ABOUT THE LIBRARIES

The Agriculture Library has a 1977 Yearbook of International Organizations they would like to give away. Any branch or department interested should call Toni Powell.

ACTS Education Committee Continues its Tours

The ACTS Education Committee is sponsoring two tours of the Interlibrary Loan Dept. on February 15th and 16th, 1979. Both tours will be at 2:00. The Interlibrary Loan Dept. is located on the 5th floor of King South. To sign up please call Nancy Hammond at 233-5949 or Olivia Buckner at 257-3831.

Japanese Papermaking at the University of Kentucky

The Art of Japanese papermaking will be explored via demonstration, lecture, and workshop at the King Library Press, M.I. King North on the University of Kentucky campus from 1-5 pm, Friday, February 23.

Timothy Barrett who studied the art in Japan for two years under a Fulbright will be conducting the events. Mr. Barrett worked with Kathryn and Howard Clark at the Twinrocker Hankmade Paper Mill, and assisted in making custom papers for Jasper Johns, Robert Motherwell, and Claus Oldenburg. Currently he is conducting research under a National Endowment for the Arts grant and working on a book to be published by Henry Morris of the Bird & Bull Press.

The fee for the afternoon is $10.00 and reservations are needed. Call the University of Kentucky, 258-9000, David Farrell, or Joan Davis ext. 32521.

CORRECTION

Ron Greene, student assistant in GPD, was the doodler for last week's Green Bean.

ALA PRIZE ARTICLE COMPETITION

Round V: November 15, 1978 to April 15, 1979. Rounds V and VI will have three prizes. For complete information, see November 1978 American Libraries.

AMERICAN HISTORY MONTH

Gov. Julian M. Carroll has designated February American History Month and has urged all organizations and schools to emphasize the study of American History throughout the celebration period.

Carroll said in his proclamation that a review of our history may provide inspiration for Kentuckians to emulate their forebears, who believed their actions would create a better world for themselves and those who would follow. Children should be encouraged to study our history, Carroll said, in order to become responsible citizens.
