

To Miss Josephine,
Many rays are on thy fair brow,
In bright effluence cast around;
May calm; and gentle thoughts, as now and sweet content thy life surround
May God above, his grace impart
To thee. lead, protect and bless,
May true exalted glory thee begirt,
Securing peace and happiness.
Thus wisdom's unfading ^{enshining} wreath will thee
That adorns, create the heart divine.

Alabama at Sea.

Latitude 20.50 N, Longitude
95.42 West.

May 11th 1851.

Robt. W. Foster