

ployed other persons but indicated that they did not employ high school principals. The remaining twenty schools reported that they employed other persons of suitable training in addition to members of the resident faculty, but did not indicate whether they employed high school officials or not, but not a single one mentioned the high school faculties as the source from which they drew their non-resident staff.

(4) That unless the plan of the Extension Department is to expand by the use of high school principals as the chief source for the non-resident faculty, no great harm will be done by the adoption of the proposed limitations, which can be removed at any time when the Senate is convinced that such limitations stand in the way of the right kind of university extension."

Section 8 was amended to read as follows:

"Persons engaged in secondary education should not be employed as extension teachers, except principals and superintendents, who have had graduate work amounting to at least one year in the subject in which they are to give instruction."

The following recommendations from the College of Agriculture were approved:

- ✓ Farm Economics 111. Agricultural Prices. Three credits. First Sem.
- ✓ Farm Economics 112. Farm Finance. Three credits. Second Semester.
- ✓ Drop Home Economics 103a, Foods and Nutrition, 6 credits.
- ✓ Add Home Economics 3, Foods and Nutrition, 4 credits (required subject)
- Remove Home Economics 21 and 104 as optional required subjects.
- ✓ Add S102, Soil Management, 2 credits, for benefit of summer school students. The course deals with results of recent experimental work.

Emil J. Quinn
Secretary

MINUTES OF THE UNIVERSITY SENATE

March 8, 1926

The University Senate met in the Little Theatre March 8, President McVey Presiding.

The minutes of December 21 were read and approved.

The Committee on Courses of Study reported that they had had a meeting to consider courses of study submitted by the different colleges and asked permission to call on the heads of the departments for the content of all courses submitted for their consideration, together with the courses that had already been authorized. President McVey stated that the committee was empowered to ask for this.

The question was asked if requests for changes in numbers and titles of courses should be presented to the Committee on Courses of Study. President McVey advised that they should, and the committee was empowered to make such changes without being required to report to the University Senate.

The request for the privilege of organizing a local fraternity, Phi Beta Nu was approved.

Senate approved the organization of a group to petition a national social fraternity.

The request for the privilege of establishing a chapter of Phi Beta Kappa was approved.

The following recommendations from the College of Arts and Sciences were approved:

"TO THE SENATE: The College of Arts and Sciences asks for approval of the following action which was taken at its meeting on January 18, 1926:

1. The provisions for independent work are modified to read as follows:

A senior whose standing for his junior year has been not less than 2 may, with the approval of his major professor, register for independent work and count toward graduation credit in such courses not to exceed 12 credits. At the close of the semester, he is required to read a report covering the term's work, before the department offering such an independent-work course.

2. Paragraph 4 of the provisions governing the combined Arts-Law and Arts-Medicine courses are modified to read:

He must spend at least one full year in the College of Law of the University of Kentucky, or in a "Class A" Medical School.

3. The requirements for the A. B. and B. S. degrees shall be so amended that the upper-division requirements for a minor shall be 20 credits in one department or 10 in each of two, in either case exclusive of courses open to freshmen. However, in individual cases a course open to freshmen may be counted on the minor if such be approved by the Heads of the major and minor departments concerned."

Ernest J. Hill
Secretary