

3 - If so may I not confidently expect to see you tendering your services - I am in the very early part of the city not far from the Treasury building on New York Avenue No 1391

But where is my long letter, I think you had much to say, it is not yet made, but I shall be glad to see it before long - Be pleased to press me off as soon as to a late of my business, and to be in the room

Yours affectionately

My Very Dear Aunt

In this packet is receipt of your most valuable letter of yesterday's date The description given by yourself of your great description of scenery was so familiar to me, and so highly prized, that I do not account of its in truth to be a copy of them by a person of strange mixed composition that I cannot give a full and true description to you it was - Truly your Nephew that is filling up the measure of my delight to be with you, and wishing you, that it cost you more trouble than I can desire to impose, for though you describe with the richness and
