary, or Treasurer, or any other officers of, or any member of, a county executive committee shall become a candidate for nomination for any county, municipal, or district office, to be filled at any regular or special election, he shall immediately resign his office as member of such committee, and the vacancy caused thereby shall be filled as provided for by the party rules; and on his failure to so resign, the said committee (he not being allowed to vote thereon) shall thereupon declare his office or membership vacant and shall fill the vacancy agreeably to the party rules.

Vacancies occurring by death, resignation or removal from the precinct shall be filled by the remaining members of the county committee. Vacancies caused by the action of the State Central Committee shall be filled as said Committee may direct.

DUTIES OF COUNTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

RULE SEVEN.

As soon as the County Executive Committee shall have organized the full names, occupations, and post-office and telegraph addresses of its members, together with the designation of the precinct district of which each has charge, shall be reported directly to the Secretary of the State Central Committee.

The County Executive Committee, by itself or through the County Campaign Committee, shall have entire control of the County and Magisterial District Campaigns; provide ways and means for conducting the canvass; distribute all supplies received from the State Central Committee in accordance with instructions; forward committee lists of the precinct chairmen and precinct committeemen to the Secretary of the State Central Committee; report the result of the poll of the county as soon as completed, to the Secretary of the State Central Committee; meet with the committeemen in every precinct and see that they are instructed as to their duties; supervise the polling and other campaign work therein and arrange the times and places of all political meetings in the county. The County Executive Committee shall hold regular meetings for the transaction of any business that may come before the body, and to enable members to exchange ideas about party affairs, and it shall be the duty of the chairman to call a meeting of the Committee at any time upon the request of one-third of the members of the Committee. On request of one-third of the members of the Committee the Chairman of the Committee shall call a meeting of the Committee, but in the event of his death, resignation, or refusal, the secretary may issue the call. All meetings, regular or called, of the County Executive Committee shall be held at the county seat, except in the counties of Boyd, Campbell and Kenton, in which such meetings shall be held in the cities of Ashland, Newport and Covington, respectively. A quorum shall consist of a majority of the members of the Committee except in the counties containing cities of the first, second or third classes, in which counties the committee may by rule provide what number shall constitute a quorum. It shall be the duty of each member of this committee to attend all regular and special meetings when possible to do so, and to heartily support all nominees of the regular Republican Party. For non-attendance at three consecutive meetings without excuse which is accepted as sufficient by the Committee, or for refusal or neglect to comply with the laws of the Committee, the membership of any member of said Committee, may, in the discretion of the Committee, cease after notice and hearing as provided in Rule Six.

CITY COMMITTEES.

RULE EIGHT.

Each city of the first, second, third and fourth class shall have a City Committee which shall be composed of the precinct chairmen residing within and representing the precincts of the city. Said committee shall elect a Secretary and Treasurer from within or without its own membership. The City Committee shall have jurisdiction only in matters relating to the nomination of a ticket for the city offices, such as Mayor, Alderman, Councilmen, and all other city officers. The County Executive Committee shall have charge of the city campaign, together with that of the other officers to be voted for within the city and county. The County Chairman shall be ex-officio chairman of said City Committee and shall have a vote, but shall not vote a second time in case of a tie.

LEGISLATIVE DISTRICT COMMITTEES.

RULE NINE.

Each Legislative District shall have a Legislative District Committee which shall be composed of the members of the County Executive Committees residing within such legislative district. In counties having more than one legislative district the chairman of the precinct embraced within said legislative district which cast the largest vote for the Republican candidate at the last preceding presidential election will be the chairman of said legislative district. In counties forming a single legislative district the chairman of the County Executive Committee shall be chairman of the Legislative District Committee. Where a legislative district is formed of two or more counties the chairman of that county which cast the largest Republican vote at the last preceding presidential election shall be chairman of the Legislative District Committee. Such committee shall elect a Secretary and Treasurer from within or without the membership, but such officers shall have no vote unless they are members of the committee.

SENATORIAL DISTRICT COMMITTEE.

RULE TEN.

Each Senatorial District shall have a Senatorial District Committee which, in districts comprising more than one county, shall be composed of all the County Executive Chairmen in said district; where the district is composed of two or more counties the chairman of that county which cast the largest Republican vote at the last preceding presidential election shall be chairman of the said Senatorial District Committee. In districts which are co-extensive with a county the County Executive Committee shall be the Senatorial District Committee.

Where the district is less than a county the precinct committeemen residing in such district shall constitute the committee, and the chairman of that precinct which cast the largest Republican vote at the last preceding presidential election shall be the chairman thereof. Such committee shall elect a Secretary and Treasurer from within or without the membership, but such officers shall have no vote unless they are members of the committee.

CIRCUIT COURT DISTRICT COMMITTEE.

RULE ELEVEN.

Each Circuit Court District shall have a Circuit Court District Committee, which, in districts comprising more than one county, shall be composed of the chairmen and County Executive Committees embraced within said Circuit Court District; the chairman of each of said Circuit Court Districts shall be the chairman of that county which cast the largest Republican vote at the last preceding presidential election, except in any district which is co-extensive with a county, when the County Executive Committee of such county shall be the Circuit Court District Committee.

CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT COMMITTEE.

RULE TWELVE.

Each Congressional District shall have a Congressional District Committee which shall be composed of the member of the State Central Committee from the Congressional District, and the chairman of the County Executive Committees of the counties in said district. The member of the State Central Committee shall serve as chairman of the Congressional District from which he was chosen.

DUTIES OF CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT COMMITTEES.

RULE THIRTEEN.

Each member of the State Central Committee shall have supervision in the county or counties composing his district, and shall see that every county in his district is thoroughly organized in accordance with the plan of county and precinct organization herein set forth. Said district chairmen are hereby specially charged with the duty of organizing the several counties in their several districts at an early date preceding each State and Congressional campaign, and of visiting each county when necessary during the canvass for the purpose of encouraging greater efficiency and activity in political work. The said district committee shall be called together at some convenient and central point in the district as often as may be necessary for the general welfare of the party and the success of the Republican ticket; and shall aid, by counsel, and in every other proper way, the legislative candidates. Detailed reports of these visits and meetings must be promptly transmitted by the district chairman when requested to the Secretary of the State Central Committee for the general information of the State and National party organization. The said district committee is also charged with the proper conduct of each Congressional campaign; it shall select its own officers except chairmen, and may, under the supervision of the State Central Committee, provide a campaign and other subordinate committees.

APPELLATE COURT DISTRICT COMMITTEE.

RULE FOURTEEN.

Each Appellate Court District shall have an Appellate Court District Committee. Except in the Fourth Appellate Court District the Appellate Court District Committee shall be composed of the chairmen of the County Executive Committees embraced within each Appellate Court District. The chairman of this committee shall be the member of the State Central Committee from that Congressional District which has the largest number of counties within such Appellate Court District; provided, however, that in case of an equal number of counties from different Congressional Districts in an Appellate District, the chairman shall be that member of the State Central Committee whose said equal number of counties cast the largest Republican vote at the last preceding presidential election. The Congressional District Committee of the Fifth Congressional District shall be the Appellate Court District Committee for the Fourth Appellate Court District.

RAILROAD COMMISSIONER'S DISTRICT COMMITTEE.

RULE FIFTEEN.

Each Railroad Commissioner's District shall have a District Committee which shall be composed of the chairmen of the County Executive Committees embraced therein. The chairman of said District Committee shall be the member of the State Central Committee from that Congressional District which has the largest number of counties within such Railroad Commissioner's District; provided, whoever, that in case of an equal number of counties from different Congressional Districts in a Railroad Commissioner's District, the chairman shall be that member of the State Central Committee whose said equal number of counties cast the largest Republican vote at the last preceding presidential election.

STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

RULE SIXTEEN.

Subject to the Republican Party of Kentucky in convention assembled the Republican State Central Committee shall be the supreme party power in the State.

The Republican State Central Committee is hereby declared to be a permanent political body. Its members and officers shall be chosen quadrennially. RULE NINETEEN.

The State Central Committee is authorized to hear and determine such contests, and contestant for membership shall not be admitted to any of the committee meetings while his contest is pending. Neither the contestant nor the contestee shall take any part in the official proceedings of the committee in reference to said contest, but each may be present at hearings both in person and by attorney.

RULE TWENTY.

If any member fails to attend four successive meetings of the State Central Committee, or fails to give proper attention to party matters in his district, the committee may, after ten days notice, in writing, to said member, and after fair opportunity has been given him to be heard before said committee, declare his seat vacant by a majority vote of all the members-elect of said acting committee and such vacancy shall be filled in the manner provided in Rule Twenty-one.

RULE TWENTY-ONE.

In case of a vacancy in any district, the chairman of the State Central Committee shall immediately call a meeting of the Congressional Committee of such district, and such Congressional Committee shall elect some qualified Republican to fill such vacancy. Said election shall thereupon be certified to the State Central Committee by the Temporary Chairman and Secretary of the District Committee, and the person so elected shall thereupon be enrolled as a member of the State Central Committee. A vacancy in the membership from the State-at-Large shall be filled by election by the State Central Committee.

RULE TWENTY-TWO.

The State Central Committee shall have immediate charge and full control of the political affairs and subordinate organizations of the Republican party in the State; the management of its campaigns, the collections and disbursements of funds; shall adopt such measures as may best promote the success of the Republican party and the election of its nominees; shall cause the several Congressional Districts, counties, magisterial districts and precincts in the State to be thoroughly organized for political purposes by proper campaign committees which it shall constitute for all elections general to the State, and which shall at all times be subordinate to and under the control of the State Central Committee.

OFFICERS OF STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

RULE TWENTY-THREE.

Within ten days after the appointment of the two members of said State Central Committee from the State-at-Large, the members of the State Central Committee shall meet, at the call of the Secretary of the preceding State Central Committee, upon the written request of any three of the members-elect and organize by the election, by secret ballot, of a Chairman to serve during the term of office of the committee, and by the election of a vice-Chairman, a Secretary and a Treasurer, each of whom shall serve during the pleasure of the committee. RULE TWENTY-NINE.

All meetings of the State Central Committee shall be called by the Secretary, acting under the instructions of the Chairman, and notice of each meeting shall be issued, except in declared emergencies, at least five days before the time of such meeting; due publicity to be given same through newspaper publication and by notices mailed to members. Where less than five days intervene between the call and the meeting, notices to members shall be by telephone or telegraph. A special meeting shall be called on a petition in writing of three or more members, who shall state in their request the object of such meeting. A quorum shall consist of not less than seven members.

ORDER OF BUSINESS OF STATE CENTRAL

5. New Business, Motions, Orders, Resolutions, Petitions, etc.

The parliamentary rules of debate, order and privileged questions, as laid down in Roberts' Rules, shall be observed by the State Central Committee when not in conflict with these rules.

STATE ADVISORY COMMITTEE.

RULE THIRTY-ONE.

There shall be selected a State Advisory Committee, to serve during each State, Congressional or National Campaign; same to consist of one member from each Congressional District, who shall be nominated just prior to each such campaign by the chairman of each Congressional District, and whose term of office shall expire immediately following the close of the campaign. It shall be the duty of each Advisory Committeeman to assist his Congressional District Committeeman in organizing his Congressional District, and to attend to such business as his Congressional Chairman may direct, and to such duties as the State Central Committee may assign him.

STATE CONVENTIONS.

RULE THIRTY-TWO.

The State Central Committee shall fix the time and place for holding each State Convention, and shall issue a call therefor at least thirty days prior to the date fixed for said convention. If the convention is to nominate State officers the following shall be the order in which nominations shall be made in the convention :

Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Auditor of Public Accounts, Treasurer, Secretary of State, Superintendent of Public Instruction, and Commissioner of Agriculture, Labor and Statistics.

All county conventions which elect delegates shall be held on the same day and at the same hour, and each shall be held at the county seat, except in the counties of Boyd, Campbell and Kenton, in which they shall be held in Ashland, Newport and Covington respectively. The said day and hour shall be specifically designated in the call by the State Central Committee for the holding of such county conventions, which call shall be published by the chairmen of the various County Executive Committees. The basis of representation and the number of delegates apportioned to each county shall be stated in the call of the State Central Committee, which call shall be signed by the Chairman and attested by the Secretary. The said State Central Committee shall make all necessary arrangements for holding the State Convention and shall provide for and control all admissions thereto, and shall recommend to the convention a temporary chairman and a temporary secretary.

The delegates of the several Congressional Districts shall assemble in district meetings, on the call of the Congressional District Chairmen, in the same city wherein, and on the same day whereon, the State Convention is held, at an hour prior to the assembling of said State Convention, and shall select the following representatives in the temporary and permanent organization of said State Convention :

One vice-Chairman of Convention.

One Assistant Secretary of Convention.

One member of Committee on Credentials.

One member of Committee on Rules and Order of Business.

One member of Committee on Permanent Organization.

RULE THIRTY-THREE.

Chairman of the State Central Committee to call the convention to order and cause the official call to be read, and to preside over the convention during the election of a temporary chairman.

Whenever there is a contest as to the right of any delegation to a seat in any State, District, or other delegate convention, the delegation selected by the convention called to order by the regular official of the party pursuant to the official call for said convention, shall be admitted until the contest is settled, and may vote on all questions except as to its own right to a seat in the convention. In case two or more delegations claim to have been selected by the convention called to order by the regular official of the party, then, that delegation which has its credentials properly signed by the Chairman and Secretary of that convention and certified by the regular official of the party who called said convention to order, shall, until the contest is settled, take part in the work of the State, District, or other delegate convention in which such delegation claims the right to sit.

RULE THIRTY-FOUR.

No delegate elected to a State Republican Convention shall be permitted to cast a vote by proxy. But those delegates present from any county shall have the right to cast the full delegate vote of such county. The delegates from the respective counties shall meet prior to the convening of the said convention and select one of their number to announce the vote of the county upon call of the roll on any question before the convention. The Chairman selected by each county delegation shall cast the vote of the county as instructed by the delegates; but this shall in no way prevent each delegate present from having his own vote reported and cast as he sees fit. And no person not a resident of a county shall be a delegate from, or cast the vote of, such county.

RULE THIRTY-FIVE.

Delegates to State nominating conventions shall be elected by the Republicans either in the manner provided by the State Primary Laws, or by mass conventions, at which the viva voce or the ballot form of voting may be used. The method to be adopted must be announced in the call for the selection of said delegates. The full names and post-office addresses of such delegates and alternate delegates selected to represent the county shall be forwarded to the Chairman of the State Central Committee by the Chairman and Secretary of the convention at which they are chosen.

The Chairman of the Congressional District Committee shall call the convention to order and shall preside until the election of a temporary chairman and temporary secretary. Said temporary chairman shall preside until the election by the convention of a permanent chairman, a permanent secretary, and such other permanent officers as may appear necessary. Preliminary meetings of the delegates shall be held by counties on the call of the chairman of each county prior to the hour for convening said convention, at which all necessary preliminaries shall be arranged, including the election for each county of

One member of Committee on Resolutions.

One member of Committee on Credentials.

One member of Committee on Permanent Organization.

One member of Committee on Rules and Order of Business.

RULE THIRTY-SEVEN.

CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT PRIMARIES.

RULE THIRTY-EIGHT.

Whenever there are, in any Congressional District, two or more candidates for the Republican nomination for the office of Representative in Congress, the Congressional Committee of such district, if petitioned so to do, not less than twenty (20) days prior to a convention, if one has been already called, by a number of Republicans equal to twenty per cent. of the Republican votes cast at the last preceding presidential election, shall order and provide for the holding of a primary election in said district, to nominate a candidate for such office, which primary election shall be held as in the manner provided by the State law governing primary elections. The candidate receiving the highest number of votes at said primary election, whether it be a majority or only a plurality, shall be the nominee.

APPELLATE COURT, R. R. COMMISSION AND CIRCUIT COURT DISTRICT CONVENTIONS.

RULE THIRTY-NINE.

The rules governing Congressional District Conventions and Primaries shall, as far as applicable, govern the holding of Appellate Court, Railroad Commission and Circuit Court District Conventions and Primaries.

COUNTY CONVENTIONS.

RULE FORTY.

The County Executive Committee shall fix a time and place for holding County Conventions to select candidates for all county offices and shall issue the call therefor at least thirty days prior to the date fixed, except in case of a primary, when the State Primary Law shall govern. No county nominating convention or primary election to select candidates for county offices shall be held prior to the calendar year in which the election therefor is to be held. The basis of representation in delegate conventions shall be declared, and the number of delegates apportioned to each precinct shall be stated, in the official call for said convention, which call shall be signed by the chairman and attested by the secretary, and duly published throughout all precincts in the county.

PRIMARY ELECTIONS.

RULE FORTY-ONE.

When primary elections for the selection of candidates for offices to be filled at an election by the people are ordered by the committee having jurisdiction, it shall be the duty of the Chairman to designate the voting places in each primary district, and the committee having jurisdiction shall appoint for each voting place the following officers of election, viz: Two Judges, one Clerk, one Sheriff of Election, whose duty shall be to conduct the election at said voting place and decide the right of each person offering to vote according to the rules and conditions imposed by the committee to govern said election; provided, however, that the said election officers shall be selected from lists of names furnished by the principal candidates or tickets to be voted for, and they shall be so selected as to give, as far as practicable, equal representation to said principal candidates or tickets, as the case may be. Each ticket to be voted for shall be entitled to have one representative in each voting place who shall be known as challenger and inspector, and shall, when the count is completed, receive a certified copy of the vote. When the time for closing the polls arrives, the officers of election shall close them, and after counting the votes as by the statute required, they shall publicly announce the result, and shall, before leaving, certify to same, and shall, within forty-eight hours thereafter, in counties traversed by railroad, and within seventy-two hours thereafter in counties not traversed by railroad, file a copy of said certificate with the Chairman of the District or County Committee, as the case may be. They shall also file with the Chairman of said committee the poll books, challenge notes and ballots received by them at said election, all properly marked and sealed, as the law requires. Such primary elections shall in each and every respect be held under and in strict compliance with the State Primary Law. The Chairman and Secretary, together with the members of the district or county committee, as the case may be, for county primary elections shall meet within forty-eight hours after the closing of the polls, or for district primary elections within five days after a district primary election is held, and canvass the returns and certify who, on the face of the returns, are nominated and chosen as candidates and order the Secretary to issue to the persons so declared nominated, credentials or certificates of nomination. When such an election has been held for the purpose of selecting candidates, any candidate who shall feel himself aggrieved at the decision of the Canvassing Committee, may institute his contest before such committee as provided by the statute law of the Commonwealth.

CONVENTIONS AND PRIMARY ELECTIONS.

RULE FORTY-TWO.

The committee having jurisdiction shall pay all expenses of making nominations, which money shall be raised by the assessment of candidates for the various offices to be filled, which assessment shall be paid to the Treasurer of the committee by each candidate for office within ten days after the publication in some newspaper (if there be one in the county, and if not, by posting notices in two or more places in each precinct at least ten days before closing the entries) of the notice of holding a convention or a primary election for the election of delegates to the nominating convention, or of an election to nominate candidates for the offices to be filled at elections by the people. Said notice of holding a primary election or delegate convention shall designate the time and place at which the presence of the Secretary and Treasurer of such committee shall be required on each of the ten days succeeding the publication of said notice, for the purpose of receiving the payment of such assessment from the candidates to be voted for.

and manner of holding such convention, and the selection of the delegates thereto, and such convention shall be held pursuant to the provisions of such call; and the nominations made by such convention shall be certified by the Chairman and Secretary of the convention as the nominee of the party for such district, in conformity with the provisions of the general election laws of the State.

Whenever mass meetings are held in precincts or Magisterial districts they shall be called to order at 2 o'clock p. m., standard time.

RULE FIFTY.

Whenever any officer or member of a subordinate committee fails to give proper attention to communications sent him by the State Central Committee or State Campaign Committee, or ignores or refuses to answer letters sent him by said committee, he may be removed from his office by the State Central Committee after ten days' notice has been given him of the charges preferred, and after a reasonable opportunity for a hearing of the matter before said State Central Committee is given him. Whenever such removal is made the subordinate committee having jurisdiction shall be notified and the vacancy shall be filled in such manner as said State Central Committee shall direct.

RULE FIFTY-ONE.

Each and every committee herein provided for shall serve four years from the date of its original organization under these rules. And each and every member and officer of every committee herein provided for except where otherwise specifically provided shall serve during the life of the committee of which he is a member or officer, unless removed by death, resignation or for cause.

ORGANIZATION OF CONVENTIONS.

RULE FIFTY-TWO.

The rule of organization of all conventions provided for in these rules shall be as follows:

All State Conventions shall be called to order by the Chairman of the State Central Committee; all District Conventions, by the Chairman of the District Committee; and all County Conventions by the Chairman of the County Executive Committee. Immediately upon the calling of any such convention to order the convention shall elect a temporary Chairman and temporary Secretary, who shall each serve until his permanent successor is elected by said convention, and said permanent officers shall preside while other permanent officers as may appear necessary shall be elected by said convention; which permanent organization shall be effected immediately after the selection of said temporary officers, and then the whole of same shall preside during the life of such convention.

If any member of the committees mentioned herein is unable to attend the meetings of same he may delegate some one by proxy to represent him at such meeting. The holder of a proxy shall be entitled to all privileges of membership except when otherwise designated in the proxy. No member of the State Central or any subordinate committee, however, can delegate to a proxy the right to sit with said committee, to canvass the returns from a nominating convention or primary election, to fill vacancies or to take part in any discussion or meeting upon any question affecting the title of any candidate for office whose case is before said committee. And no member of a county committee shall act by proxy if such committee shall provide that its members shall not act by proxy.

RULES SPECIALLY APPLICABLE TO THE COUNTY OF JEFFERSON AND THE DISTRICTS EMBRACED THEREIN.

COUNTY, CITY, WARD AND PRECINCT COMMITTEES.

In Jefferson county the county committee shall be composed of one Chairman from each five precincts or major fraction thereof, in each ward of the city of Louisville, and in that portion of Jefferson county beyond the limits of the city. The said Chairman shall be elected in the same manner herein provided, and at the same time and in the same manner there shall be elected in each ward of the city of Louisville and in that portion of Jefferson county beyond the limits of said city, one precinct committeeman for each precinct in the several wards and that outlying portion of the county, and the precinct committeemen, together with the county committeemen from the same, shall constitute the ward committee for said ward or legislative district committees of the county. When the new committee meets pursuant to the notice aforesaid, the Secretary of the old committee shall call for the election of a temporary Chairman and a temporary Secretary.

The temporary officers chosen shall then call

The officers of the county committee, or any member thereof, may be removed by the county committee for misfeasance or malfeasance in office, after due notice has been given him and an opportunity to be heard. All contested elections of precinct chairmen shall be passed upon by the county committee; no member, however, shall vote upon any question affecting his title to the office. But the losing party may appeal to the District Chairman. All contests as to the election of County Chairman shall be tried by the Chairman of the Congressional district in which he lives, but the losing party has the right to appeal to the Central Committee.

All contests and controversies shall be tried alone upon affidavits, and when appealed, the affidavits shall be forwarded to the proper authority.

Any ruling that affects the party's interest of either precinct or county Chairman, shall be subject to appeal and revision as herein provided. The decision of the State Central Committee shall be final and binding on all questions.

The County Committee shall have the power to fill vacancies in its number, or may refer the election of a member to fill such vacancy to the Republicans of the precinct or ward in which the vacancy may occur.

Each Senatorial District Committee shall be composed of the Chairman and Secretary of each county or ward embraced within the district. The Chairman of the county or ward having cast the largest vote for the Republican candidates for President at the next preceding presidential election, to be the Chairman of said Senatorial District until such time as said committee may elect a chairman.

FIFTH DISTRICT CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE.

In the Fifth District of Kentucky the Chairman of the Republican Executive Committee of each ward in the city of Louisville, or a representative to be elected by said ward committee, together with three representatives from Jefferson county, outside of the city of Louisville, and the District Chairman shall constitute the Fifth District Congressional Committee. The members representing Jefferson county, outside of the city of Louisville, shall be elected by the members of the county committee representing the precincts of said county outside of Louisville, and said Congressional Committee members must be residents—one of the Eastern, one of the Central, and one of the Western portion of said county.

FOURTH APPELLATE COURT DISTRICT COMMITTEE

The Congressional District Committee of the Fifth Congressional District shall be the Appellate Court District Committee for the Fourth Appellate Court District.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE.

The County Committee of Jefferson county shall, in December of each year, elect five persons as an Advisory Committee, who shall serve for a term of one year. Vacancies in their number shall be filled by said County Committee. The members of said committee are to be selected because of their fitness, practical experience in politics, and demonstrated ability to advise in matters of law and policy affecting the welfare of the Republican party. Said committee is empowered to effect a permanent organization of the party throughout said county, and the City and County and Congressional and Circuit and Appellate Court Districts embraced therein, to adopt such measures as may be deemed proper to obtain financial means for effecting and continuing said organization, and for co-operating with such campaign committees as may be hereafter appointed, and in order to accomplish such purposes, said committee may appoint sub-committees of organization in each ward, magisterial district and precinct of said city and county, giving due preference in such appointments to the members of said county committee and of the various precinct committees. The object of said committee shall be to effect such a thorough organization of the party in each precinct in said territory as will insure the success of the party.

KENTUCKY PRIMARY ELECTION LAWS.

DEFINITION OF PRIMARY ELECTION.

A primary election, within the meaning of this article, and as used in this chapter, is an election held within the State, county, city, district, or subdivision thereof, as the case may be, by the members of any political party, or by the voters of some political faith, for the purpose of nominating candidates for office.

HOW ELECTIONS CONDUCTED.

All primary elections held in this Commonwealth by the various political parties shall be held and conducted in the same form and manner and under the same requirements as are or shall be provided by law for the holding of regular State elections, except in such particulars as are herein excepted.

OFFENSES AGAINST—PENALTIES.

Any act or deed denounced an offense by the general laws of the State concerning elections shall also be an offense in all primary elections, and shall be punished in the same form and manner as is provided for the punishment of similar offenses by the general laws; and all the penalties and provisions of the general laws shall apply in such cases with equal force, and shall be as effective as though fully set out in this article.

HOW ELECTION ORDERED BY COMMITTEE.

Whenever it shall be desired by the committee or governing authority of any political party to hold a primary election under the provisions of this article, said committee or governing authority shall, at least forty days prior to such primary election, give public notice thereof, by posting such notice at the court house door and at least twenty other public places in county or district. Such notice shall state the date of such proposed primary election, the hours between which it will be held, the offices for which candidates are to be nominated, and the places at which polls will be opened at such primary elections,

QUALIFICATION OF VOTERS.

That all persons who are legal voters shall have the right to participate in such primary elections, subject to such additional political qualifications as may be prescribed by the committee.

PARTY AFFILIATION—PROVISIONS FOR REGISTERING.

In order that none but those affiliating with and being members of any political party shall participate in any primary election held by such political party, a system for the registration of such persons is hereby provided, and such registration shall be conducted in form and manner as follows, to wit: In all cities and towns, of whatever class in which a registration law is in force under the provisions of the general law governing the regular State elections, there shall be set aside on the regular registration books used for the purpose of registering persons who are qualified to vote at the next regular State election, space for the registration of all persons who may desire to take part in any primary election held by any political party. Such space shall be provided on the regular State registration books, immediately following the last perpendicularly ruled column in such books, and shall be headed as follows: "Party Affiliation." It shall be the duty of the judges of such regular State registration to ask each person who applies to be registered the question: "What political party do you desire to affiliate with?" And the name of the political party given by such person so applying to be registered shall be recorded in the column provided on the books of registration for that purpose. In case any person applying to be registered does not desire to state his party affiliation, he shall not be required so to do, nor shall his failure so to do act as a bar to his registration for the purpose of voting at any election held under the provisions of the general election law. The committee or governing authority of any political party desiring to hold a primary election under the provisions hereof, or any person authorized by such committee or governing authority, shall have the right to copy into books provided by the committee or governing authority the names of all persons registered on the regular State registration books as affiliating with such political party, a book being provided for each precinct of the city or town in which it is proposed to hold such primary election; and the names of all persons registered in each precinct on the regular State registration book or books, shall be copied into the book or books provided by the committee or governing authority for such precinct, together with the residence of each person so registered. In case the committee or governing authority of any political party, desiring to hold a primary election under the provisions hereof, should decide to hold such primary election previous to the time set for the registration of voters for that year, under the provisions of the general law, the party registration for the previous year shall govern at such primary election. Any person or persons who were necessarily absent from the city or town of their residence during the entire time of such regular State registration, or any person or persons who were too ill to attend such registration, or who were prevented therefrom by sickness or death or other calamity in their family, or any person or persons who moved into such city or town since the date of the last preceding registration, and who have resided continuously in the precinct in which they apply to vote for sixty days next preceding such election, shall be allowed an opportunity to register at the time and in the manner set forth herein, as follows, to wit: Any person who was prevented from registering at the regularly appointed time for any of the above-named causes, may apply at the polls of the precinct in which he resides at the primary election, and make affidavit before the officers of such primary election, who are hereby authorized to administer oath or affirmation thereto, and certify the same that he was prevented from registering at the regularly appointed time, and the cause for such failure shall be set forth in such affidavit. In all such cases the person so applying to the officers of the primary election for registration shall, in addition to his own affidavit, produce the affidavits of at least two well-known and reputable residents of the precinct, setting forth reason or reasons for the failure of such person to attend the regular registration. In all cases where illness is given as the cause for failure to so register, the affidavit of some reputable physician setting forth the fact shall also be produced. The officers of such primary election shall then register the name of the person so applying in the registration book for the precinct on the page immediately following the last page containing the names of those regularly registered; and opposite each name so registered at such primary election shall be marked the words "Specially registered," and such person shall thereupon be allowed to vote. In case the name of any person who was registered at the regularly appointed time for registration, as affiliating with any political party, is from any cause omitted from the list of names copied from the regular registration books into the primary registration books, such person shall be allowed to vote upon producing a certificate from the custodian of the regular registration books setting forth the fact that the name of such person does appear upon such registration book.

REGISTRATION BOOKS--PENALTY FOR MUTILATING, OR ADDING, OR ERASING NAMES.

Upon the completion of the copying of the names of all persons entitled to vote at any primary election from the regular State registration books into the primary election registration books, the person or persons copying such names shall sign his or their name or names to the primary election registration book or books immediately following the last name registered therein, and any one who shall thereafter add any name or names to the list of names contained in such book or books, or who shall erase therefrom any name or names, or who shall otherwise change or mutilate such book or books, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon indictment and conviction in the circuit court, be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in the county jail not less than sixty days nor more than one year.

REGISTRATION BOOK--PERSON WILFULLY MIS-COPYING--PENALTY.

The person or persons appointed by the committee or governing authority of any political party to copy the names of those persons entitled to vote at any primary election from the regular State registration books into the primary registration books shall, before entering upon the discharge of such duty, be sworn by some officer authorized by law to administer an oath, to faithfully and honestly discharge such duty, and any person so appointed by the committee or governing authority of any political party to copy such names who shall register any name or names in such primary registration book or books not registered in the regular State registration book or books, or who shall willfully refuse to copy any name or names entitled to be so copied from the regular State registration book or books, into the primary registration book or books shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon indictment and conviction in the circuit court, be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, and imprisoned in the county jail not less than sixty days nor more than one year.

REGISTRATION BOOKS—DELIVERY OF.

that he is the person whose name is so registered, they shall enter the word "Voted," after his name and he shall then be allowed to vote. No person whose name is not contained in such registration book or books, except those hereinbefore mentioned who were specially registered, shall be allowed to vote or participate in such primary election.

PROVISION WHERE NO REGISTRATION REQUIRED.

In all counties, districts or precincts in which no registration is held under the provisions of general law, all legal electors shall have the right to vote at any primary election held by any political party, if they conform to the conditions and qualifications prescribed by the committee or governing authority of the political party having direction and control of such primary, by applying at the polls of the precinct in which they reside, and making known the fact that they conform to such conditions and qualifications as have been so prescribed. In case the officers of such primary election be in doubt as to the right of any person to vote, such person shall be sworn by the judges of election, and if, after examination as to his right to vote, he be allowed to vote, the word "Sworn" shall be marked on the stub of the ballot containing such person's name. Any bystander may also challenge the right of any person to vote, and in all such cases, such person whose right to vote is so challenged, shall be sworn and examined as hereinbefore set forth.

ELECTION OFFICERS—APPOINTMENT—OATH—POWERS—DUTIES AND PENALTIES.

The officers for each election precinct, in all primary elections held under the provisions hereof shall be of the same number as is required and designated by law to hold regular State elections, and their duties and responsibilities shall be precisely the same as those of legally appointed and regularly qualified officers of regular State elections. They shall be appointed by the regularly organized and constituted committee or governing authority of the political party holding such primary election, and shall, before entering upon the discharge of their respective duties, take the same oath required to be taken by officers of regular State elections.
