KITTENS WIN ONE POINT VICTORY OVER FLASHY LIEUTENANTS OF CENTRE

Fourth Time Out Called Gives Free Throw to Kentucky

PASSING OF TEAMS GOOD

Stevenson and Hendricks Are High Point Men For Freshmen

With only twenty seconds left to play the Centre Lieutenants lost their own game by calling time out for the fourth time which gave the Kentucky freshmen a free shot and when play was resumed Captain Scrivner, of the Kittens, tossed the goal which gave Kentucky the margin of a 25 to 24 score. On the next play the Freshmen got the ball from the tipoff and held it until the final whistle.

The game was close and hard fought from the start with the first half ending 13 to 11 in favor of the Lieutenants. At the start of the second half the Centre Freshmen started the scoring and at the middle of the half things looked mighty dark for the Kittens. About five minutes before the end of the game Stevenson was substituted for Hendricks, and immediately upon his entrance the light began to shine for Kentucky. He was very successful in breaking the Lieutenants' passes and was responsible for three goals, two being from the center of the floor.

Both teams passed well, with Centre having the best of the first half. Johnson was high point man with 14 points and also played the best game for the losers. Captain Scrivner, as usual, played an excellent game at the back guard position. Much credit is due

PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY OPENED CONCERT SERIES

Delightful Program Given At Romany Theatre Sunday Afternoon

The Philharmonic Society of the University gave their first concert at the Romany Theatre Sunday afternoon to an enthusiastic and appreciative audience, both townsfolk and students. This concert opened a series which will be given this year by the Society in co-operation with the Civic League and the MacDowell Club of Lexington in their Music Memory Contest which began February 18.

The program rendered by the University musicians was well arranged and consisted of the following numbers:

- Overture, "Caliph of Bagdad" ----- Boildeau
- Symphony ----- Haydn
- Piano Solo—Etude ----- Liszt
- Benlah Stillwell
- "Romance" ----- Rubenstein
- Selections from "Tannhauser" ----- Wagner

The entire program was greatly enjoyed but the audience seemed to enjoy the selections from "Tannhauser" and "Romance" more than any of the other numbers.

The Philharmonic Society was re-

FRESHMEN, NOTICE!

At a meeting of the Sophomores last Wednesday afternoon the following resolution was agreed on and passed:

Be it resolved, That: The men of the Freshman class of September, 1923, and February, 1924, will be required to wear the standard freshman caps as provided for by the Men's Student Council.

Further, that said men shall have these caps in their possession by March 1, 1924, and shall wear them at all times, thereafter, so long as they are freshmen.

Further, that these caps shall be purchased at the University Book Store. (Signed): Sophomore Class.

'WHISKERS,' MASCOT OF WILDCAT TEAM, DIES

Found Dead in Cage After Kentucky-Georgia Tech Game

The Kentucky-Georgia Tech basketball game played in the University gymnasium Saturday night was too exciting for "Whiskers," the Kentucky mascot.

The Wildcat died during the game, being found dead in its cage under the spectators benches as the crowd was leaving.

Whiskers, the tamer of the two real wildcats sheltered in the Kentucky camp because the athletic representatives of the University are called the Wildcats, was apparently well and happy a few minutes before the game, according to two students who took him from his cage and played with him.

Sometimes during the struggle, while the closely jammed spectators were cheering on the Wildcat team, Whiskers died. Perhaps he gave up the ghost when Tech, starting like a whirlwind, ran up a nice lead before his human namesakes got started, maybe he had heart failure when Jimmie McFarland sent one of his sensational shots sizzling thru the drapery—or it may be he was tickled to death when State won.

MANY MEMBERS OF FACULTY TEACH IN SUNDAY SCHOOL

According to a recent survey made by Bart N. Peak, student Y. M. C. A. secretary, more than seventy members of the faculty of the University of Kentucky are either Sunday school teachers or officials, members of church boards or teachers of Y. M. C. A. Bible classes.

Questionnaires were sent out last week to 235 members of the faculty and the business staff of the University, and 105 answers have been received. The reports show that there are fifteen Sunday school teachers and seven Sunday school officers. Twenty-three are members of church boards, eleven of them being men who are not included in the two groups mentioned above. Twenty-four faculty members formerly were Sunday school teachers or officials. Two, not included in the above groups, are members of Y. M. C. A. or Y. W. C. A. boards and eleven not included in any group are teachers of "Y" Bible classes. Of the business and administrative staff, one is a Sunday school officer, and ten formerly were officers or teachers.

MARJORIE WARDEN, who has just appeared in A. A. Milne's "Mr. Pim Passes By," the second play to be produced at the Romany Theatre, is receiving praise from the critics for her clever interpretation of the part of Olivia Marden. Miss Warden is recognized as an actress of remarkable ability and has made an enviable place for herself in the hearts of Lexington theatre-goers.

FRED J. MURPHY, NEW HEAD COACH, COMES TO TAKE CHARGE OF TEAMS

Will Be in Charge of All Varsity Squads Except Basketball and Track

HAS 3-YEAR CONTRACT

Says Mental Attitude is More Important Than Beef

Fred J. Murphy, new head coach of all varsity teams, except basketball and track, arrived on the campus Monday afternoon, having driven through from Chicago, in an automobile, where he has been coaching Northwestern. He will assume charge of his work here March 1.

Murphy has a three-year contract with the University and will live here during the duration of the agreement, and devote all of his time to the development of his Wildcat charges. He plans to start a series of lectures on football at once and as soon as the weather will permit he will hold spring practice on Stoll Field.

Murphy is a psychologist when it comes to football. He says "it is his mental attitude that makes a football player, any man who is reasonably well developed physically can play football, provided he has the right mental attitude. While a man with the wrong idea about the game no matter how well endowed physically, will be a failure."

A wonderful lot of material will greet Coach Murphy, when he makes his first call for candidates for the squad, men who for the most part were on the varsity last year, and those from the freshman squad of the past year.

The support of the entire student body has been pledged to Murphy and the sincere wishes of every Cat supporter for a successful season next year.

JUNIOR PROM POSTPONED

The Junior Prom has been postponed to March 21. All Senior boys are requested to bring either Junior or Senior girls and all Senior girls are requested to come with either Junior or Senior boys.

EASTER HOLIDAYS APRIL 17-22

There seems to be a widespread rumor on the campus that the spring vacation will be omitted this year because the date of Commencement has been changed. According to Prof. Gillis, Registrar, there has been no official action to this effect.

The regular Easter holidays will begin Thursday, April 17 at 8 a. m. and continue to Tuesday, April 22, at 8 a. m., as stated in the catalogue.

DR. FUNKHOUSER SPEAKS AT DENTISTS' MEETING

Makes Plea For Increased Interest in Research Work

A plea for more interest in the research work being carried on in Kentucky, Dr. Funkhouser spoke of the interesting mounds in Scott County and in other counties in which have been found relics and skeletons of the ages before Daniel Boone crossed the Cumberland mountains. Details of the care of the bones and relics found, in order to preserve them, were explained. In order to keep it in a state of permanent preservation a bone must be carefully treated.

By the shape of the jaw and skull bones one may determine the age of the man and in what period he lived. The formation of his skull and the bones of his body give interesting and valuable information concerning the prehistoric man. Other details of the work in which Dr. Funkhouser is interested were given and his address was closed with a plea for the leading men of the country to realize the importance of the research work.

Drs. W. F. Walz and M. B. Guthrie, both of Lexington, made a report on the work that was done on behalf of the dental society in killing senate bill 286 which was to make it legal for a man who had practiced dentistry for 15 years to obtain a license without taking the required examination.

Plans were discussed in connection with holding the National Dental Convention in Louisville, in the summer of 1925. About twenty dentists from Lexington, Paris, Winchester, Nicholasville and Carlisle were present.

STUDENT NIGHT POSTPONED

The co-ed stunt night which was to have taken place Friday, February 29, has been postponed to Friday night, March 7. Tickets can be obtained either at the University Book Store or from Margaret Chenault.

CATS TAKE HARD GAME FROM GEORGIA TECH. IN LAST FRAY AT HOME

Yellow Jackets' Passing Attack Proves Hard to Overcome

MILWARD IS HIGH MAN

Kentucky's Varied Attack is Responsible For Victory

The Wildcat basketball squad closed its home season last Saturday night with a stirring victory over Georgia Tech, the score of 33 to 27. Tech started off with a bang and led Kentucky 5-0 before a minute of the game had elapsed. After a short conference, however, the Cats came back and at the end of the half were on top of a 17-10 tally.

Tech has a wonderfully fast team. At the outset of the game the Yellow Jackets launched a passing attack that enabled them to score two field goals. Then they deserted their passing offense and resorted to a dribbling attack which was completely frustrated by the Wildcats. Tech was handicapped when Eckford, center, was removed from the game soon after the start, with an injured ankle. Eckford was a necessary cog in Tech's passing system and the Yellow Jackets were never as effective after his removal, despite the fact that Wilde, sub center, played a very good game.

Kentucky's victory was largely a result of her varied attack. Tech could never manage to form a defense that could stop the Cats, for Coach Buchheit has perfected three styles of play which are used throughout the game. The Cats started off as usual with their weaving short pass, but as soon as Tech began to break up this style,

WILDCATS ENTRAIN AMID CHEERS OF ENTHUSIASTS

Eight Players Leave Southern Station For Atlanta Tournament

Amid the cheers of a large crowd of friends and supporters gathered at the Southern Station to see them off, the Wildcat basketballers entrained Wednesday night at 10:30 o'clock for Atlanta, Ga., where they go to participate in the Southern Conference tournament. The rooters clearly demonstrated to the players that they had full confidence in them.

The Wildcats arrived in Atlanta Thursday morning and held a light workout in the gymnasium where the tournament will be held in order to accustom themselves to the playing floor.

Strong opposition in the form of the North Carolina Tarheels is the allotment of the Blue and White team for the first game to be played Friday night at 9 o'clock. The Tarheels have not been defeated this season and present one of the strongest lineups in the tournament. The Wildcats are undaunted and will enter the game with confidence.

The squad taken to the tournament consisted of Coach Buchheit and the

ALUMNI EMPLOYMENT BUREAU PLANNED

The University has been considering for some time the idea of starting an employment bureau for the members of the senior class. The idea of serving former students and alumni in the same manner by means of the alumni office has been considered seriously in connection with this plan. The idea evolves itself into the possibility of an endless chain by which every alumnus would stand in a position of willingness to help members of the senior class and alumni find suitable employment.

Ohio, Illinois and Vanderbilt Universities have employment bureaus of this nature which have proved helpful to the students.

A committee was appointed last March by President Frank L. McVey to investigate the possibility of organizing an employment bureau at the University. The committee reported that the different colleges at the University practically all have their own employment bureaus now. According to the committee the Alumni Office could handle the work of such a bureau if additional funds were available to finance it.

Early in February the Buffalo Club wrote the Alumni Office that the club was making plans to obtain employment for seniors this spring, especially engineers and chemists. Such interest is very commendable on the part of the members of the club. It is a spirit which would be becoming in any of the alumni clubs. If such action was taken by all the clubs with the alumni as the central broadcasting station the alumni and seniors could all be placed to advantage.

The College of Engineering has placed all its graduates for many years and often helped alumni make desired changes. An alumni employment bureau need not conflict with this plan but rather co-operate with it as well as with the other colleges.

Almost all of Professor Grehan's journalists find positions in Lexington or in the state, with his assistance.

The College of Education will eventually have calls for all its graduates in high schools and educational institutions in the state. Prof. Edward Wiest in the department of economics has undertaken this year to assist seniors in his department to find positions suitable for their individual inclinations. Prof. Wiest has prepared a questionnaire for the students, to be used in making application to the corporations with which he will correspond in regard to placing men.

The plan of a central employment bureau to co-operate with the alumni clubs and the colleges of the University in serving alumni and the graduating class each year presents itself as an opportunity, not of casual interest, but of permanent importance.

THE ALUMNUS CHANCE FOR SERVICE

The University is composed of the teaching force the administrative force, the alumni (former students, both those who graduated and those who did not) and the four classes. The members of the four classes progress to the honorary degree of alumni, and they will, as alumni, continue to receive instruction and inspiration from their Alma Mater. An organization of them will be more effectual in realizing in the lives of the alumni the traditions and spirit of the institution. But the spirit of the institution will work through the association to bring about many acts of assistance and support. Through the association the administrative force will receive suggestions and guidance. Through the association the instructors will be enlivened and encouraged to greater and more intelligent service. Through the association, the members of the four classes will be instructed in the proper manner and form of student life, the customs of association, and the character of manhood.

The association of alumni has both a sentimental and a material value. It will continue the good of the past through the present, and stabilize it for the future. It will enable the combined material strength of the entire student body to be delivered at those points where the greatest benefit can be accomplished for the University. It will carry over from student generation to student generation that which has been developed and accumulated in former days and so make a continuous line of student life. For the members of the four classes are, through the alma mater, but the younger brothers and sisters of the alumni.

The association of alumni will advise the trustees and president. It will act as an intercessor at the bar of the state; it will suggest the needed legislation; it will foster the public confidence and admiration; it will procure needed facilities; it will endow adjunctive institutions; it will correct evil and destructive trends and propensities of each age.

The association of alumni will be a means of keeping open the line of communication and obligations of comradeship between the alumni themselves and between them and the instructors and between them and the four classes. It will act as an intelligence bureau and correspondent, and foster good feeling and union. It will preserve the memory of those who have gone and will hail the oncoming.

Lyman Chalkley.

WASHINGTON CLUB PASSES RESOLUTIONS ON BOND ISSUE

A copy of resolutions endorsing the $75,000,000 issue because of the incalculable value it would be to the University and other institutions of the state was recently received from the Alumni Club, of Washington, D. C., of which Jesse I. Miller is president. The resolutions follow:

Whereas, a bill providing for a bond issue of $75,000,000 for the benefit of the State University of Kentucky and other public institutions is now pending before the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, and

Whereas, the funds contemplated to be raised by said bond issue are urgently required for a proper maintenance of the institutions involved, and

Whereas, the State University is performing a service to the citizens and future citizens of Kentucky of incalculable value and is being seriously embarrassed in the execution of its obligations by a total lack of adequate funds;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the University of Kentucky Alumni Association of the District of Columbia endorse the aforesaid pending bill in every particular, and

Be it Further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to the clerks of the Senate and House of Representatives of the General Assembly of Kentucky.

LEBANON CLUB ELECTS

W. W. Ooley, class of '17, better known as "Pete," was elected president of the Marion county alumni club at Lebanon the last meeting of the club, held February 16. Pete is a graduate of the agricultural college and was considered one of the best of the banners class, the A's of '17, but since the war he has been in the lumber business at LLebanon.

Jo Evans, class of '23, was elected secretary and treasurer of the Marion Club; Frank Lancaster ex-13, vice-president, and Clyde Harrison and Robert Mattingly placed on the executive committee of the club.

The letter from the new president of the club said, "While the attendance at this last meeting was small we were encouraged by the addition of one member, C. M. Hook, who is teaching at Bradfordsville this year. None of us knew he was in the county but he had seen the notice of the meeting in the county paper and drove nine miles over a rough road and in a very disagreeable weather to be present."

The Marion Club is anxious to have the University Glee Club go to Lebanon for a concert some time this spring.

Betwixt Us

Dr. Lloyd C. Daniels, for several years a member of the faculty of the University of Kentucky, is a member of the University of Kentucky Alumni Club at Buffalo, N. Y., designated a "friend of organization." Dr. Daniels is also an associate member of the general alumni association. He is a chemist with the National Aniline Company, having accepted this position in 1918. His address is 60 Granger Place, Buffalo, N. Y.

'92

Mrs. Charles K. Morrell ex-, nee Mildred Walby, is living at 119 East Maxwell street, Lexington, Ky.

'96

Added to the list of active members is the name of Miss Alice L. Duck. She is an instructor in music and her home is at 173 North Broadway, Lexington, Ky.

'99

Professor Wren J. Grinstead, of Eastern Kentucky State Normal School, Richmond, Ky., was a visitor in the Alumni office Saturday. Professor Grinstead is head of the department of Foreign Languages at the Normal College, but the major part of his teaching now is in education. He had charge of the Latin courses at the summer session at Columbia University last summer. The summer of 1924 he will have the Latin courses at Peabody College, Nashville, Tenn.

'03

Cornelius Railey Lyle, who is assistant manager of the Armstrong Cork and Insulation Company at Pittsburgh, has been with this firm practically ever since receiving his B. M. E. degree in '03. In 1911 he also received the M. E. degree from the University of Kentucky. His address is 5436 Stanton Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa.

'04

Except for the year 1919-20, when the World War interfered with many organizations, the name of Madison B. Porch is on the list of active members of the Alumni Association. His record as chemist with H. J. Heinz Company, Pittsburgh, is the same unbroken line except for well deserved promotion from time to time. Mrs. Porch was formerly Mary Chockering. They have four children, Genevieve, six years old; Ruth, four; Ella two and one-half, and one future wearer of the Blue and White, James, aged eight months. The residence address is 545 Orchard Avenue, Bellevue, Pa.

Another alumnus whose record shows an unbroken line except for the World War period is William Jay Schoene, who, for many years, has been State Entomologist, with headquarters at the Experiment Station, Blacksburg, Va. To get a little ahead of the game he has even paid dues for 1923-24. He doesn't intend to miss a single issue of the Kernel, evidently. Mrs. Schoene was Miss Rena Belle Yankey, of Lexington. Their home is at Blacksburg.

'08

"There seems to be favorable opinion in regard to the $75,000,000 bond issue throughout Kentucky and we Cleveland alumni trust it may be passed. The writer hails from Richmond Madison county, and still operates the old home farm there, and I for one would vote to increase taxes to improve roads and assist in financing the University."—H. L. Cornelson, sales engineer, The Austin Company, 16112 Euclid Ave., Cleveland, O.

Charles Jablow is one of the many loyal alumni and supporters of the Alma Mater who keeps his name continuously on the "active list." He received his B. M. E. in '09 and M. E. degree in '12. Until 1918 he followed the teaching profession, holding the position of assistant professor of Mechanical Engineering in Oklahoma A. & M. College. During the World War he went with the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Company at Pittsburgh, and now holds the position of railway mechanical engineer with that company. Mr. Jablow married Miss Frances Mae Train, December 23, 1912. A future wearer of the Blue and White and a fair co-ed complete the family—Warren Train Jablow, seven years old, and Alice Gertrude, four. The residence address is 137 A. Westinghouse Plan, East Pittsburgh, Pa.

"I enclose my check for part payment of my subscription to the Greater Kentucky campaign fund. I trust that all goes well with the building program and that the University of Kentucky will get the much needed aid to enable it to take its place alongside sister schools of other states so it can take care of the youth of Kentucky desiring higher education."—J. J. Fitzgerald, European Manager, Armstrong Cork Company, Avenida de Miraflores, 34 Apartado No. 51, Sevilla, Spain.

"I enclose check for payment in full of my pledge to the Greater Kentucky campaign fund. I wish that I could give more."—Alma Faulkner, Candler High School, Candler, North Carolina.

'13

That Kentuckians make good "boosters" wherever they go is evidenced in a copy of the Evening Independent of St. Petersburg, Fla., recently received in the Alumni Office. L. C. Brown, '06, is managing editor. The paper carries a cut and story of Edgar H. Dunn, '13, which begins thus: "Once there was a man who decided to move to the best spot in the world so he would never have reason to move again. So eventually he came to St. Petersburg." Mr. Dunn is now one of the prominent attorneys of the city of his choice, and is senior partner of a new law firm, Dunn, Agee and Bryon, which has its office in the Hall Building. He had practiced law in Hazard, Ky., very successfully from 1913 to 1919, when he removed to Florida. Mr. Dunn resides with his wife and five children, Kathleen Lee, Marjorie Ellen, Carolyn Edna, Edgar H. Jr., and Hunter Rollins, at 730 Roser Park Drive.

'15

The Kentuckian said of John Thomas Gooch "Tis of more renown, to save a client than to storm a town."—John Thomas really expects to be a good lawyer. He was prominent in student activities, being president of the Democratic Club, president Henry Clay Law Society, and of the Union Literary Society. He is now successfully practicing law at Madisonville, Ky., and is an active and interested supporter of his Alma Mater.

'18

"I am enclosing second payment on pledge. As I expect to be stationed here some time please change my address."—Henry W. Borntraeger, ex-1st Lieut. Inf., U. S. A., Ft. Wadsworth, N. Y.

Society Calendar

Saturday, March 1—Pi Kappa Alpha's formal dance, Phoenix Hotel.

Alpha Tau Omega fraternity's Founders' Day banquet, Palm Room of Phoenix Hotel.

Takes Prominent Role

Mr. William I. Moore, of Clay, Ky., a student at Purdue University, was one of the leading characters in a play, "The Tailor-Made Man," which was given at Purdue recently by the Little Theatre Players of the University. The Little Theatre is one of two major dramatic organizations at Purdue, and specializes on small plays, giving one larger production each year. Mr. Moore is a good amateur actor, and played the part of Dr. Sonntag in the production. He took part in dramatic productions at the University of Kentucky, where he was a student before going to Purdue. He is a senior pharmacy student at Purdue and a member of the Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity.

Mr. Moore is well known in Lexington and is a brother of Mr. Wycliffe Moore, a present senior at the University of Kentucky.

The ivy won't save any of us

THE ivy of tradition is a slender support. A man or a team or a college that clings to it, harking back to the glories of yesterday, is likely to be outstripped by some young but sturdy rival.

That is a sermon we have taken home to ourselves.

The Western Electric Company is proud of its fifty-four years of history. But it is a great deal more concerned with the next fifty-four—and that is why we have been talking to the college men of America month after month now for four years.

The future of this business depends not so much on the physical equipment we have built up as on the mental equipment which men of your generation are building—on your habits of study and conduct, on your right choice of a profession and your proficiency in it. So we have made suggestions for your guidance, with the conviction that they can help you—and us.

Press of Commercial Printing Company

KERNEL'S AMBITIOUS PROJECT

At a meeting in Frankfort last week between a committee of the Kentucky Press Association, appointed for that purpose and a representative of the Kernel, to devise some plan by which a printing plant could be established on the campus and operated by the Kernel, initial steps were taken.

For the last several years the Kernel has felt the necessity of having its staff workers and its printing department in closer physical relationship and for that reason has been trying to work out some plan by which it could purchase at least a linotype machine and a press large enough to handle the Kernel. The Department of Journalism that the editors of the state became interested in the project of getting this equipment as there is a dearth of young newspaper men in Kentucky who are acquainted with printing details sufficiently to make them thoroughly efficient in the getting out of weekly or even daily publications.

Dean Boyd, of the College of Arts and Sciences, is much interested in the project of procuring this equipment and is lending his aid to that end.

Several plans were suggested at the recent meeting in Frankfort. One was to seek to induce the Watterson memorial committee to appropriate some of its funds for this purpose but a representative of this committee who was present gave the surprising information that no such funds had yet been collected. It was then suggested that in its June meeting the K. P. A. be asked to approve and help to promote a stock company to be named the Kernel Publishing Company, and sell sufficient stock to members of the association and to interested alumni to supply the needed funds.

The Kernel was able, the session of 1922-23 to show a surplus of $800.00. With similar experience the current session it should be able to show a like surplus. With this as a nucleus to make first payment on machinery we believe that the Kernel could, with the help of such a stock company as proposed, make the project a success. It believes that it could save somewhat on its present expense account; that by being close to its plant it could produce a far better paper and that in addition to this it could subject this plant to use for instructional purposes for the Department of Journalism.

We desire to set this matter plainly and frankly before the friends of the paper, Alumni and others, in the hope that we may be able, with the generous assistance of the Kentucky Press Association, to realize this year a dream that has long obsessed the publishers of this paper.

The Kernel will be pleased to hear from alumni who may be interested in this project to the end that their Alma Mater may be able to serve them with a better University newspaper.

"WHISKERS" SPIRIT "CARRY ON"

Saturday night as the Cats came on the floor amid the cheers of a packed gym, prior to their basketball game with Tech which they won by a safe margin, all were in high spirits; even the talismanic cat, "Whiskers," was purring a soft purr of contentment as he watched his charges limber up for the fray.

As the affair progressed with its ups and downs, "Whiskers," the mascot, sat haunched in his cage, following the game and dreaming of the trip to the tournament with all the keen anticipation of one of John Fox Jr.'s characters in the Kentucky mountains when he dreamed of a trip to the "settlements." The dreams of the latter were fulfilled, but those of poor "Whiskers," that dauntless champion with an uncrushable spirit, which could be quenched only by death, did not culminate so happily.

As the shrill blast of the timer's whistle stopped the struggle between the two teams, "Whiskers" keen ear caught the first note and his body stiffened only to fall limp to the bottom of his cage. "Time" had been called for him, the end of his only game had come, and without a whimper he died, displaying the same courage that had made his champions famous throughout the Southland.

"Whiskers" will not go to the tournament but the spirit which the little creature always displayed will carry on with the team that represents his Foster Mater. The boys will be spurred on and guided by reflection upon this sacrifice of his freedom for the privilege of being their mascot, and the only whistle we hope that will stop them at Atlanta, is the one of the time keeper in the final game announcing their opponents' defeat.

CATS TAKE HARD GAME FROM GEORGIA TECH IN LAST FRAY AT HOME

Captain Rice ordered his men to use the long pass, Milward being the keystone man in this style. Then Kentucky retaliated with Tech's own game, the dribble, and Bill King came into his own. Though King was often successful in dribbling through the entire Tech five, he and his teammates missed many easy shots which should have been made.

Roane, the Georgia captain, was the outstanding player of the game. This man, who last year was given a place on the All-Southern five, is a great dribbler, an accurate shot, and a sure passer. Unfortunately he was removed from the game shortly before the final whistle because of personal fouls.

Summary and lineup:
Georgia Tech 27      Kentucky 33
Roane 10 ..... F..... McFarland 6
Matheson 5 ..... F..... Underwood 8
Eckford 2 ..... C..... Milward 11
Moore ..... G..... King 8
King 10 ..... G..... Rice
Substitutions: Tech—Wilde for Eckford, Kentucky—Reifkin for Underwood, Hughes for Milward.
Referee—Lane, of Cincinnati.

After the Sigma Nu bowling party on G. Wash's birthday one of the girls said, "I'm a little stiff from bowling." Then Robin comes right back thusly, "Where did you say you were from?"

cently organized and bids fair to become one of the most popular organizations on the campus. The orchestra is composed of twenty pieces, directed by Professor C. A. Lampert. The equipment is better than ever before and much interest is being manifested in the Society. The audience and the orchestra alike were delighted with the Romany Theatre and pronounced it an ideal place to hold a concert of that character.

The next concert will be given a week from Monday.

following eight players: McFarland, Reifkin and Underwood, forwards; Milward and Hughes, centers; Captain Rice, King and Boren, guards.

Bill King reported his ankle in much better shape just before his departure and it is thought, that with careful attention, the star running guard and all-Southern forward will be able to participate in the first game of the tournament. Milward is still suffering with his right foot, in which the arch is broken down, and may not be able to start Friday night's game. The rest of the Wildcats are in good shape.

FRED O. MAYES '23 DIES AT MT. STERLING HOME

Appendicitis Followed By Pneumonia is Fatal to Graduate

Fred O. Mayes, '13, died at his home in Mt. Sterling on Monday, February 4, of pneumonia following an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Mayes had almost finished his work at the University of Kentucky in 1918 when he enlisted in the great World War. He was stationed at Quantico and being a member of the Marines. Later he contracted tuberculosis, against which he won a gallant fight. In 1918 Mr. Mayes married Miss Mary Ricketts of Mt. Sterling. Mrs. Mayes is a graduate of the University of Kentucky. Fred completed his work by correspondence and took his degree last June. They have one child, Fred Marston Mayes, now four and one-half years old.

Mr. Mayes came to the University from Washington county. He had graduated from the Springfield High School, of which George Colvin, at that time, was principal. He made a record at the University as a student and won honors in literary work, being selected a member of Canterbury Club for excellence in creative work. Both Mr. Mayes and his wife were loyal and enthusiastic supporters of the University and the state has sustained a great loss in the death of this brilliant young man.

ENGINEERING NOTES

Mr. J. W. Crenshaw, a member of the graduating class of 1922, visited the University for two days this week. When a student he was president of the Men's Student Government Council of the University. At present he is engaged in engineering work with the State Highway Department of Illinois.

Mr. L. L. Lewis who was graduated from the College of Engineering with the class of 1907 was a welcome guest at the University last Monday. Mr. Lewis is now secretary of the Carrier Engineering Corporation of Newark, N. J., but before going to the Carrier organization was for two years instructor in the Department of Mechanical Drawing, at the University.

The shops of the College of Engineering, under the direction of Mr. Stephen Sawyer, head of the blacksmith department are busy building two 100 foot radio towers which were designed by the Department of Structural Engineering.

"The love of the Kentucky horse follows the Kentuckian where ever he goes." A picture has just been received showing Lynn B. Evans, of the class of 1915, now in charge of the Studebaker Distributing organization at Kansas City, Mo., gracefully mounted on his black saddle horse; a rather interesting spectacle of a distributor of an automobile company clinging to the element of joy in his youth—the horse.

Dr. Pryor (to a young lady in class)—"Madam your anatomy is defective."

"Sir!" she replied coloring, "the physical examiner didn't find it so."

ALL-AMERICAN MUSICAL PROGRAM GIVEN TUESDAY

Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia Society
Entertained at Chapel
Hour

The Alpha Gamma chapter of the Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia Musical fraternity of America presented an All-American program at the University chapel, Tuesday at the fifth hour.

The following program was rendered:
America.
Hilly Ho ..... Geibel
Glee Club
Ensemble ..... Nevin
Tenor Solo—Beautiful Dreamer... Foster
Robert Clem
Violin Solo ..... Selected
Prof. Lampert
Peggy ..... Ralph Cox
Glee Club

Meaning of Sinfonia .... Prof. Martin
The program was one of the best ever presented at chapel and was heartily applauded by the audience.

In his talk Professor Martin gave the meaning of Sinfonia and several interesting facts about the fraternity. The Sinfonia Society was organized in 1898 at the New England Conservatory in Boston Mass. Later other chapters were granted and at the present time there are 28 chapters in all. The Alpha Gamma Chapter was the thirteenth chapter to be given. The object of the fraternity is to increase and better the interest of music, to encourage all that is good in music, and it aims to honor the men who do their best for music. Prominent members of the fraternity are McCormick, Caruso, Suicranie, and Moore.

It was announced that the pledging exercises will be held at a later date.

GIRLS DEFEAT WESLEYAN FOR BASKET BALL TITLE

Display Alert Game in Winning 19-9—Kert is High Scorer

The Kittenettes clinched their claim to the title of State Champions by decisively defeating Wesleyan 1919 at the local gym Monday, February 25. The Kentucky quintette has the only clean slate in the state and by defeating Peabody one of the strongest teams in the south, lays claim to the Southern Championship.

The Kittenettes did not hit their stride until the second half, and Wesleyan made 7 points to Kentucky's 6 in the first half. In the second half Captain Wilson held the opponents under their goal, and the good floor work of the Kentucky team put them in the lead. Kentucky was not up to form on the shooting and missed many easy shots at close range.

Kerth scored high making 7 points. Klopp played an excellent offensive game in Kentucky's end of the floor. Helm and Wilson displayed stellar work on the defense in the second half, and Keifer played a steady game on the defense and offense.

Summary:
Kentucky Kerth 7.....F.....Harned

THE LONELINESS OF LEADERSHIP

When the cry for leadership is answered the criers are never satisfied. The leader is always a lonely man. That ancient sufferer "trod the wine press alone" and "of the people there was none with him." Concerning Jesus it is said that "the disciples forsook him and fled." In the garden of Gethsemane H had the faithful three, but even they slept while He prayed. We cannot measure the loneliness of Calvary. Every leader since His day has had to tread his own lonely path. But worse than that he is ever a victim for the sniper. Criticisms, bitter, biting and unjust are often made of him. The poison needles of hate puncture his soul. He suffers from the blindness of prejudice and the littleness of narrowness, and the fires of jealousy. His reward must ever be in the joy of work. He must find his supreme satisfaction in the heart of his endeavor. But in every lion's den and fiery furnace he may have the companionship of "one like unto the son of man."—Exchange.

KITTENETTES WIN EASILY FROM CHATTANOOGA FIVE

Southerners Score Only One Field Goal—Subs Hold Opponents

The Kittenettes overwhelmingly defeated Chattanooga University with a score of 28-6 Friday, February 22. Chattanooga is the second Tennessee team which Kentucky has played and defeated this season.

Chattanooga scored one field goal. They could not stop Kentucky's offensive tactics or break thru their defense with repeated dribbles. Klopp scored 11 points, and Kerth came second with 10 points. Wilson played a stellar game on the defense, but the team was not pressed to display its best. At the end of the first half the score stood 17-5, and victory was reasonably certain. Kentucky's substitutes went in the last quarter and held the Chattanooga quintet. Hill scored 6 points in 8 minutes of play, and played a fast offensive game.

Summary:

FAMOUS HARPISIT WILL APPEAR AT AUDITORIUM

Alberte Salvi Will Close The Sixth Annual Concert Series

In the joint recital to be given in Woodland auditorium next Monday night at 8:15, by Alberte Salvi, the world's greatest harpist, and Carolina Lazzari, leading contralto of the Metropolitan Opera Company, will bring the Sixth Annual Concert Series to a brilliant close.

The musical critic of the Chicago American said, "In my eighteen years in Chicago, I have never heard such mastery of the harp as that of Salvi." "Salvi has revolutionized the harp, making it a one-man orchestra," says Musical America.

The New York World says "Carolina Lazzari deserves recognition equal to Galli-Curci. She has established her right to a place in the brilliant galaxy of grand opera stars which include Galli-Curci, Geraldine Farrar and others." Again she is compared to Schumann-Heink, with a rich timber of voice, a graciousness of presence, an amazing beauty of face and form. "None superior, few equal, as nearly perfect as mortal throat might permit," says the Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Mme. Eugenia Hubbard Nixon will be at the piano for Mme. Lazzari. Use season tickets for this concert. Others desiring tickets should write on phone to the Lexington College of Music. Prices for tickets are $1.10, $1.65, $2.20 and $2.75, war tax included.

We suggest a new name for the girls, by way of variety from the long worn out "skirt," "dumbbell," "date" and "rib." We offer "The Painters."

Four records were broken at the Kappa house this week by Miss Esther Gilbert when she slipped on a banana peeling that someone had carelessly thrown on the floor, thinking that they were at home. The records broken were "Two-Time Dan," "My Lover Come Back," "Kappa Sigma Sweetheart" and "Kiss Me Again," with "Freckles" on the back. It is not known definitely yet whether or the Southern Conference will take steps in this matter or not. It is the opinion of the authorities on the subject that such an opportunity should not be dropped or treated lightly for it may mean another championship for "old Kentucky."

"THE 'OLE HANGOUT"

After Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Elms were married they traveled to the lakes for their honey-moon. As soon as they arrived they took a boat out upon the lake.

The following morning Mrs. Elms mother received a postcard, which read:

"Arrived safely. Grand row before supper."

My! She muttered. I didn't think they'd begin quarreling so soon.

Mr. Squires—Why doth a married man liveth longer than a single man?
Mr. Caldwell—I don't know.

Mr. Squires—He doth not; it only seemeth longer.

Ward—Do you believe in heredity?
Mr. Lane—I certainly do. Why, for instance, is my little boy always trying to get his toes in his mouth if it isn't because of his dad's struggle to make both ends meet.

Palmer—But it will have to be a long engagement.

Howard—Dear, I'd wait for you until the soldiers get their bonus.

Dr. Grinstead—Why ar eyou lugging home that expensive box of candy?

Mr. Robinson—Just playing safe—my wife kissed me this morning, so I think it must be her birthday or our wedding anniversary.

Ed Denny—Of course, you read Ibsen?

Cowls—O, yes, but I don't like the way it ends.

Y.M. & Y.W.C.A. NOTES

The cabinets of the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. will entertain the Transylvania Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. cabinets Tuesday night in the Y. M. C. A. rooms. If you are a cabinet member do not miss this opportunity for meeting the Transylvania student workers.

The Y. W. C. A. will give a rummage sale, Saturday, March 1; and any donations of wearing apparel will be welcomed, as the Y. W. C. A. needs money and wishes to make this sale a success. All donations may be turned in at the office in Patterson Hall.

Doctor Combs will speak at the regular Y. W. C. A. meeting held Sunday night in the recreation room of Patterson Hall. Everyone is urged to attend this meeting, for Doctor Combs is a very interesting speaker.

LAW NOTES

The University Court, conducted by the Law Department as training for students, meets every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon on the third floor of the Science Building, and is presided over by Judge Lyman Chalkley. The criminal docket has been disposed of and the court is now engaged in hearing such civil cases as require a jury. After the completion of the jury trials the court will hear such equity cases as appear. All persons who so desire, are invited to attend these trials.

Professor and Mrs. H. L. Scarborough, of the College of Law, are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a new daughter, Dorothy Ann, on February 25. There are now three attractive little girls in the Scarborough family.

The following card has been received by former students and friends: "George W. Meuth announces the opening of his office in the McElroy building, Bowling Green, Ky., for the practice of law, February, 1924." Mr. Meuth was a prominent member of the class of 1923.

ANTI-TYPHOID INOCULATION

By Dr. W. N. Lipscomb
 The resident physician, Dr. W. N. Lipscomb, is prepared to give the inoculation against typhoid and paratyphoid A or B or vaccination as it is usually called. Students are urged to take advantage of this protection. No charge is made.

As a city Lexington is apparently safe and the City Health Department is to be congratulated. However, there are many cases in Kentucky as a whole, especially in the rural districts.

The method is by hypodermic, three injections being given at intervals of one or two weeks, the average being ten days. The "soreness of the arm is not severe, especially if the patient avoids strenuous physical exertion for the following twenty-four hours. The scar or "sore" is not left, in fact no trace remains on the skin after a few days. The government requires this procedure in the army and navy, as of the R. O. T. C. summer camp applicants.

This invitation is for your protection; the statement has been set forth, the decision lies in the individual student.

NOTICE!

The Kernel can use one or two more men on the business staff. Any man wishing to do this kind of work please come to the Kernel office at the fifth hour Saturday.
