CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Mr. Lancaster became Rupp's assistant coach in 1948. He helped develop many of Kentucky's stars. During his reign Lancaster brought John Ray and Fran Curci to UK's Football program and was instrumental in the appointment of Joe B. Hall as Rupp's replacement. The Blue-White Fund was begun with the move to Commonwealth Stadium and expanded when Wildcats moved to Memorial Coliseum. Many other projects and accomplishments highlighted Mr. Lancaster's career.
