My Dear Wife,

Your kind favor of the 13th inst this moment to hand, on my return from the Race Course where I went to exercise the Grey & S Box. She is doing fine, but Aneroid was beaten Tuesday & will be again this afternoon, his leg is bowed & he goes shod & stiff. He will not go to Memphis, but I have found other Company for S.B., Byron who got beat 3 in 5 yesterday but is better than I thought her. All are well & we leave this evening at 7.30 via Decatur. I expect to arrive at Memphis R.C. tomorrow at 3 p.m. I did not wish to travel on Sunday, but necessity I thought required it. I wrote to you last night by Pat
