January 2012

In compliance with KRS 164.250, I am pleased to provide you with the 2011-2012 Fact Booklet, a collection of current facts and statistics about people and programs at the University of Kentucky. Many items in this booklet are of interest to our stakeholders and the general public, including statistics on enrollments, retention, research expenditures, and faculty salaries. A summary of the 2011-2012 Operating and Capital Budget is also included in this electronic publication.

The University of Kentucky had a banner year with the fourth consecutive year of increased enrollment and second consecutive year of record enrollments. Over 28,000 students were enrolled at the University, including historically high numbers of undergraduates and doctoral students enrolled in professional practice programs. UK also attracted record numbers of African-Americans and international students enrolled in undergraduate programs. Hispanic students have doubled since 2006 and our total population of international students has tripled in that time.

We received a record number of applications, more than 15,000, for admission to the fall 2011 semester – a 12 percent increase over the previous year. Over the last several years, we have increased the size of our undergraduate student population while attracting more talented first-year students. The fall 2011 freshman class set two new UK records by presenting a 3.63 high school GPA and average ACT composite score of 25.4. The fall-to-fall retention rate of the previous freshman class surpassed 80 percent for the fourth year in a row.

The University of Kentucky's mission is based on a profoundly important idea that a nationally and internationally renowned university can be the catalyst for change and growth in the 21st century. That mission – our promise to Kentucky – has never been more vital. As Kentucky's flagship, land grant research university, we remain steadfast in our effort to find creative solutions to complex challenges; to provide the best education to our students; to create a campus culture that is responsive and supportive of our faculty and staff; and to uplift people and communities across the Commonwealth.

As we continue our ascent, we hope to build a better University of Kentucky, and through it, a better future for our state.

Sincerely,

Eli Capilouto
President

MISSION

The University of Kentucky is a public, land grant university dedicated to improving people's lives through excellence in education, research and creative work, service, and health care. As Kentucky's flagship institution, the University plays a critical leadership role by promoting diversity, inclusion, economic development, and human well-being.

VISION

The University of Kentucky will be one of the nation's 20 best public research universities.

-- Adopted by the Board of Trustees, June 3, 2008

ENROLLMENT - Headcount and Full-time Equivalent

UK Libraries' collections also include access to approximately 450 licensed networked electronic databases, over 69,000 electronic journals and over 550,000 electronic books accessible in the University's 12 libraries and also available to faculty and students off campus via a proxy server. In addition, the collections include: 264,000 maps; over 200 current state, national and international newspapers; nearly 8,000 interviews in the Louis B. Nunn Center for Oral History; the University Archives and Records Program; the Wendell H. Ford Public Policy Research Center; the Audio-Visual Archives; the Bert T. Combs Appalachian Collection; the Public Policy Archives; the Rare Book Collection which includes the W. Hugh Peal Collection of 19th century English and related literature; and the Preservation Reformatting Center. The Center for Digital Programs creates digital content for the Kentucky Digital Library including electronic texts, digitized photographs, images and archival finding aids. UK Libraries is a regional depository for U.S. government publications, and also a depository for Canadian government publications and European Union publications. British Parliamentary Papers, Kentucky government publications, and technical reports from federal agencies are all selectively collected.
