

Oakland 25th Aug. 1835

My dear Sir

I introduce to you and Mrs. Lewis my youngest son John M. Clay who, on his way from Puncheon to K. will pass through Philadelphia, and ask the favor of your friendly attentions to him.

I shall be greatly obliged if you or Mr. Rockhill will tell him of any gentleman in K. coming home, with whom John can travel.

With constant regard

Wm. D. Lewis Esq
