worn down by their long march, and that uld not make a forward movement soon, and that if he was thus delayed ive advantages would accrue to Confederates by the captum of Federal Morgan, who had been compelled acuate Cumberland Gap - and pushing with his famished & famishing through the Mountains of Ky to Ohio river at a point above Mays-He however escaped - and Buell out his columns from Louisville 28th of Oct - compelling the & Lexington a the Kentucky the Battle of Perryville was ad iges of which were on the Confederate side - but the order to reb
state d been previously determined on it was adhered to - I was in G. when this Battle was fought - and h
th all my responsibilities in view, never again to be caught within lines during the war - I started Friday Oct 10, for the C S Army then Camp Dick Robinson - I went in compawith Henry F Cromwell & Joseph S Brooks Indiana -

11th Saturday - Arrived at Camp Dick
- everything in confusion and indi a movement of the troops - th. Sunday - went to see Genl Buckner Hd Qrs, his Chief of master to