

MAYOR'S OFFICE

CITY OF CHICAGO

CARTER H. HARRISON
MAYOR

Dec. 9th 1912

Miss Josephine Clay,
Lexington, Ky.,

My dear Cousin,

I do not know of a portrait of Col. Wm. Russell being in existence. I have sent your letter to my brother Preston, who is better posted on family matters than I am, with the suggestion that he correspond with Mr. Linsberry and give him such information as he may possess relative to the life and public services of Col. Russell.

I do not believe that the old house on the Haggan property is "Mount William". I have always understood it to be "Clifton", the house built by my father in the early fifties.

Sincerely yours,
Carter H. Harrison
