Thursday night

William P. Perry, Jr.

my Dearest Bill,

When I got up this morning I was sorry that I hadn't planned to meet you for breakfast. It was a pretty day after all. I hope you weren't mad at me for asking you to do it my way. It might have been a good idea after all. I hope your trip wasn't too bad and that you didn't run into any rain.

Bill I can't thank you
