

3rd June 1887

My Dear Wife,

under full hopes that you arrived safely on time at Ince—I write the second time since we parted.
Sula came up ^{Angora} yesterday morning, and she has shown great house keeping qualities. Mary returned yesterday and has shown much industry also. They have cleaned up dining room-hall & our room and the stable boys have cut out the grass in the basement, washed the porches &c.

Your stationary arrived & it is at home safe.
The equine family are pretty good, no serious complaint. Pishus is throwing through slowly.

I enclosed a postal ~~at~~ to David Waldo yesterday from Hayker to me engaging Ginger Pop to Longfellow next season—

So far all goes well, and with kindest wishes for Nettie I am ever affectionately yours

John M. Clay
