Louis J. Endres' African Canvases To Be Exhibited

An unusually attractive exhibition of paintings and drawings of north Africa by Louis J. Endres has opened for a two-weeks' showing at the University Art Center.

The mirage cities of northern Africa, with their narrow, twisting streets, frowning ramparts, terraces looking down upon tumbled roofs, dripping mill-wheels, the twilight mysteries of the "souks," dark tunnels winding above the rush of hidden waters, turquoise minarets, the guttering voices of hooded figures leading down into the dim distance, are still cities of the past, pulsating with the charm of age-old mysticism under the Aladdin-like touch of Mr. Endres.

Among those attending the formal opening of the exhibition were Dr. and Mrs. Frank L. McVey, Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert L. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. VanDoren, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Massey, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Barr, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bowyer, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Haggin, Prof. and Mrs. A. C. Zembrod, Mr. and Mrs. Will Sims, Dr. and Mrs. Paul P. Boyd, Dean and Mrs. F. P.
