Married Vets Most Studious Cooperstown Men Get Best Grades

A recent survey conducted by the University personnel office shows that married veterans in Cooperstown made the highest average scholastic standings on the campus last quarter.
Study of a cross-section of 300 veterans and 300 non-veterans indicated the following trends:
1. Married veterans in Cooperstown made highest standings.
2. Of the entire group, 28.3 per cent failed to make a standing of 1.0 while 18.1 per cent made standings of 2 or higher.
3. Unmarried veterans were lowest in academic standings.
4. The entire group, 28.3 per cent failed to make a standing of 1.0 while 18.1 per cent made standings of 2 or higher.
The study further revealed that veterans as a group made lower standings than non-veterans on their entrance tests, but their scholastic records in the past year were better. Dr. Lytle Croft, Dr. Lytle K. Henry, and Mr. John Freeman will present these results before the psychological section of the Kentucky Academy of Science at Bowling Green tomorrow.

Law College Overcrowded

"We're not planning to admit new students to the College of Law in January or in the summer quarter of 1948," Dr. Alvin E. Evans, dean of the college said this week.
Comprising the enrollment of 150 students in the law school in 1938 with the enrollment of 219 students there during the winter quarter of 1947 will give an indication of the overcrowded conditions in the classroom this year.
To continue to enroll new students in the law college during the quarters indicated would mean the employment of another instructor, and the need for additional classrooms would arise, according to Dean Evans.
A total of 19 students are expected to graduate from the University law school during the months of June and August.

Jim Wood Appointed

Jim Wood, journalism senior from Beckley, W. Va., has been appointed managing editor of The Kernel to succeed Casey Goman. Editor Pat Burnett, has announced.
Miss Goman resigned to accept a position with radio station WLEX.

Music Festival Draws 5000 To Campus; 125 State High Schools Represented

More than 125 high schools are represented here with over 5000 students and their teachers on the campus for the 22nd annual state music festival. This is one of the largest gatherings ever to assemble in festival history of top rated high school musicians who have received national ratings in regional festivals held throughout the state earlier this month.
The festival's opening day program was devoted to auditions for the instrumental ensembles, which will be organized under the direction of Prof. George F. Strickling, director of musical activities at Eastern Kentucky University. The festival will be held at the University Heights (Ohio) high school. The chorus traditionally is composed of more than 200 voices from approximately 60 high schools, and the concert presented by the group at the close of the festival annually highlights the vocal section of the program. The concert to be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in alumni gymnasium, will be open to the public.
Other activities of the vocal-piano section are planned for today and tomorrow. In the Bluegrass room of the Student Union building at 9 o'clock this morning, 50 students complete their ratings of superior and excellent in making a quartet singing, and mezzo-soprano singing.
At the same time in the music room 50 other students are to be engaged in singing soprano, alto, tenor, and baritone. The training school audition will be the scene of activity by eight tenor, ten bass singers, massed mixed quartets from 15 schools and a capella group singing by nine schools entire.
Piano events scheduled for

The news editor reserves the privilege of deciding which stories are worthy of individual display as separate items and which are to be included in "Faculty Personal."

Engineers Elect Hayes Chairman

Peaceful Voting Follows Storm Of Campaign
By Martha Evans
Election of officers for the University student branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers came off with a bang Tuesday morning.
Bob Hayes of the Radical party was elected chairman for the ensuing year. Other elected who survives the throes of campaigning were: secretary-treasurer, Paul Stock; secretary-treasurer, Bill Baxter; and Engineering Student Council representative, Eugene Ambrose. Stock and Ambrose are from the Radical party; Baxter is a member of the Progressive party.
The comparatively quiet election was only the calm after the storm. Last week's session was long and stormy, featuring long speeches by H. D. Insper, chief campaign manager, and Ted Rutimer, Progressive party manager. They also introduced their candidates, who were simultaneously cheered and booed, with some of the same people both cheering and booing the same party. It even ended in a riot mid singing.
But the week it was different. Both candidates and campaign managers confined themselves to short talks mostly devoted to "thank you so much for the votes you are going to cast for me."
Give 'Em Parties
Except Hayes, The Radical party, said he, is well named. His side was planning parties a "picnic at Booneboro as a party at the Radicals, order your own drinks. He got elected, too.
His recent speech there was loud applause from the campaign manager of the side speaking. Each candidate was careful to spell his name for the engineers who, they seemed to think, knew more about "Radicals than spelling books."
In explaining the duties of the Engineering Council representative to be elected, Chairman Howard G. Stewart was careful to distinguish between the Engineering Student Council and SGA. While the representative is a member of SGA, he is not the office he was elected to Tuesday morning.
The entire section of Memorial hall was filled with filled with approximately 200 men and three hundred women. The hall and the general public, many elected officers in their own right.

Peak Jr., all of Lexington; Jefferson D. Canvill, Ashland; George E. Jones, Hurray, Vernon A. Hopkins, Paduch; Clarence Reynolds, Wilmore; William W. Schick, Stearns; Walter W. Alton, Milburn; John D. Goodlets, Hazard; Eugene D. Korak, Philadelphia; Cecil J. Baker, Central City; Harry J. Macke, Newport; and Darrell E. Ward, Hartford.

ROTC Inspection Set For May 13

Annual federal inspection of the campus ROTC unit will be held May 13. Inspection will start with a review and practical work on the front campus from 8 to 9:50 a.m. Members of the ROTC will be examined in theoretical instruction in subjects covered this school year.
Five regular army officers will conduct the inspection, which, in former years, lasted for two days but this year has been concentrated to a one-day period.

Durrell Hancock, Veterans club head, said Wednesday that his organization is leading a campaign to gain support for the addition of a flying course in the arts and sciences college.

Election Is Tuesday Students To Elect New SGA President, Vice President, 19 Assemblmen

By Frederick Nichols
Students in all colleges will vote Tuesday in the regular spring campus-wide election to select the president and vice-president of the Student Government Association and 19 other college representatives to the SGA assembly.
A departure from the usual procedure of having one voting place for the entire student body, five voting booths will be set up over the campus to facilitate the balloting of the increased student body and to attempt to draw more interest to the election. Keith Dosker, chairman of the SGA election committee has announced.
The four voting precincts are the study hall, the engineering quadrangle for students enrolled in the College of Engineering; the Student Union building "Y" lounge for arts and sciences and graduate students; the student room in the Agricultural building for students in the College of Agriculture and Home Economics; the law building for law students; and White Hall for commerce students.

All the voting places will be open Tuesday from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. except the one in the law college, which will be open from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m.
When their ballots, all students are to vote for the president and vice president of SGA, and below that, for representatives from the various colleges.

SGA has adopted the rule that there shall be no electioneering by anyone, including the election officials, in the vicinity of the polling during the balloting and there are to be no sample ballots in the polling places.

Results of Tuesday's election will be announced at the SGA convocation for Ellis Arnall Wednesday.
In statements released to The Kernel yesterday, the two candidates for president, Jerry Eastham, Independent, and Claude Sprows, Constitutional, invited students to vote for their respective parties to bring out a heavy vote on Tuesday.
Eastham stated: "The great possibilities of student government are being lost to the SGA controlled by a fraternity clique and elected by social organizations. I have never said, 'Control the clique'; I say, 'Defeat the clique'. . . I call upon the Independent students to take their majority right in student government. Vote-make Tuesday Independents Day."
Continuing the theme that only 24 per cent of the student body vote in the election, Sprows said: "We speak of the weaknesses of SGA, yet we shall see improvement only when students recognize a personal stake in their student government. To put SGA in its just place among campus organizations, complete co-operation from students must be counted an encouraging gain."
Candidates are listed on page five of today's Kernel.

Much Confusion Reigns In SGA, Reporter Finds

By Tom Duncan
The Student Government Association assembly voted—more or less—approval of the setup of a proposed freshman handbook Monday night at an alleged meeting in the Student Union building.
This so-called meeting, which George Smith, co-editor; Fred Nichols, editorial section editor; Helen Deiss and Bill Harbaugh, section editors; and Tom Duncan, section editor, were in attendance, was a "business" matter, as it can be assembled on any university campus. From my contact with them, I believe them to be young people possessing high ideals and of good character.
"I personally know of no student on our campus who solicited SGA actively soliciting bids on the part of the University and I would be glad to appear before the Grand Jury and ask that they be indicted."
"I believe the Grand Jury should have found out who is soliciting bids, and if they do, they should be indicted. I believe that the Grand Jury should have found out who is soliciting bids, and if they do, they should be indicted. I believe that the Grand Jury should have found out who is soliciting bids, and if they do, they should be indicted."
"I believe the Grand Jury should have found out who is soliciting bids, and if they do, they should be indicted. I believe that the Grand Jury should have found out who is soliciting bids, and if they do, they should be indicted."

Too Little, Too Late

Blow-up story which was announced at 8:15 o'clock on assembly hall opened the door. Since this reduced the number in attendance to less than a quorum, the official session should have stopped right there. But no such luck. The session was long and stormy.
A report from the freshman orientation committee was then accepted.

Seven Persons Dropped

But between 7:30 and 7:50 o'clock seven persons—Betty Bries, Jim Trotter, Arrett Mann, Lewis Hart, Wesley Prichard, Catherine Goman, and Karl McKnight—were dropped from the assembly roll. With this shrewd piece of strategy these seven persons of government had maneuvered themselves into being a quorum. So, after 50 minutes of bench-warming they became the first team—now they could play for the SGA assembly.
The governmentalists promptly voted to toss $500 behind the new unified freshman handbook. It seems this is the same idea that SGA announced about a month ago was practically implemented—but don't get it wrong, these handbooks are now under a completely different administration and set-up.

Quite An Honor

Backed by SGA, Panhellenic council, House President's council, Veterans club, Student Union board, YMCA, YWCA, women's dormitories, and men's dormitories (indistinctly) SGA put up an extra $500 bucks for the men; the book is to be under the supervision of an advisory board.
The board is to be composed of representatives from each of the organizations. Martha Yates and Betty Ann Shropshire, and Tommy Underwood.

Ellen Wood Elected President of SUB

Ellen Wood, arts and sciences junior, recently was elected president of the Student Union Board for the coming school year.
Other officers elected were: Frances White, vice president; Betty Ann Shropshire, and Julia Broadbent, secretary; and John Broadbent, treasurer.
Five board members were elected to the board in a recent campus election. They are Charles Whaley, Mary Ann Shropshire, and Betty Ann Shropshire, and Tommy Underwood.

Ellis Arnall To Speak To UK Student Body Wednesday Afternoon

Former Governor
To Speak On South; Classes Dismissed
Ellis Arnall, former Governor of Georgia, will make two addresses in Memorial hall Wednesday. The first, "The South, Today," will be presented at 2 p.m. before a student convocation. The second, "Whither Country Is This, Anyways?" will be at 8 p.m. Seventh hour classes will be dismissed.
The afternoon program will include installation of the new Student Government Association president, vice president and 19 assembly members. Howard Stephenson, retiring president, will preside. Mary Keith Dosker, retiring vice president, will give the invocation and benediction.
Mr. Arnall, the youngest man ever to be governor of any state, graduated with honors in the University of Georgia law school with first honors. While in school he served as class president, president of the fraternity council, and president of the law society. In 1922 he was elected to the general assembly of Georgia where he was chosen presiding officer of the house of representatives.
After serving as assistant attorney general and as attorney general, he became governor of Georgia in January, 1943. In 1942, the United States named him one of the ten outstanding young men of the year.

Donovan Declares Charge Of Betting Is Not 'Fair'

Grand Jury Reports Students Soliciting Bets For Bookies
President Herman L. Donovan yesterday afternoon declared that a report of the Fayette Circuit Court Grand Jury that University students were soliciting bets for a Lexington handbook and miscals the public.
The jury had reported that students were "actively soliciting bets for a 'leading Lexington handbook' but said it was unable to 'run down this evidence as to names and places in order to make an indictment.'"
Donovan replied if there were evidence of bet solicitation the individual students should have been named and not the entire student body.
"If the Grand Jury had any evidence that students are soliciting bets for a handbook and miscals that these students are and should have indicted them. I have never heard of any student soliciting bets on our campus, and so far as I can find out this has been done for several years. It does not appear to me to be fair to University students in general to have their public and private impression that young men on our campus are engaged in soliciting bets. Such charges give the public the wrong impression of our student body."
"It is my personal opinion that we have at the University as a group of young men and women who can be assembled on any university campus. From my contact with them, I believe them to be young people possessing high ideals and of good character."
"I personally know of no student on our campus who solicited SGA actively soliciting bids on the part of the University and I would be glad to appear before the Grand Jury and ask that they be indicted."
"I believe the Grand Jury should have found out who is soliciting bids, and if they do, they should be indicted. I believe that the Grand Jury should have found out who is soliciting bids, and if they do, they should be indicted."

Psychologist Accepts Job

Dr. Pattie To Head UK Department
Dr. Frank A. Pattie, research psychologist at Rice Institute in Houston, Texas, Monday announced his resignation to become head of the psychology department at the University of Kentucky. He will assume his duties as dean of the College of Arts and Sciences. He will succeed Dr. Paul P. Boyd, the present dean, June 16, the opening date of the summer quarter.
The Grand Jury report, issued yesterday, follows:
"There is evidence before them (the grand jury) that a number of University of Kentucky students have actively solicited bids on the campus on a commission basis for one of the leading handbooks in Lexington. We are unable to run this evidence down as to the names of the students who have been solicited, and in a community such as we like to think ours is, should be stamped out at all costs. It is a reflection upon this community, as well as a disgrace to the State of Kentucky for such a condition to exist and for any bookmaker, or anyone else, to employ for such purposes."

Stag bids, in proportion to each chapter's size, will be issued to each fraternity on the campus, according to Bill Cowgill, chairman in charge of arrangements.
Banqueting will be from 8-12 p.m. Guests must present their bids at the door, Cowgill said.

The Spice Of Life

By Amy Price and Helen Dorr

There's a time for work and play. A time for gladness and sorrow. Then I'll do what I want today. And what I don't want to tomorrow.

Phil Della Timmy Underwood and Herbie Shed have organized what they call the Phi Delta Alumni Committee. They are thinking of extending bids to Sigma Chi, Beta Beta and Phi Kappa Phi because they meet the necessary requirements for membership.

What were the words that passed between Bonnie Dickson (KICK) and Charlie Noel (PDT)? George Covington (PDT) has some talk ready any time KD Spaine Holden cares to listen.

What makes J. W. Davis (SAE) so knocked out over Thirta Libby Reynolds? Mary Ann Hunter wants to know. Carl Rathoff (KA) is trying to monopolize most of Virginia Steete's time.

The best job of playing the field we've seen lately is being done by Fred Nichols (SN). He's been squirreling up Troop (DD) and Mary Dismen Helveston (ADP) around town and is carrying on a long distance romance with a girl from his home town who goes to Virginia Intermont.

Congratulations, Lieutenant Colonel Martha Sue Crosby (KID); Joan Rehm (Independent) for being chosen band sponsor; and those 87 who made 3.0 standings.

Leonard Sallee (PKR) made good use of his brother Tommy Montgomery's pin by giving it to Jane Quisenberry. Leonard's own pin hasn't arrived yet.

Ladies Day: Janet Sulzer (KAT) seemed to be quite captivated while on the SAE porch the other afternoon.

Tulle Gumm (DDD) caused slight commotion at the table-near-the-door of the grill a few days ago by merely walking past it.

When the Phi Sigs had the ping-pong set for Jay Fjordstrom and Carolyn Bishler (GTA); they made Jay participate in the serenade on his knees.

Seen Around Together: Betty Buck (ADP) and Jim Mokas (DTD); Champs Stott (SX) and Jo Anne March (ADP).

Phinnings: Carolyn Pogue (DZ) to Bill Hall (ATD); Landon Garrett (AGR) to Doreen Farrell; Mary Bannan (OT) to Bobby Blodgett (Phi Mu Alpha); Anne Park (KAT) to Bob Marves (SAE); Dot Thaworth (ZTA) to Carl Evans (SN); Juanna Warren (KD) to Woody Rowie (DTD); Joyce Buchanan (AGD) to Pete Squire (Tri-angle); John Vigne (PKT) to Harriet Freeman (Alpha Xi).

Engagements: Betty Jo Baehre to George Starke (from Louisville); Lee Winkler to Nicholas Nicholas (UL); Carol Demaree to Jim McCrocklin.

Much Confusion

politicians get wind of the news that the Student Union board has a nerve-racking $700 on the Louis Armstrong dance. Not wishing to donate that much to such a charity the assembly decided that a band in the $350 to $550 class was plenty good for the seniors anyway.

Let 'Em Starve

Next came plans for a dinner honoring Ellis Artall Wednesday night, between his two speeches in Memorial hall.

At 9 p.m. the meeting was adjourned. This reporter then suggested to some official-looking persons that some of the legislation passed after 8:15 o'clock was legal since no quorum was present. These persons, being well read in Robert's Rules

Wright Or Wrong

By Orman Wright

Good "reads" (journalists for the first paragraph of an article or news story) are extremely difficult to write. There must be millions of different kinds of leads and the writing of any one of them could conceivably drive a humble journalism student (after you've been up here four years you can call yourself a student) to distraction. Perhaps it is for this reason that so many established columnists start their columns with catch phrases or words like

POTPOURRI:

If you haven't read the editorial in last week's Kernel, you should immediately reread a copy and do so. The editorial was entitled "In Defense of the Kernel."

What the writer forgot to mention was that the Kernel (like every other newspaper) has a limited supply of newsprint. This is the reason many stories are omitted—lack of space. Complaints have been made that there is too much advertising. Because the Kernel hopes to be a daily soon, advertisers cannot be insulted, and even so, many ads are refused.

Guthrie Book On Exhibit

Currently on display in the lobby of the University library is the manuscript of "The Big Sky," a novel by A. B. Guthrie Jr., former executive editor of the Lexington Leader.

This is the initial showing of Mr. Guthrie's first historical novel scheduled for publication on April 28.

A history of fur trading in the west during the early 1800's, "The Big Sky" has its opening settings in Kentucky. The drama progresses westward.

Advance reviews of the book indicate that it will be high on book-sales lists after its release. Bernard De Voto, former editor of the Saturday Review of Literature, and now a member of the editorial staff of Harper's Magazine, said, "I find this book so interesting that it is difficult to express my admiration without being extravagant."

'Brains' Book Out Today

"Brains In Brains," annual publication of the Commerce Employment association, is expected to be available for distribution today, according to Dr. H. H. Carter, professor of economics and director of the association.

The magazine is issued each spring as an instrument of the association, whose aim is to aid its 86 members in obtaining positions in their particular field of commerce after they graduate this year, he said.

A half page of the magazine is devoted to each member, which includes his picture, a short biography, and the type of course that he has taken in the College of Commerce.

Over 3000 copies of the book will be mailed to interested persons and businesses all over the country.

The association is reorganized each fall with the collection of dues from its new members to defray the cost of printing the booklet each spring.

Psychology Club Chooses Officers

The newly organized Psychology club has chosen the following temporary officers: Louis Brown, president; Clara Jacobs, vice president; and Charles Hopkins, secretary-treasurer.

Three members will serve until May 12 when permanent officers for the ensuing year will be elected.

Meetings will be held each Monday night at 7:30 o'clock in Neville hall, club officers said.

A psychiatrist from one of the local hospitals will speak at the next meeting, April 2.

The club will entertain with a picnic May 5.

All psychology majors and graduate students of the department are eligible to join.

UK Athletic Club Planning To Crown Queen At Game

A "Miss K" to be chosen by the "K" club will be crowned at the club-sponsored blue-white football game on the night of May 9.

Candidates for "Miss K" representing each sorority and all women resident quarters will be selected next week by a club committee composed of Ed Landers, Rudy Yessin, Kenny Rollins, Alex Groza, and John Slough.

After the twenty or thirty original candidates have been chosen, all but six or eight will be eliminated and the final choice of the club will be made shortly before the game.

Bill Mosley, club president, stated that members hope the University will eventually designate one day of the school year as "K Day," to be an official school holiday, celebrated by day-long festivities and intramural contests, and climaxed by a blue-white game and a dance at night.

"Years ago 'K Day' was quite an event at the University and many other schools still celebrate such an occasion. It should be revived here," said Mosley.

By Em Asbury
Just in case you've been curious about these feminine shuffles and shouts emanating in back of Patterson between 3 and 5:30 o'clock each afternoon, calm your fears... it isn't a large scale massacre of the fairer sex. It's merely the annual sorority softball round-robin tournament.
To eliminate confusion, the ten sororities competing for the cup to be presented to the winning team at the close of the tournament, have been divided into two brackets. Composing the lower bracket are the ADP's, DZ's, ZTA's, AXID's and AGD's. The CHO's, KKG's, KD's, KAT's and DED's make up the upper bracket.
The ADP's, with wins over the DZ's, 21-3; ZTA's, and AXID's 13-3, gained the right to play the upper bracket winner for the championship next week.
Bad weather has slowed the play in the upper bracket. In the opening game the Tri Delta trimmed the KD's, 16-7. Jean Moore led the KD's attack with a home run in the third inning. The CHO's, who are leading in games played thus far, edged the Theta's Thursday, 12-10. The hard luck Theta's took it on the chin again Monday from the KD's, 12-9. Ruth Wilde paced the winners with a perfect day at the plate, including a homer with the bases loaded in the second.
The Kappas shut out the KD's Friday, 2-0, but fell before a charging CHO nine Tuesday, 6-4. Outstanding for the unbroken XO's are Kassenbrock, Burton, Hill and Hunter.
O yes, all you fellows are more than welcome to come watch!

Last week light workouts were held in Alumni gym under the watchful eye of A. F. Rupp for several high school cage stars of the past season. Most of the players were from Kentucky, Tennessee, Ohio and Florida. Only one or two showed enough promise to favorably impress poked-faced Adolph Rupp. During the summer, the Baron hopes to have a four-week tryout period with more high school boys and a few of the boosters who might be present at the time.
Jim Line, of the basketball team, has joined Coach Harry Lancaster and the Wildcat baseball squad as a pitcher. He makes the ninth hurler on the staff at present. Besides Line, there are Chambers, Wild, Barker, Crenshaw, Yankey, Allen, Hendrix and Hatchel, all being most improved players on the squad. Two new men whom the "Bear" said were showing up well are Dick Martin, a fast-moving 160-pounder back from Chicago, and Roy Ford, sandy-haired center from Anniston, Alabama.
Paul "Bear" Bryant said that the spring football workouts thus far have come along "pretty fair." Coach Bryant also stated that he believed Lee Truman, speedy half-back from Owensboro, is one of the most improved players on the squad. Two new men whom the "Bear" said were showing up well are Dick Martin, a fast-moving 160-pounder back from Chicago, and Roy Ford, sandy-haired center from Anniston, Alabama.

Coach Adolph Rupp has added another man to his stellar basketball team. He is Will Smathers, a forward from Middletown, Ohio. While in high school there, Smathers made All-State on the basketball team two years. He was recently discharged from the Army and is now struggling here.
Last Saturday, Jack Parkison surprised Rupp with a visit. During the 1945-46 campaign, the little Hoosier guard scored 329 points for the Wildcats and made All-American at the conclusion of the season.

Eastern Nine Plays Cats Here Monday At 3p.m.

A hapless Kentucky baseball team still striving hard to climb into the win column meets Eastern State Teachers here at Legion Park Monday April 28 at 3 p. m. for their next game. Student looks are good for admission to the contest.

The University of Cincinnati baseball team defeated the Wildcats Tuesday, 6-4, in a game played at Legion Park. The UC Bearcats got off to a good start, scoring all six of their runs in the first four innings, and this lead proved to be too much for the Wildcats to overcome.

Kentucky, with men on base, could not come through in the clutch and thus they suffered their second straight loss of the young season. Cliff Barker, first baseman, and Ken Rollins, center fielder, led the Cats at the plate, getting two hits each.

On the mound, Bob Hatcher started for the Bluegrasses, but was nicked for seven hits and six runs in the 3 and 4 innings that he tolled. Relief hurler Allen pitched steady ball after that and set the UC sluggers down without any further scoring for the rest of the game. UC scored two in the first with a single, a walk, and a long double to the left field fence. In the third frame, they added two more tallies with a double, then a long single, followed by a Texas leaguer in right-center field. The Bearcats finished their scoring in the fourth when they added their last two markers

Thirteen Kentucky swingers struck out in the game. In the extra base department, four doubles were hit by UK's Barker, Jay Cummins, Stough, and Beard. There were no triples or home runs in the fray by either side.

Kentucky scored in the third when Loustaman singled, went to second on an overthrow at first; then after two had been retired, UK's third baseman, Beard hit a long double to right for a run. In the fifth UK added another, when Barker doubled, and Allen singled him home.

The Wildcats scored their final tally in the sixth when Jay Cummins hit a double to right field, and scored on Cliff Barker's sharp single to center field.

In the ninth, UK threatened to score but failed. Beard started the frame with a fly to center. Stough hit a double to right, but Rollins fumbled the ball at first and the UC sluggers down without any further scoring for the rest of the game. UC scored two in the first with a single, a walk, and a long double to the left field fence. In the third frame, they added two more tallies with a double, then a long single, followed by a Texas leaguer in right-center field. The Bearcats finished their scoring in the fourth when they added their last two markers

UC's lanky left-hander, Bob Huber, was credited with the win. For Kentucky Hatcher was losing pitcher. W. Allen, relief hurler, gave up only 2 hits in the 5 and 6 innings that he worked.

Rupp Chooses Wildcats

A. F. Rupp, basketball coach, has decided to remain here at UK, in spite of several offers from professional basketball clubs in this vicinity. In a brief statement last Saturday, the Baron said that he had chosen to "remain here at Kentucky."

Tennis Team Plays Vandy

Kentucky's tennis team long hampered by wet weather broke into action slowly last Saturday and dropped their delayed opener to Sewanee, 9-0.

And again the first part of this week rain claimed three practice days, and put the Cats in the hole for their match with the Vanderbilt Commodores this afternoon on the Downing courts.

The hard luck racquetists will be gamely trying to even up the count when they engage the traveling Vandy team at 2 o'clock, but will enter the meet as underdogs. However, spectators should see some good tennis.

Berea college coached by Wilson Evans, runner-up in last year's Blue Grass tournament, is the next opponent listed on the Kentucky schedule. The Berea team will be here for a game April 30, if the weather permits.

Coch Ray Durham expressed hopes that his squad could pull these two games out of the fire and get in some good practice before tangleing with the balance of the schedule.

Beard Named All-American By Helms

Another laurel was added this week to Ruppel Ralph Beard's growing collection of honors when he was named to a guard position on the annual Helms' Athletic Foundation collegiate basketball team. He was the only Kentucky player named on the first team of Helms' 1947 All-American selections.

Beard was previously given the same honor on True Magazine's "dream team" along with being named the most valuable player of his year.

Alex Groza, rangy center and Kentucky's high point man for the season with 392, just one point more than Beard tallied, was named center on Helms' second team, but he might have rated a first team berth had he not been troubled with a back injury throughout the latter part of the season.

Other members of the 10-man first team included Gerald Tucker, Oklahoma; John Hargis, Texas; George Kalton, Holy Cross; Ralph Hamilton, Indiana; Don Barkedale, UCLA; Ed Koffenberger, Duke; Sid Tansbaum, NYU; Arnold Perrin, Utah, and Lelan Byrd, West Virginia.

Named with Groza on the second team were Charles Black, Kansas; William Gallow, Syracuse; Kenneth Shugart, Navy; Paul Hoffman, Purdue; Ephraim Rocha, Oregon State; Kevin O'Brien, Notre Dame; Herbert Wilkinson, Iowa; David Humeschouse, Bradley, and Daniel Kraus, Georgetown.

Two Grid Games To Preview '47 Team

By O. C. Halvard

The annual spring Wildcat intrasquad football game will be a two-fold affair this year as the preview of the 1947 Kentucky squad will be presented in two Blue vs. White contests.

Spectators who have become accustomed to getting a glimpse, or what the coaches have been doing during the winter months and what they may expect in part come fall, from these annual spring clashes will be treated to two first rate games that will bring together more than 60 candidates, who are battling for positions on a rejuvenated Wildcat team that promises to climb to the top of the conference ratings soon.

The first meeting of the two squads will be next Thursday night, May 1. The game will be conducted under the auspices of the Lexington Salesman's club. Tickets to the general public will be $1.00 with student ticket books.

Thursday night's game is scheduled to start at 7:30 under the new lights on Stoll Field. In case of rain, however, the game will be postponed until Friday night.

The second Blue-White clash will be put on by the "K" club with all benefits going to the club. This contest is scheduled for Friday night, May 8.

"K" Club Beauty Queen

Wash Serini, publicity man for the "K" club, and senior tackle on the squad, said plans are in the making to name a "K" Club beauty queen. The club's choice which will be made from contestants submitted by the various sororities and dorms will be announced at half time in the second intersquad game.

Coach Paul Bryant is welcoming the two frays as an opportunity after several weeks of practice to see what some of the promising individuals can do along a team work line. Although the squad has not been divided as yet for the first game, he stated that he believed he would group a number of the boys who had been showing up individually and see if they could work together.

Furthermore, Coach Bryant doesn't intend to sit in the stands this year as he did last year and let the assistants handle the work. Instead he plans to be on one of the benches where he really can tell what the boys have got to offer.

Rhodemeyer-Ulinski At the present time one of the hottest inter-squad battles for a team position is that going on between veteran Jay Rhodemeyer, hailed by many as the best center in the conference last year, har home, and sophomore Harry Ulinski, a re-converted back.

Ulinski was referred to many times last year by Coach Bryant as one of the most promising freshmen in the Southeast. And at the beginning of spring practice, the hard working lad was shifted to the center post to help fill the vacancy left when Rhodemeyer's understudy, Charlie Bill Walker, graduated.

Among the many outstanding freshmen on the squad are two half backs that will have plenty of opportunity to show their abilities before the game ends. Dick Martin of Chicago who runs at right half, and Paul Jones, left half, of Lynchcamp, Kentucky.

Tennis, Golf Draw Large Fields For I-M Competition

With golf and tennis drawing their largest fields of entrants in intramural history and softball starting to move after a rather wet beginning, spring intramural activities are plentiful.

Seventy-nine contestants signed up for tennis singles while 26 teams entered the doubles competition. Golf singles top the field with 81 entrants, the doubles claiming 31 teams.

Intramural director, Bill McCubbin, has posted complete schedules of play for both sports. The charts contain the absolute deadline dates for contestants to be played and results to be turned in to the office.

McCubbin stated that no leniency could be allowed on deadline dates this quarter because of the late start and the large fields in both sports. All dates must be adhered to or the contestants' participation in the match will be eliminated.

Any contestant who is ready to play a match, but whose opponent is unavailable, should make any claims for a forfeit he feels he has coming in writing and leave it in the intramural office.

The deadline date for the first round in both golf and tennis is May 2, with the first round in the tennis doubles scheduled for completion that same date. Golf doubles must be furnished by May 9.

Contestants in the second round golf and tennis singles must have their matches played by May 9, however, games can be played now and the results turned in to the office.

May 16 has been designated as the deadline date for the second round play in both doubles.

Those persons interested in intramural track should report to the intramural office May 12 at 3 p.m. ready to compete. As yet the intramural office hasn't listed what events will be held, but no advance registration will be necessary. An entrance fee of $2.50 will be charged.
