

have any chance to get out of marring me.

I got your Tuesday's letter and was ~~so~~ glad to hear from you. I didn't mean to sound so depressed in the Thursday's letter & you were answering but it was one of those bad ~~letter~~ days. I shouldn't grieve about such things but since I felt like it I did all of it in a letter to you. You are so sweet and I hope you don't mind. The reason I worry about Ec. Geo. so much is that Daddy say no diploma no marriage licence.

of course I wouldn't go all this time and not get the diploma just because of five hours. I just don't want to have to take it next quarter. I couldn't stand three more months in this place.

Being with mother

Tonight made me think even more about our marriage.
I won't even let myself think about the possibility of you not being able to get a degree after O.C.S. It is funny how we were in love for a long time and then marring you became more than a dream.
Now it is something that just
